All kinds of Paragraphs.

☞ Health is getting to be vulgar, and is confined principally to servant girls. No "lady" can possibly plead guilty to "being well," without losing caste. Spinal complaints are just now in the ascendant—no female being considerd "good society" who possesses sufficient strength to raise a smoothing iron.

The editor of the Democrat quotes from the London Chronicle what he calls a disinterested opinion of Gen. Scott." The British can't give a disinterested opinion of Gen. Scott. Do you suppose, neighbor, that even you, magnanimous as you may be, could give a disinterested opinion of a gentleman who had thrashed you?—Louisville Journal.

☞ The following is from "REVENGE"—a new novel, by the author of the "Smiling Axe" and the "Sanguinary Crow Bar."

"His eyes were ripped from their sockets, and melted lead poured in—and the fiend yelled again—'HA! Hell's furies!—wretch!—fiend!—demon!—blood!—daggers!—frizzy—parricide!—fratricide!—matricide!—suicide!—murder!—villain!—pirate!—robber!—rascal!—scoundrel!—REVENGE!—Ha! ha! he! he! ho! ho!—oh! oh!—o—o—o—o—o—!!!!!!!!!'—and he died."

Well, I guess he did.

HOBBS IN ENGLAND.—The London correspondent of the Philadelphia N. American states that Braham's celebrated prize lock has been withdrawn from public view. It will be remembered that Mr. Hobbs succeeded in picking this lock, and that he received a reward of two hundred guineas for his skill. The Messrs. Braham made some alterations and improvements in the lock, and again placed it in the window in Piccadilly, with the original offer of the reward appended to it. It remained in the window a few days when a report reached the Messrs. Braham that Hobbs intended to try his luck a second time. The lock was immediately removed, and has not since been seen.

☞ "They say" there is a man in Wall-street, a rich man, moreover, whose business, in the "street hours" is counting money, who has such a taste for handling coin, that in riding home in an omnibus, he always takes the seat nearest the driver, so that he may finger the sixpences of the passengers, and pass them up to the driver, through the usual aperture.

"They do say," also, that having heard the eminent Doctor Durbin preach, on a certain occasion, a most eloquent charity-sermon, he remarked to a friend, in returning from church:

"That sermon was a very s'arching one. He proved so strongly the duty of alms-giving, that I had almost a mind to beg myself."

Not exactly the application perhaps that was intended by the minister!

STRANGE ACTS OF ERRORS.—We are frequently much astonished at the conduct of our bretheren of the press. They do 'unaccountable' things. One of them recently made the following unprecedented announcement: 'We respectfully decline 'A Young Maiden's Kiss.' The fellow was crazy, without doubt. Another is positively inhuman; hear him: 'My Dying Mother' cannot be admitted!' We suppress his name out of regard to the profession. A third makes the following startling announcement: 'The Golden Bible is rejected.' We would like to shake hands with that brother. A fourth, to end this strange catalogue, says in his last issue: 'Mrs. Mullowney's Christmas pudding shall go in next week!' We admire his taste. May good digestion wait on appetite.

☞ The tranquility of the Scotch in the most extraordinary circumstances, brings to mind, says Colman in his Random Records, the incredible tale of the Scotchman's tumbling from one of loftiest houses in the old town of Edinburgh.—He slipped, says the legend, off the roof of a habitation sixteen stories high; and when mid-way in his descent through the air, he arrived at a lodger looking out at the eighth story, to whom (as he was an old acquaintance) he observed en passent, 'Eh, Sandy, man! sic a fa' as I will ha'e!'

THE AUTUMN.—We are saying our farewell to the summer. Beneath her changing foliage and amid her witheribg flowers she has laid down to die.

The Autumn comes. Her palm is filled with purple clusters, and fruits streaked and dappled like the morning skies.

There is a pleasant smell upon the air as if it breathed through vintages—and it refreshes the spirit as the body is refreshed with new wine.

