The temperance wave has struck Middleburg at last. On Saturday evening last, a series of meeting's were opened, Mr. F. W. Hoy, of Harrisburg is the lecturer, and blue Ribbons are already worn by a large number of boys women and children.

There are four boys, from Northumberland, in jail at this place, their ages ranging from 9 to 13 years, who have been committed on the chrge of larceny. They are "hard" cases, and will no doubt be sent to the house of refuge.—Sunbury Daily.

Since our last issue we learn that Jefferson D. Hummel of Middlecreek twp., was also in the well near Vicksburg, Union Co. when the explosion occurred and was frightfully injured. His upper lip and portion of cheek was torn away and his throat cut in a frightful manner leaving the jugular vein untouched but by a hair's breadth. He is recovering.

ASSIGNEE SALE.—The undersigned Assignee of Simon W. See Bills. DAVID GROSS, Assignee.

The currant worms or slugs, are making sad havoc among the currant and gooseberry bushes, about this time. A remedy that never fails with us is white hellebore. A small quanty sifted through a perforated small tin strainer or sieve is sure to destroy them in 24 hours. The article can be had at any drug store at 75 or 80 cents per lb. These worms generally commence on the gooseberry in preference to the currant and soon strip the bushes of their foilage if not arrested in time. Apply it after a rain, or in the morning.

RUN OFF WITH THEIR TOPKNOTS.—About one hundred female residents of Pottstown have been egregiously swindled out of their frizzes, curls, chignons and other artificial headgear. Two rogues cauvassed the town and collected a great variety of artificial hair which they were to renovate, redress and arrange according to the prevailing modes. But they silently stole away with their rare collections of topknots, leaving behind an unpaid board bill and a trunk full of indifferent [illegible]

MODOC INDIANS ON THE MOVE.—A few weeks ago a number of Modoc Indians, clad in the uniform of the United States, passed over the Pennsylvania railroad in one of the regular passenger trains, on their way from Washington to their former home in the far west. They were part of the Modoc Indians sent to the Dry Tortugas, on the Florida coast, for participation in the Klamath massacre, under Captain Jack, several years ago. Some eighteen or twenty of the young men of the tribe, we learn, were left at Hampton Roads, Va., to be schooled. The party were in charge of several United States Government officers and were destined for one of the Western reservations.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.—During one of the heavy thunder storms of Friday afternoon last the house of Mrs. Mary Davis, on West Third street, opposite the Henderson hose house, was struck by lightning. The report was terrific and startled everybody in the vicinity. Taking the corner off the chimney of the back building, the fluid ran down the edge of the roof, crushing in the outer end of the bath room, which was built on the end of the balcony, ran down the spout, where it apparently exploded breaking a number of panes of glass in the lower story, scattered a pack of tacks in the sitting room, made two or three holes in a rain barrel, and went down into the ground at the hydrant. Shingles and weather-boarding were splintered and carried in all directions, one about three feet long having been lodged on a tree in the garden 50 feet away. The inmates of the dwelling at the time were Mother Davis and her daughter, R. Ann Davis, the first named being down stairs, the latter up, seated on the floor within six feet of the open bath room door sewing carpet. Both were severely stunned and felt the effects for hours afterward. The square window of the bath room was litterally shattered into bits. The upper part of the house was filled with sulphurous smoke. Numbers of the townfolks visited the premises after the rain had subsided, and congratulated them on their narrow escape from death.—Lewistown Gazette, May 1st.

West Beaver Items.

On Thursday last Joseph Wagner of Decatur twp., Mifflin Co., was arrested and brought before N. B. Middleswarth J. P., charged with stealing a watch out of the house of John Ulsh sr. After hearing the evidence the Justice discharged the prisoner for want of evidence against him to warrant conviction, the day following it was found out that he had stolen the watch and traded it to Adam Wagner esq., of West Beaver twp., for a months rent of a house and lot, so therefore the warant was again placed in the hands of constable Herbster for his arrest, but the thief is yet at large.

The thief, has already served one term in the Eastern Penetentary for forgery.

Obituary.

It is with sincere regret we this week record the death of Hon. B. L. Rondenbush one of the most esteemed citizens of this county.

He died at his residence in Adamsburg, of "Gastritis" after a sickness of two days duration.

