The Post.

Middleburg, JAN 24, 1878.

J. CROUSE Editor & Proprietor.

THE extreme cold of Tuesday two weeks ago is illustrated by the fact that when the war messenger train arrived at Altoona, it was found that the air brakes were so frozen that they would not work

JUDGE STEWART has returned to the bar, after a continuous service of sixteen years on the bench. He became associated with the law firm of Kennedy and Doty; which is one of the most able and reliable in Pittsburg.

FOR the eleven months of 1877 ended November 30th, the excess of exports over imports into ports of the United States was equal to $124,000,000, of which $100,000,000 was for merchandise.

TEXAS is larger than France by more than 40,000 square miles, while if all the inhabitants of the United States were congregated there the population would not be so dense as it is in Massachusetts.

THE Hon. George H. Pendleton is the new Democratic Senator from Ohio. He served several terms in Congress and in 1864 was the Democratic candidate for Vice-President on the ticket with Gen. M'Clellan. He is a wild inflationist.

ONE hundred and thirty American cities have an aggregate indebtedness of $644 000,000. A competent authority ventures the assertion that the aggregate indebtedness of all the cities exceeds one-half the National debt. Boston is the highest on the list of per capita taxation.

NORTH Carolina is the only State represented in Congress entirely by native born citizens. Ten States have not a single native representative. Of the twenty-seven representatives of this State twenty-three are natives, Seventeen Pennsylvanians are representatives from twelve other States

NEAR Pittsburgh a few nights ago a lady was struck in the back while sleeping in her house by the bumper of a car, which had run off the track into the building. She was thrown across the room against a hot stove. Timely assistance saved the woman from death and the building from destruction by fire.

VICTOR EMANUEL, King of Italy, died at Rome last week He was conscious up to the time of his death, and conversed with his family and friends a few moments before he breathed his last. Prince Humbert, the heir apparent, was pronounced his successor to the throne.

THOMAS V. COOPER, Esq., of Delaware county was re-elected Speaker of the Senate at the opening of the present session. The law makes the Lieutenant Governor of the State the presiding officer, but a Speaker is also elected by the Senate who performs the duties during the absence of the above named official.

A MOVEMENT is on foot in favor of the bill of Representative Robbins of North Carolina for a reduction of the tobacco tax from 24 to 12 cents a pound, and spirituous liquors from 90 to 40 cents a gallon. The amendment offered by Representative Cabell allows a drawback of the tax on all tobacco which manufacturers may have on hand when such proposed reduction goes into effect

SENATOR NEWMEYER intends to offer an amendment to the Constitution reducing the members of the Legislature one-half. We believe the people would adopt this amendment if they could get a vote on it The doubling of the Legislature was a mistake, and has proven a failure, the body being more unweildy, and legislation much more expensive The business would be more promptly done, at about half the expense by restoring the Legislature to its former dimensions.

THE war of the Russians against the Turks is nearing a conclusion The Russian forces under Gen. Radetzky have captured the whole Turkish army defending the Shipka pass, and the wound thus inflicted would seem to be fatal, since Turkey has scarcely an army in the field deserving the name. The Sultan has asked for an armistice, but as he is probably not sufficiently humiliated to accede to the demands of Russia, made before hostilities began, which embraced complete protection to the Christian population in Turkey, the war may close to soon. The Greek Church may not be all that is desirable, but there is no hope for anything better until Mohammedan rule is crushed in Europe.

ONE of the first convicted Mollie Maguires, Charles Boyle, escaped from the Eastern Penitentiary recently in an ingenious way. He had been placed in the bakery as a reward for good conduct, and persuaded two other prisoners there to put him into an empty hogshead, which was placed on a wagon that was afterwards driven out of the yard. When the escape was discovered, the two companions were put in the dungeon, and the gatekeeper suspended for not investigating the contents of the wagon before allowing it to pass out. The two prisoners confessed that they had emptied the hogshead of its contents and fitted hinges on its head, so that it could be fastened from the inside, and that they had wrapped Boyle in some salt bags before putting him in

PRESIDENT HAYES, vice President Wheeler, and Speaker Randall are all teetotalers

THE public debt of Pennsylvania, unprovided for, is now about thirteen millions of dollars When the Republicans came into power in the State in 1861 it was about forty millions of dollars, and although the expenses of the war for four years involved the expenditure of many millions more, the debt under good management, rapidly receded until it is now scarcely felt. During this time the State tax on real estate has been abolished, and but for this lightening of the people's burdens, the small remnant of the public debt would long since have disappeared.

A RESOLUTION introduced in the United States Senate, on Monday a week, by Mr Mitchell, recites that there are 300,000 Indians in the United States for whose benefit 300,000 000 acres of land have been set apart, or 1 000 acres to each man, woman and child, from all of which lands white settlers are excluded. The resolution proposes four reservations for the use of Indians, permitting all who are competent to become citizens, the Territories to have a suitable form of government and to be represented in Congress by a delegate to be appointed by the President, and to have a superintendent, who shall be ex officio Governor of the Territory. The resolution also provides for schools, military posts, etc —Ex.

IT'S a good thing that the winter is approaching its close, before the coal mining and coal carrying corporations combined to plunder the consumer. In less than three months these pirates on commerce will be at each other's throats so that by that time the demand for coal will not be a necessity to keep women and children from freezing We expect to see the question of these combinations logged into politics before the year is out, in which case a Legislature elected on an issue of this kind will make it very lively for these corporations. When the people can be taught to combine in this manner to protect themselves from deliberate, premeditated plunder, corporations will discover that the power which called them into existence can also correct their excesses —Harrisburg Telegraph.

ALAS FOR TILDEN! His cake is being baked in a manner little expected either by himself or the New York World. When Dan Voorhees was sent to the United States Senate by the advice and consent of ex-Governor Hendricks, there was a flutter in the Tilden camp that called up the usual brag with which the followers of the railroad smasher manfully bolster his pretentions. They immediately gave notice that Mr. Tilden intended to be the candidate in 1880 That proved a bad card. It called out Pendleton, who carries off the Senatorial honors in Ohio, and will be in the United States Senate to join Voorhees in the resolve to lay Tilden on the shelf As we all know how well Mr Tilden loves himself, we expect war from this time forward. He is not the man to be kicked in his own household It is enough that he was kicked aside by the action of the Electoral Commission For the Democracy to do the same thing, is more than he can submit to.—Ex.

CONSUMPTION CURED.—An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections—also a positive and radical cure for nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderfully curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge to all who desire it, this recipe in German, French, or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 1:6 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y.
