The Best Party Service.

Republicans naturally and properly desire party success wherever that success is best for the party and the people. The appeal to party pride and fidelity is just and right within reasonable limitations.

During twenty-five years of matchless history the glory and strength of Republicanism have consisted in its fidelity to principle and in its embodiment of the public conscience. When the party is true to its high standard every honest Republican can heartily sustain it. When it falls short, the highest service to Republicanism is an effort to restore it to its true character.

President Hayes said that he serves his party best who serves the people best. The saying is eminently true. Lasting strength rests upon honest work and solid merit. The Republican representative does most for Republicanism who makes Republicanism mean honor, integrity and justice. And the Republican voter promotes the best interests of the party who teaches it the wholesome lesson that it cannot maintain its ascendancy unless it deserves to maintain it.

The worst possible service to the Republican party is that which is rendered by men who profess to speak and act in its name, and who use it only to advance selfish ends, to plunder the people and to bring the honored party standard into disrepute. And the best service to the party is that which rebukes it from this dominancy [illegible] and overthrows the false representatives who prostitute it to their own base ends. -- Press.

Congress and Polygamy.

The temper of Congress seems at last to be decidedly hostile to polygamy. The complacent indifference with which this evil has been so long regarded has given place at last to a conviction that its longer toleration in this country must not be endured. This feeling is not original with Congress. It is there but a faint reflection of the aroused public feeling on this subject which has found expression through the press, the pulpit, and upon the lecture platform. With the disappearance of other issues the country has leisure to contemplate this festering sore upon our Western civilization, and it is shocked and displeased with the spectacle there presented. The expectation that this evil would cure itself and gradually die out with the lapse of years has been disappointed. On the contrary, the contagion is spreading until now no less than six States and Territories are wholly or partly within its influence.

In the House the Cannon-Campbell contest has brought the subject prominently to the front. The discussion raised by it has run almost entirely upon polygamy and has developed a remarkable uniformity of sentiment against it among the members. By a resolution recently adopted the House stands committed against admitting any polygamist to a seat in that body. Petitions of tar-position has been presented to the present Congress praying for the extirpation of polygamy. Six bills are now pending in the Senate and fourteen in the House providing new legal machinery, or improving the old, for the suppression of this Mormon institution. The existing laws against polygamy have thus far proved inadequate for their purpose; but with all the legal talent now concentrated on this subject, it ought to be possible to frame and enact an efficient and sufficient law that will enable the Government to put down polygamy in this country forever.

Five years ago there came to Scranton a Miss Baldwin, who had been a governess in Baltimore. She married a well-to-do farmer named Parlin, living near Scranton. A few days ago a gentleman named Deagan came to Scranton from Missouri on a visit. He was accompanied by a friend named James Baldwin; and while on a fishing jaunt they stopped by accident at the house of Farmer Parlin for dinner. Young Baldwin related some incidents in his past life while at the dinner table, whereupon Mrs Parlin threw herself into his arms declaring that he was her brother. Her statement proved to be true. It appears that the two arrived at New York from England twelve years ago. The young man went to sea, while the sister went to Baltimore. Neither had heard of the other since.

Frederick Lauer's brewery, in Reading, was sold on Friday last, for $90,000.

Congress and the Trade.

The Lebanon Courier thinks that whatever Congress is going to do relative to the taxes on tobacco, sugar, etc, ought to be done quickly. Everybody will approve the proposition. The condition of uncertainty that now hangs over the trade is a great injury to it. Manufacturers and dealers do not know what to do, except in a speculative way, which is a species of gambling that should never be encouraged. There have been about 500,000 persons employed in the manufacture of cigars in this country, but, it is said, owing to the doubts as to what Congress will do, manufacturers are curtailing their work, and at least one-half of the workers on cigars are now idle. The same cause operates injuriously on other industries. It is a wrong to the industrial interests of the country to keep a threat of legislation hanging over them that may seriously affect them.

A dispatch from Buenos Ayres, dated January 25, says that particulars have been received there of a massacre of the inhabitants of Pisco by Peruvian soldiery. Colonel Was, with 600 troops from Ica, attacked Villavicencia, routed him, and with the aid of his men, proceeded to sack Pisco. A thousand pipes of wine were distributed among the men who burned the houses and murdered the inhabitants. Four hundred foreigners, who attempted to resist, were cut to pieces, 300 being killed, including the French Consul. The total number of the victims was 1000. It is said that Colonel Was has since been shot by Garciar Calderon's troops.