He was born in Schuylkill Co. Pa. December 2nd., 1829. He was married on the 27th., day of July 1854 to Maria Malinda Madden by whom he had two sons, who are left to survive him.

His first wife having died a number of years ago he was married a second time to Miss Elizabet Weizel who also died on the 2, day of September 1874 since which time he has been a widower.

He came to this county a number of years ago and established himself in business, and by industry, perseverance and indomintable energy succeeded in ammassing considerable means.

In the fall of 1873 he was elected our Associate Judge, for a period of five years dying in office, his term having not yet expired.

He was buried on the 7th, inst., at Adamsburg, according to the rites and ceremonies of the Free Masons, of which body he was a member.

The funeral sermons were preached by Revs. Wgland and Romig.

How often the hand of God, in his infinite providence, take from us the most cherished of our friends.

We were for years on intimate terms of friendship with the deceased, and his sudden and unexpected death has created a void in our circle of friends, not easily filled. He was a man respected by all who knew him.

Kind, to a fault, he was the friend of the poor. Generous, and amiable, he was the best of companions. Honest and capable, he made a superior officer; kind hearted and affable, he was a kind husband and father.

True to his professions he was honored and respected by all.

By his death the county loses an estimable citizen, the people a friend, the Court an excellent officer, the Free Masons an honored brother, and his sons a noble father.

May the evergreens be just emblems of his memory.

Peace to his ashes.

Medical Society.

The Snyder county Medical Society held its last meeting in Boyer's Hall, at Freeburg, on Wednesday, May 1st, 1878. There was a good turn-out of the Members. The proceedings were interesting, and the time was spent, apparently, to the benefit of all present. At this meeting the Society succeeded in adopting a Fee-bill, something which appears necessary to the harmony and well-being of the Fraternity. This bill is intended to be a guide to the practitioner in making his charges. The following were elected officers. for the ensuing year: Dr. H. M. Nipple, President—Drs. B. F. Wagenseller & A. M. Smith, Vice Presidents—Dr. J. Y. Shindel, Sec'y and Treas'r—Drs. Perce, Herman, A. M. Smith and J. W. Sheets, Censors. Drs. H. M. Nipple and J. Grier Barber were elected Delegates to the Medical Society of the State of Penn'a., which meets at Pittsburg, May 29, 30 and 31, 1878. Two new members were admitted Drs. F. J. Wagenseller and H. F. Woomer. The Society now consists of a large majorit. of the Physicians of the County. A number of the members gave report of Medical Cases, written and orally—which were very interesting, and intended to bring out a discussion, in which all took part—comparing notes, opinions and treatment, to the mutual benefit of all. This meeting was more interesting, and seemed to do the members more good, than any the Society has ever held. So it should be; Let every member try to bring something which he thinks will interest, and all will be benefitted and pleased. The Society will hold its next meeting at Middleburg, Aug. 7th, next, at 9 o'clock A. M, REPORTER.

ELECTION OF CO. SUPT.—According to the provisions of the Act of Assembly, in such case made and provided, the School Directors of Snyder County met in convention at the Court House, in this place, on the 7th inst. to elect a County Superintendent of Schools, to serve three years.

Samuel Alleman, Esq., was called to the chair and T. J. Smith, Esq. was elected secretary of the Convention.

Prof. Wm. H. Dill of Freeburg and Co. Supt. W. H. Scharf were nominated, after which short speeches were made by the candidates and evidence of their competency were submitted to the convention. The election was then held which resulted in the election of Mr. Schorf by a vote of 45 to 33,

The convention was not required to fix the salary of the Co. Supt. as heretofore, a recent act of Assembly changed the law in that respect. The salary of the Superintendant for this county is now $1000.

ACCIDENTS.—A correspondent sends us the following: 'As Mr. Daniel Rine, of Rye twp., was cleaning a well for Mr. Emanuel Keller, on Saturday, the 20th inst., he went down and was taken sick from the effects of the foul air. He started to go up the ladder, and when about 20 feet from the bottom he fainted and fell, landing on his head, breaking his nose and lacerating his forehead in a shocking manner, and causing concussion of the brain Dr. Epley was sent for, who dressed his wounds and has attended to him since. Mr. Rine is still deranged and laying in very dangerous condition at this writing, 26th. The doctor has very little hopes of his recovery.—Bloomfield Times April 30th.
