THE DEMOCRACY OF BRADFORD SPEAKING.

DETERMINED OPPOSITION TO THE REPEAL OF THE MISSOURI COMPROMISE!

Pursuant to a published call, a large meeting of the Democrats of Bradford County assembled at the Court House, in the borough of Towanda, on Tuesday evening, May 2, for the purpose of taking such action as might express their determination to render effective and practical their opposition to the proposed repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and the men who favor that scheme, and also for the purpose of calling upon the Legislature to express the honest voice of Pennsylvania, by passing the resolutions now before the House.

The meeting was organized by the election of the following officers:—

FOR PRESIDENT,

COL. GORDON F. MASON.

VICE PRESIDENTS.

I. A. Park, | S. W. Shepard,
N. N. Betts, | D. B. Cotton,

SECRETARIES.

H. L. Scott, | Thomas Smead.

The Hon. David Wilmot being called upon, proceeded to state the objects of the meeting, in a lengthy and able speech, and offered the following for the consideration of the meeting:—

The Democracy of Bradford, in County meeting assembled, again reiterate and proclaim to their political brethren their irreconcilable opposition to the measure now pending in Congress for the repeal of the 8th section of the act preparatory to the admission of Missouri into the Union. We warn our friends throughout the State against the consequences of disaster and defeat, which in our judgment will overwhelm us as a party, if this measure of injustice and wrong be forced upon the country under a Democratic Administration, and in the abused name of Democracy. To the principles of the Democratic faith we profess an ardent and unalterable attachment, and we hold it an insult upon our intelligence, and an outrage upon our principles, to press upon our acceptance as democratic, a measure designed to defraud the laboring masses and their posterity of their rightful inheritance, and to surrender the National domain to Southern capitalists, as a field upon which to employ more profitably their capital invested in slaves.

Democracy as taught by Jefferson, and illustrated in the administrations of the earlier democratic Presidents, had no alliance or sympathy with slavery. As a local State institution, it was free from Federal interference; but never, until these latter times, did slavery dare to claim the fostering care and support of the National Government, for its extension beyond State boundaries. The power of the Nation in the earlier and better days of the Republic was repeatedly exerted to circumscribe the limits of slavery, and to set bounds to its progress; and in this patriotic work, the Democratic party and its leading Statesmen took an active and prominent part.

Standing upon the great and beneficent doctrines of the Democratic creed—instructed by the teachings and example of Jefferson, we solemnly protest against the attempt now made to prostitute the organization of the Democratic party to purposes of slavery propagandism. We claim for Democracy higher objects, and a nobler mission—the elevation of man, not his degradation and debasement—the protection of the rights of labor, against the heartless demands of capital.

As citizens deeply interested in the honor of our State—as democrats earnestly desiring the success of our party in all its efforts for the protection of individual rights, and the advancement of the general welfare, we are anxious that this great and powerful Commonwealth should occupy before her sister States, the position of honor and party safety on the great question now engaging the almost undivided attention of the American Congress and people. We condemn as dishonorable, and unworthy of a party which has ever boasted of carrying its principles and policy boldly inscribed on its banner, to evade meeting fully and frankly the great absorbing question now agitating and convulsing the country. We demand that the Democracy of Pennsylvania shall be heard in the settlement of great National questions; that the voice of the party in this State, shall not be smothered on the most momentous issue which has been presented for the deliberation and decision of the present generation. We make principle the test, and the only test of party fidelity—and utterly discard any other, as calculated to detract from the dignity of party action, and to sink our party conflicts into a degrading and demoralizing scramble for office—unworthy of intelligent and independent men.

We earnestly call upon the Democratic members of our State Legislature, to consider and pass the resolutions now pending in the House of Representatives, declaring the sentiments of Pennsylvania as opposed to the bill before Congress for the repeal of the Missouri Compromise; and especially we invoke the most strenuous and active efforts of our own Representatives to this end. With this expression of the voice of Pennsylvania solemnly proclaimed through her highest constitutional organ, we are content, and can look forward with courage and hope for the triumph of sound principle in the defeat of the Nebraska bill, and of the certain success of our party candidates in the approaching election. If the legislature should fail to meet our just expectations in this respect, then we respectfully call upon our democratic friends throughout the State to take immediate action for the assembling of a Democratic Anti-Nebraski Convention at the State Capital on the 1st day of June, to take such action as may be deemed necessary and proper to make known to the country the feelings and principles of that portion of the democracy of Pennsylvania who are opposed to the threatened repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and to adopt such measures as are demanded in view of the crisis now impending over the country.

If this suggestion should be seconded by our friends in other quarters of the State, and a State Convention should assemble, this meeting name U. Mercur, Stephen Pierce, Hon. Myron Ballard, D. B. Cotten, A. S. Smith, B. Laporte, James H. Webb, H. Lawrence Scott, Thos. Smead, Henry Gibbs and Luman Putnam, as delegates to represent Bradford county in said Convention, with power of substitution in case of inability on the part of any of them to attend.

On motion of U. Mercur, Hon. David Wilmot was added to the list of delegates.

On motion the foregoing was unanimously adopted.

On motion,

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in all the Democratic papers in this Congressional district. Adjourned.

