

FALL of leaders is not, with the Republicans, ruin of party. Like the great army of the Potomac, which never failed, though its leaders often blundered, so the Republican party will go on, conquering and to conquer, leaving many who once were leaders in the rear. New Hampshire come so near upon the heels of the foolish blunder of the party managers that the enemy gain a victory in what was, at most, a mere skirmish.

We repeated then what was said before in these columns. The selfish, narrow leaders are not the party. Ours is pre-eminently a party of ideas. The principles we uphold are eternal. Men will blunder, fail and fall back, but the course of the great party of progress is onward and upward, and the lesson from Connecticut teaches precisely this. The people come to the rescue just as they have done, and will do, when danger threatens. The great masses of the voters in this party, think to a purpose, and act intelligently. This is the secret of its success. It will not follow blindly and ruinously the lead of any man who attempts to lead in doubtful ways. Let not the Democracy hope too ardently. The more our leaders blunder, the less the danger to us; for the rank and file will take the matter in hand and promote to leadership better men. Thus, the victory in Connecticut, where the Republicans carried the State by large gains is explained. Will the Democrats make a note of it?—[State Journal, Harrisburg.]

NEWS.

DOMESTIC.

A terrible hurricane has visited the Western States, doing much damage.

The Apaches are still depreating in Arizona.

The New York Canal Board has directed the canals to be opened April 24.

Twenty-one thousand fish traps are to be set in and around Narragansett bay this season.

A hog with eight noses is the illustration or unnatural history in Randolph county, Missouri.

Two brothers named Smalltubs, recently married in Michigan, took the names of their wives.

This is the year for seventeen year locusts. They have been scarce since 1854.

Bret Harte has made a contract to write for Osgood & Co., of Boston, for the small sum of $25,000 a year.

Griswold's Opera House at Troy, N. Y., was burned on the 1st; cause unknown; loss, $60,000.

The fruit trees of Southern Illinois are in full bloom. The prospect is favorable for a good crop. Strawberries are now in market.

Twenty-five leading clergymen of Chicago have inaugurated a movement to hold public temperance meetings in Farwell Hall Sabbath afternoons.

Edward H. Ruloff, the murderer of the clerk Merrick, has been sentenced to be executed at Binghamton, on Thursday, the 18th day of May next.

The reduction of the public debt during the month of March was $11,011,250. Decrease of debt since March 1, 1869, $204,754,413.

A Committee appointed by the St. Louis Board of Health have made a favorable report in regard to the working of the social evil law in that city.

Mrs. Sarah Lyon died recently in Hickman county, Tenn., at the age of one hundred and ten years. She had been blind for sixty years.

The Joint High Commission, it is reported, have disposed of the Fishery and Alabama questions, and are now discussing the San Juan boundary.

The ex-Rebel General N. B. Forrest has subsided into a cotton planter in Mississippi, and intends to pass the remainder of his days in "patriarchal peace."

General Schenck has lately expressed the opinion that the work of the Joint High Commission will be finished in time for him to sail for England before the 1st of May.

Walter B. Foster, an editor and publisher at San Francisco twenty years ago, but for several years past Secretary to the Pacific Insurance Company, died on the 31st.

In the Supreme Court at Cincinnati judgment has been rendered against the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad for $12,876 in favor of Gibson, Early & Co., for damages arising, in 1865, from delay in a shipment of sugar.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 7.—Returns from all parts of the State indicate that the Hon. W. P. Lyon will receive 10,000 majority for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

The Irish immigration to America, formerly so extensive, is now rapidly on the decrease. English and French immigration is increasing, whilst that from Germany is the largest.

The Treasury Department last week received a letter from a German banker, enclosing a bill of exchange on New York for $5,000 in gold, being "conscience money." The banker, it was stated, was "formerly a citizen of the United States."

The fact is asserted that a man in Delaware kept a negro girl in slavery up to week before last, when she being sick to be of use to him, he gave her her freedom, and ten cents to take her to New Castle. She died there in twenty-four hours after her arrival.

Deacon Andrew Leach, who recently died at Seaside, Maine, is claimed to have been the champion church goer, having been in his pew 2,598 out of 2,600 consecutive Sundays. Absence from town was his excuse for missing the only two Sundays his seat was vacant in fifty years.