The green of the forest begins to fade away—and in its stead come the dolphin tints of Autumn time—of crimson, gold and purple.

The sound of the sickle echoes amid the valleys—the ripe grain falls with a rustling music.

Stores better than gold are laid up for the unseen future; stores which shall be opened and dispensed amid the long hours of the lastening winter.

There are hearts which throb faster at the recurrence of the Autumn; it is the anniversary of that hour in which the darling passed silently down the dusky hills of death.

So are the gifts of the sweet season varied. Some gathering in ripe fruits; some the Tyrian grapes; some the yellow grain. Others gather in new poverty of heart, and reap a harvest of sorrowful memories. The earth is full of contrasts; and the shout of the husbandman is echoed by the mourner's sigh.—Buff. Ex.

WHAT WAS IT CUT WITH?—A party of friends had assembled one evening, and after discussing the various topics of the day, one of them remarked:

'Well, boys, I suppose you have heard of Dave Duncomb's marriage?'

Some of them had heard of it and some had not.

'Well,' continued the speaker, 'he is married, and I was at the wedding. A right merry time we had of it, too, I assure you, but there was one thing that surprised me very much, and that was the manner in which they cut the wedding-cake—I can't help thinking of it. Now what do you suppose they cut it with.'

'The wedding ring,' said one.

'No,' answered the first speaker, 'you must guess again.'

'A string,' said one.

'No.'

'A stick whittled to an edge,' suggested a third.

'No.'

'A piece of tin,' ventured a fourth, thinking he had hit it.

'No.'

'What was it,' exclaimed they all in one breath, after guessing every imaginary article they could think of except the right one, that could either possibly or impossibly be put through such a cake.

'Why,' said the quiz, 'they cut it with a knife to be sure.'

DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS,

PREPARED BY

Dr. C. M. Jackson,

At the German Medicine Store, 120 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of disease of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal, safe certain and pleasant.

Read and be convinced.

From the Boston Bee.

The editor said, Dec. 22nd—

Dr. Hoofland's Celebrated German Bitters for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our elbow says he has himself received an effectual and permanent cure of Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy. We are convinced that, in the use of these Bitters, the patient constantly gains strength and vigor—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances. We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise their use.

"SCOTT'S WEEKLY" one of the best Literary papers published, said, Aug. 25—

"Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."

More Evidence.

The Hon. C. D. Hineline, Mayor of the City of Camden, N. J. says:

"HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We have seen many flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they came induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were persuaded to use it, and must say found it specific in its action upon diseases of the liver and digestive organs, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration is really surprising. It calms and strengthens the nerves, bringing them into a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

If this medicine was more generally used we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, liver, and nervous system, the great majority of real and imaginary diseases emanate. Have them in a healthy condition, and you can bid defiance to epidemics generally. This extraordinary medicine we would advise our friends who are at at all indisposed, to give a fair trial—it will recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit.

Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the last three years, and the strongest testimony in its favor is, that there is more of it used in the practice of the regular physicians of Philadelphia, than all other nostrums combined, a fact that can easily be established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when presented even in this form.

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, no one can doubt after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver; it is preferable to calomel in all bilious diseases—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to female or infant with safety and eliable benefit at any time.

Look well to the marks of the genuine. They have the written signature of C. M. JACKSON upon the wrapper, and his name blown in the bottle, without which they are spurious.

To Dairymen & Farmers.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE!

A FARM of 200 acres, situate in Bridgewater township, Susquehanna county, and state of Pennsylvania, 150 acres of which are under good improvement.

The farm is well designed for a dairy, and is capable of feeding 40 cows during summer and winter, and every part of it is well watered. The buildings and land are in good condition, and the fences which are of stone and rails, are also good.—There are two large barns upon the premises, besides a granary and convenient sheds for cattle.—Three orchards principally of grafted fruit and other fruit trees.

