THE POST

MIDDLEBURG,..... .....OCT. 5, 1877.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Public attention is called to the sale of personal property of Mrs. E. G. Kremer, in Middleburg, on the 12th of Oct. See Bills.

It is a source of regret to announce the death of our old and esteemed citizen Maj. Henry A. Smith, of this Borough. He was an industrious, peaceable citizen and had many warm friends. He bore the pains of his last illness with christian fortitude and died in the hope of blissful immortality. We sympathize with the bereaved.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR THE CHILLS AND FEVER.—Mayor Freas gives this as a certain cure for the chills and fever: Pour about half a gill of hot brandy or whiskey into each boot, before putting them on in the morning, and put the boots on at once. Be particular not to get it into the mouth instead of the boot.

A company of Philadelphia capitalists have made an offer of $200 per acre for the purchase of Gen. Burns' farms across the river, comprising 1100 acres, making a total of $220,000. The owner is indisposed to sell, but as the object doubtless is to establish some great improvement, it is hoped an arrangement, satisfactory all round, can yet be arrived at.—[Lewistown Gazette.

A farmer who came to market on Saturday morning permitted his horse to stand hitched to a post, without food, until 3 o'clock in the afternoon, when Capt. Seltzer, agent for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, had the farmer arrested and taken befor Esquire Murray. A fine of ten dollars and costs was imposed.—[Lebanon Courier.

If horses can wish, no doubt but many are wishing an agent would come this way occasionally.

Edward Bayer, Esq., Horton, Kings Co., N. S. writes that an astonishing cure has been effected on his daughter, by the use of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. The whole spine became diseased, she lost the the use of her limbs, and her back was rounded up like a bow, in consequence of taking cold after having been inoculated with the kine pock. She is now well.

We pledge our reputation on the assertion that any educated physician, after a careful examination of the receipe, will say that Parson's Purgative Pills possess more merit than any other pill now offered for sale.

No one who laces habitually can have a straight or strong back. The muscles being unbalanced, become flabby or contracted, unable to support the trunk of the body erect, and a curvature—usually a double curvature—of the spine is the consequence. And if anything were needed to aggravate the spinal curvature, intensify the compression of the internal viscera, and add to the general deformity, it is found in the modern contrivance of stilted gaiters. These are made with heals so high and narrow that locomotion is awkward and painful, the centre of gravity is shifted "to parts unknown," and the head is thrown forward and hips projected backward to maintain perpendicularity, rendering walking and all other voluntary exercises not only distressing to the person, but disagreeable to the spectator.—Science of Health.

DRESSING FOR CHURCH.—There was a time when good taste demanded the use of the plainest clothes in the sanctuary, when the wealthiest were distinguished for their conspicuous absence of personal adornment, and excessive display was a mark of vulgarity at such time and place. But now it would appear as if, whatever might be thought of a modest garb in other places, the proper costume for the house of God, where, theoretically, we all go to be reminded of our common origin and destiny, was an aggregation of all the jewelry, and all the chignons, and all the paniers, and all the feathers and furbelows in one's wardrobe. The wearer is to carry all this piled up agony to the sanctuary as to a fair, as if her errand were not so much to praise as to be appraised. Until some change is made in respect to "dressing for church." We think it vain to expect any great awakening among sinners, or any great growth in Christianity among professors.—[Bloomfield Times.

HORSE THIEF ARRESTED.—In our last issue we gave an account of the stealing of a horse and buggy from a Mr. Savidge, of Bloomsburg, while he was out gunning, having tied the horse along the road while he entered a woods. We since learn the following: Following the indications of the route taken by the thief, Mr. Savidge came to Sunbury and stopped at the City Hotel. While sitting on the porch of the hotel talking with Oliver Drumheller, son of the proprietor, about the theft, Mr. Savidge observed the stolen horse and buggy approaching from the direction of Purdytown. When the driver got in front of the hotel, young Drumheller stopped him, and, getting into the buggy, coolly drove the thief to 'Squire Brice's, where, upon information of Mr. Savidge he was committed to jail. The thief proved to be a German named Wm. Steiver, who seems to be rather simple-minded, and represented that he was on his way to Philadelphia.—Sunbury Democrat.