A young couple down in North Carolina were married on an express train running at the rate of forty miles per hour. As the counties down there are reasonably small, it may be a mixed matter as to which one of them to bring the divorce suit in, should matters marital with the couple not turn out as expected.

Guiteau, in a private note to Colonel Reed, offers him, Hon. B. F. Butler, R. T. Merrick and Judge D. R. Magruder, of Maryland, $5,000 each in notes, payable in a year, if they will get him out of jail. He says if he could get out he would make $50,000 on the lecture platform next winter.

No hopes seem to be entertained by the New York Democracy of carrying the State next time. The war between Kelly and Tilden has eaten too big a hole into an old bulk already rotten.

A memorial over 5000 feet in length signed by business men, farmers and others, was presented to Congress last week. It asks that the tax on bank deposits and the two cent stamp on checks and drafts may be abolished.

A new horse disease has appeared in Pittsburg. An eruption appears on the skin above the hoof. Soon the hoof corrodes and drops off unless care is taken in the treatment. It is said to be caused by dirty streets.

There are 714 prisoners in the Eastern Penitentiary. They have earned during the past year $11,399 for over work.

It is useless to deny that the brightest and fairest fall easy victims to consumption, and equally fruitless to ignore the fact that decline has its origin in many cases in neglected catarrh. Sanford's Radical Cure is a pure, sweet balsamic specific. March.

SAMARITAN

NERVINE

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Cures Epileptic Fits, Spasms, Convulsions, St. Vitus Dance, Vertigo, Hysterics, Insanity, Apoplexy, Paralysis, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and all Nervous Diseases. This infallible remedy will positively eradicate every species of Nervous Derangement, and drive them away from whence they came, never to return again. It utterly destroys the germs of disease by neutralizing the hereditary taint of poison in the system, and thoroughly eradicates the disease, and utterly destroys the cause.

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Cures Female Weakness, General Debility, Leucorrhoea or Whites, Painful Menstruation, Ulceration of the Uterus, Internal Heat, Gravel, Inflammation of the Bladder, Irritability of the Bladder. For Wakefulness at Night, there is no better remedy. During the change of life no Female should be without it. It quiets the Nervous System and gives rest, comfort and nature's sweet sleep.

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Cures Alcoholism, Drunkenness and the habit of Opium Eating. These degrading habits are by far the worst evils that have ever befallen suffering humanity. Thousands die annually from these noxious drugs. The drunkard drinks liquor not because he likes it, but for the pleasure of drinking and treating his friends, little thinking that he is on his road to ruin. Like the Opium Eater, he first uses the drug in small quantities as a harmless antidote. The soothing influence of the drug takes strong hold upon its victim, leading him on to his own destruction. The habits of Opium Eating and Liquor Drinking are precisely what eating is to alimentiveness, as over-eating first inflames the stomach, which redoubles its cravings until it paralyzes both the stomach and appetite. So every drink of liquor or dose of Opium, instead of satisfying only adds to its fierce fires, until it consumes the vital force and then itself. Like the gluttonous tape-worm, it cries "Give, give, give!" but never enough until its own rapacity devours itself. Samaritan Nervine gives instant relief in all such cases. It produces sleep, quiets the nerves, builds up the nervous system, and restores body and mind to a healthy condition.

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Cures Nervous Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Asthma, Bronchitis, Scrofula, Syphilis, diseases of the Kidneys and all diseases of the urinary organs. Nervous debility, caused by the indiscretions of youth, permanently cured by the use of this invaluable remedy. To you, young, middle-aged and old men, who are covering your sufferings as with a mantle by silence, look up, you can be saved by timely efforts, and make ornaments to society, and jewels in the crown of your Maker, if you will. Do not keep this a secret longer, until it saps your vitals, and destroys both body and soul. If you are thus afflicted, take Dr. Richmond's Samaritan Nervine. It will restore your shattered nerves, arrest premature decay, impart tone and energy to the whole System.

SAMARITAN NERVINE

Is for sale by druggists everywhere, or may be had direct from us. Those who wish to obtain further evidence of the curative properties of Samaritan Nervine will please enclose a 3-cent postage stamp for a copy of our Illustrated Journal of Health, giving hundreds of testimonials of cure from persons who have used the medicine, and also their pictures photographed after their restoration to perfect health.
