And I also make known and give notice, as in and by the thirteenth section of the Act of July 2, 1869, I am directed: "That every person except justices of the peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the government of the United States, or of this state, or in any city or incorporated district, whether a commission officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent, who is or shall be employed under the legislative judiciary or executive departments of this state or the United States, or any city or incorporated district, and also that every member of congress and state legislature, and of the select and common councils of any city, commissioner of any incorporated district is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this commonwealth, and that no inspector or judge, or any officer of such election shall be eligible to any office then to be voted for, except that of an election officer."

Also, that in the fourth section of the Act of the Assembly, entitled "An Act relating to elections and for other purposes," approved April 16, 1874, it is enacted that the thirteenth section "shall not be so construed as to prevent any military officer or borough officer from serving as judge, inspector or clerk at any general or special election in this commonwealth."

Also, that in the fifth section of the Act of January 30, 1874, it is enacted that every general and special election shall be open at seven o'clock in the forenoon, and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until seven o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed.

Also, that when a judge by sickness or unavoidable accident is unable to attend such meetings of judges, then the certificates or return aforesaid shall be taken charge of by the inspectors or clerks of election in said district, who shall do and perform the duties required by said judge unable to attend.

Also, that in case the court has since the last election made changes not mentioned in this proclamation, then the correct polling place will be in the place designated by the court.

Given under my hand, at my office at Scranton, this 25th day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, in the one hundred and fortieth year of the independence of the United States.

God save the commonwealth.