Said farm has a very pleasant and desirable location about two miles from Montrose, the County seat of Susquehanna county, and about nine miles from the Leggett's Gap Railroad, to which there is a Plank Road in process of completion, and is very convenient to meetings, schools and mechanics.

Also, another valuable Farm adjoining the above containing 200 acres, of which 150 are under a high state of cultivation. Upon it there is a large frame dwelling house with outbuildings to correspond, and a large orchard. It is well watered and fenced and admirably adapted to dairy purposes.

Said property will be sold on reasonable terms, and a portion of the purchase money may remain on bond and mortgage to suit the purchaser.

Application may be made personally or by letter to Hon. Wm. Jessup or R. J. Niven at Montrose, in said county, and any further particulars that may be required will be given. 27tf

Another Scientific Wonder!

GREAT CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA!

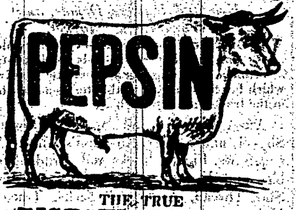
DR. J. S. HOUGHTON'S



THE TRUE

DIGESTIVE FLUID,

OR, GASTRIC JUICE.

Prepared from RENNET, or the fourth STOMACH OF THE OX, after directions of BARON LIEBIG, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. HOUGHTON, M.D. Philadelphia, Pa.

This a truly wonderful remedy for INDIGESTION, DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE, LIVER COMPLAINT, CONSTIPATION, and DEBILITY, Curing after Nature's own method, by Nature's own Agent, the Gastric Juice.

☞ Half a teaspoonful of Pepsin, infused in water, will digest or dissolve, Five pounds of Roast Beef in about two hours, out of the stomach.

Pepsin is the chief element, or Great Digesting Principle of the Gastric Juice—the Solvent of the Food, the Purifying, Preserving, and Stimulating agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is extracted from the Digestive Stomach of the Ox, thus forming an artificial digestive fluid, precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it. By the aid of this preparation, the pains and evils of Indigestion and Dyspepsia are removed, just as they would be by a healthy Stomach. It is doing wonders for Dyspeptics, curing case so Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption, supposed to be on the verge of the grave. The Scientific Evidence upon which it is based, is in the highest degree curious and remarkable.

Scientific Evidence.

BARON LIEBIG in his celebrated work on Animal Chemistry, says: "An Artificial Digestive Fluid, analogous to the Gastric Juice, may be readily prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the Calf, in which various articles of food, as meat and eggs, will be softened, changed and digested, just in the same manner as they would be in the human stomach."

☞ Call on the agent and get a descriptive Circular, gratis, giving a large amount of scientific evidence similar to the above, together with reports of remarkable cures, from all parts of the United States.

As a Dyspepsia Cures.

Dr. Houghton's Pepsin has produced the most marvellous effects, in curing cases of Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consumption. It is impossible to give the details of cases in the limits of this advertisement, but authenticated certificates have been given of more than two hundred remarkable cures, in Philadelphia, New York and Boston alone. These were nearly all desperate cases, and the cures were not only rapid and wonderful, but permanent.

It is a great Nervous Antidote, and particularly useful for tendency to bilious disorder, liver complaint, fever and ague, and the evil effects of quinine, mercury, and other drugs upon the Digestive Organs, after a long sickness. Also for excess in eating, and the too free use of ardent spirits. It also reconciles Health with Intemperance.

Dr. Houghton's Pepsin is prepared in powder and fluid form—and in prescription vials for the use of physicians.

Private Circulars for the use of Physicians may be obtained of Dr. Houghton or his agents, describing the whole process of preparation, and giving the authorities upon which the claims of this new remedy are based. As it is not a secret remedy, no objection can be raised against its use by physicians in respectable standing and regular practice. Price ONE DOLLAR per bottle.

☞ OBSERVE THIS.—Every bottle of the genuine Pepsin bears the written signature of J. S. HOUGHTON, M. D., sole proprietor, Philadelphia, Pa. Copy right and Trade mark secured.

☞ Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicines.