MRS. HENRY WOOD'S NEW BOOK, "Within the Maze: or Lady Audinnian's Trial," by the author of "East Lynne," is in press and will be published on Saturday next, by T. B. Petersen & Brothers, Philadelphia, from the author's manuscript and advanced proof-sheets, purchased by them from Mrs. Henry Wood, and will be in uniform style with "Dene Hollow," "Bessy Rane," "Orland Yorke," "The Channings" and all the previous work by this favorite and popular author. It is some time since we have had a novel by Mrs. Henry Wood, whose "East Lynne" has been pramatized by half a score of adapters, and played at at least one hundred theatres. For some months past a new serial, entitled, "Within the Maze," has been published in THE ARGOSY, a London Magazine edited by Mrs. Wood. It will be completed for English readers in the december number; but, in consequence of a special arrangement with the authoress, who has supplied the Petersons' with her manuscript in advance, they will publish the whole story complete in one large octavo volume next Saturday, thus anticipating the publication in London by over two months. The plot is entirely original introducing the adventures and misadventures of a baronet, who kills a man in the heat of passion, is sentenced to death, has his sentence commuted to penal labor for life, attempts to escape, is believed to have been shot by his pursuers, and—but we must not disclose to much of this very exciting tale, but would advise all to procure a copy of the book at once. It will be issued in a large octavo volume, and sold by all booksellers at the low price of $1.75 in cloth, or $1.50 in paper cover; or copies will be sent by mail, to any

SAD.—Free-love, it appears, has had an illustration in Philipsburg, the wife of John Gowland having gone off or attempted to go, with another man by the name of Pierce. John, hower, (good soul) was not willing to part thusly with the wife of his bosom, so he had Pierce arrested, together with Mrs. Rauser, the mother of his wife. They are now in the jail at this place, awaiting trial.

Truly, the way of the transgressor is hard, as, witness Pierce is shut out from the sight of his adored one, and doomed to the company of a strong-minded mother-in-law, who, we believe, takes the ground that her daughter did right. Where is Horace Greeley, and Theodore Tilton, and Mrs. Woodhull?—Bellefonte Republican.

The greatest want of the present age is men and women, healthy and vigorous in mind and body. The continued headaches, weaknesses, nervousness, and varying ailments which afflict women are generally the result of imperfect action of the stomach and other vital organs. DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS, being composed entirely of vegetable substances indigenous to California, may be taken with perfect safety by the most delicate, and are a sure remedy, correcting all wrong action and giving new vigor to the whole system.

How to go West.

This is an inquiry which every one should have truthfully answered before he starts on his journey, and a little care taken in examination of Routs will in many cases save much trouble, time and money.

The "C., B. & Q. R. R." running from Chicago, through Galesburg to Burlington, and the "I., B. & W. Route," running from Indianapolis, through Bloomington to Burlington, have achieved a splendid reputation in the last two years as the leading Passenger Routes to the West. At Burlington they connect with the B. & M. R. R. and form the great Burlington Route which runs direct throught Southern Iowa to Nebraska and Kansas, with close connections to California and the Territories; and passengers starting from Snyder County, on their way westward, cannot do better than to take the Burlington Route.

This Line has published a pamphlet called "How to go West," which contains much valuable information; a large correct map of the Great West, which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the General Passenger Agent B. & M. R. R. Burlington, Iowa.

WHERE TO EMIGRATE?—We answer, go to Southwest Missouri, because the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad Co. offer 1,300,000 Acres of land to actual settlers, at low price on long credit, besides furnishing free transportation over their road to purchasers; this road extends from St. Louis through Missouri to Vinita, Indian Territory, is being pushed rapidly to its destination, the Pacific Coast; will be one of the trunk lines of the country, never blockaded by snow—the lands along the road are in a rich fertile country, as productive as any in the State; the climate combines all the advantages of northern and southern latitudes; good climate soil, health, water, timber, grazing, fruits and flowers, invite you to go to this region. For further information address A. TUCK, Land Com'r, 523 Walnut Street, St. Louis.