THE HEIR NOT APPARENT.—The Bourbon question, as relates to the Rev. E Williams, has been settled by Peter A. Brown of Philadelphia, who has examined a lock of his hair, and finds that he belongs to the cross of Indian and white. Some of his hairs are entirely cylindrical, while others are oval. Not only so, but there is very great difference in the diameter of his hairs, which is an unerring mark of union of two species. The largest has 1-458 x 1-325, and the smallest 1,987.

☞ The London Correspondent of the Philadelphia North American, under date of April 21st., writes:

The forces, sea and land, are now on a large scale, and ought to achieve some exploit.—The land forces consist of Horse Artillery, 2,131; Cavalry 2,000 (not yet gone, but will go when Lord Hardinge has determined the route); Foot Guards, 2,550; infantry, 18,750. Total 25,731. This enumerates only the rank and file; the staff are not here included, neither are the commissioned and non-commissioned Officers of the force, these included will make an effective force of 30,000. The French force will at first muster 50,000 men, but they will be largely increased.

The Baltic and Black Sea fleets collected from the most authentic sources are as follows:—The Black Sea fleet is composed of 37 vessels of war, viz: Two 121 guns, one 116, one 91, three 90, one 84, one 78, one 71, two 50, one 28, one 22, three 21, one 18, three 16, two 14, two 8, six 6, two 5, two 3, two 2. The aggregate number of guns is 1329, the tonnage 53,995, crews 13,918; horse power 7,879; 13 of the vessels are sailing ships. The Baltic fleet consists at this moment of 50 vessels being one 131, one 121, one 101, two 120, six 91, one 90, one 84, two 81, two 70, three 60, one 58, two 51, one 47, one 34, one 33, one 26, one 18, four 16, three 14, two 8, eight 6, one 5, two 4, one 3. The total number of guns are 2,339, the tonnage 88,908, crews 23,135, horse power 17,646. Of these 5 only are sailing ships; the rest screws or paddles. The two fleets thus collectively number 87; with tonnage 142,903; guns, 3,668; crews 37,083, and horse-power, 25,525. Of course the French fleets in the Euxine and now on their way to the Baltic are not here included. I may here state that 25 French ships of war have sailed from Brest for the Baltic; 9 of them are ships of the line. The Austerlitz, 120 guns, French line of battle ship, is now with Sir Charles Napier's fleet. To the 50 English ships now in this locality, will shortly be added the Portland 50, from the Pacific, and the Centaur steam frigate, from Rio; both will leave for the Baltic immediately subsequent to their arrival.

England, in addition to this gigantic fleet, has in reserve, at the four ports of Portsmouth, Devenport, Chatham and Sheerness, no less than 161 effective ships of the Royal Navy. These are estimated to carry 6,807 guns. Many of them may need refit and repair, but they are all classed as good seagoing vessels. The vessels of the line now building are at Portsmouth 5; Devenport 7; Sheerness 1; Chatham 6; Pembroke 1; Deptford 4; Woolwich 4; and Millvale 1; making a total of 39 ships, to be fitted with all the new improvements, and got ready for sea as soon as possible.

All kinds of Farmer's produce received in exchange for goods at the highest market rates. Those who desire to purchase at a low figure will assuredly find it for their interest to give us a call.

OFFICIAL AND IMPORTANT.

IT being manifest that the tailoring business is still carrying on John Groves in Montrose—no, John is carrying on the Tailoring business—no, they are both "carrying on" together—at a place where two ways meet, being in the very building where Sam Houston was nominated for President, to wit, in Searle's Hotel, in the Basement thereof—and the generous money-pocketed public being supposed to be interested in knowing where they can make an investment, (yes, and an in-coat-and-pantaloons—ment) most advantageously, to the appearance of the outer man in extenso; therefore John,

"Who is not, like a virtuous woman willing
To live unheard of—just to save a shilling," hereby nominates himself as Tailor-General for this community, and requests all good citizens to call at his place of business above mentioned, to enable him to perform the duties of said office. Witness my hand at Montrose the ninth day of May A. D., 1854.

Reports on Winter and Spring Wheat, Oats, Buckwheat and Corn, to be made at the Fair. Competitors on Corn are requested to notify the Judges at least three weeks before the Fair. They are to decide the quantity and quality raised per acre.

Persons competing for premiums on grain, are requested to have the ground measured and the quantity properly certified. It is also desirable that an account be kept of the quantity of corn stalks raised per acre, their value per ton, and, for the information of others, a statement of the best mode of curing and feeding them. It is time farmers counted the cost of their products with a view to find out whether more cannot be produced upon the same ground with the same amount of labor, and for this purpose, the Committee would propose the following questions to the farmers of the county hoping to receive written answers from as many as possible.

1st. How much Hay have you cut the present season?

2d. What is its cost per ton in the barn, counting all the labor and manure used upon it, and the interest on the value of the land; also whether the land is deteriorated or enhanced in value from the crop taken off?

3d. How much Corn, Wheat, Oats and Potatoes have you raised?

4. What is the cost of each of the latter per bushel, estimated in the same way, including the cost of getting in the crops, also the kind of ground used—whether fallow, greensward, or ploughed land?

Hereafter, no animal or article will be allowed to take the first premium more than once, but at any subsequent exhibition, where from its merit it would be entitled to the same premium again, a certificate to that effect shall be awarded, and the money premium shall go to the other competitors.

The increased interest of the community in the Society, leads the Committee to believe that the Fair on the coming fall will far exceed any previous one in the quantity as well as the quality of the products and animal exhibition.