John S. L. Blackburn has been held in $10,000 bail at Chillicothe, Ohio, charged with the murder of Mary Kane Lovell a few days ago. It is alleged that his mind had been unsound for some time past. He was committed to prison in default of bail.

In the case of James N. Henry, vs. the Chicago City Railroad Company, for being ejected from the cars, and severely injured, on trial at Wheelon, Ripage county, Illinois. The jury brought in a verdict for plaintiff for $12,000. A new trial was demanded.

Judge Leavit, in the United States Circuit Court at Cincinnati, has decided the case where capias pro fine had been issued, to compel the payment of a fine, that in the State of Ohio no imprisonment could be had for a fine, which he held to be a debt.

Gen. Duff Green, once so prominent a politician that he received the credit of making Andrew Jackson President, and during the war a most violent and virulent supporter of the Rebellion, is now living very quietly and almost forgotten in Dalton, Ga. As the nation has allowed him to sink into obscurity, he declares the nation no longer exists.

Two young Atlantans ran a foot race the other Sunday for the honor of escorting a belle to church. The winner found she had just gone with another fellow. A young girl at Danvers, Mass., attempted to end her life with a dose of laudanum, because the Baptist church at that place refused to admit her to its membership.

Marblehead, Mass., has within its limits an old fort built about 1670 by the early settlers, to protect them from the Indians. It is situated about a mile from the thickly settled part of the town, and by a recent vote of the taxpayers is to be enclosed by a fence, and to be preserved as the only relic of the kind in New England.

A young lady by the name of Angel, living near Franklin Court-house, Va., was most horribly crushed in a grist-mill near that place, a few days since. She was caught in some of the wheels, and had her legs both broken, and also one of her arms. She was about fifteen years of age, and was highly esteemed by all who knew her.

It is estimated that the New Yorkers get one quart of water with every three quarts of milk. As the annual consumption of milk in the city and vicinity is 120,000,000 quarts, it follows that a ten cents per quart the snug little sum of $4,000,000 is paid by consumers for water, which is used to "extend" the lactical fluid.

Hartford, Conn., April 6.—The Evening Post announces the election of the entire Republican State ticket, with the exception of the Governor vote. In the detail, as given in the large towns, shows that English has generally run ahead of his ticket and Jewell behind, probably on account of the capital question. The Republican ticket, except the Governor, has probably more than 100 majority.

Washington, D. C., April 7.—Senator Ames has received a telegram from a trustworthy source, stating that 40 negro churches and school-houses, have been burned in Mississippi within the past few weeks. As buildings of this class are notoriously scarce in that State, this fact furnishes pretty strong evidence of the extent of the operations of the Ku-Klux there.

Cincinnati, O., April 7.—The Western Female College at Oxford, Ohio, one of the most prominent female educational institutions at the West, was burned this morning. There were 175 persons in the building at the time of the catastrophe, and the flames spread with such rapidity that many of the inmates were compelled to make their escape through the windows, but no lives were lost. Three young ladies, named Goodfellow, Ballard and Wilson were severely injured by leaping from a second-story window. The building was insured for $75,000 which will rebuild it. Many of the young ladies lost most of their personal effects, but the citizens of Oxford are doing everything in their power to relieve their present necessities.

FOREIGN.

The Austrian Admiral Tegenhoff is dead.

A grand review is announced for the 7th inst. in the Champ-de-Mars.

Brigandage is again on the increase in Naples and Sicily.

Over seventy war novels are now in preparation in Germany.

Three new editions of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" are advertised in Germany.

Amadeus the new King of Spain, has found the climate of Madrid so trying to his usually robust health that he thinks he must spend the Winter further South. His physicians have recommended Malaga. The Spanish Republicans advise his return to Italy, if he has any desire to live long.

The latest reports from the Isthmus of Darien represent a newly-discovered route for the canal, only 23 miles long, and that the deepest cutting necessary will not be more than 150 feet, and perhaps only 75 or 100 feet.

The German actress, Hedwige Raabe, who is soon to visit this country, was married in Berlin, on the 5th of March, to the distinguished tenor, Niemann.

London, April 7.—A dispatch from Paris, dated to-day, says: "The situation is hourly becoming more alarming. The forces of the Commune are growing stronger and bolder. Thiers' proposition to treat has inspired the Commune with fresh hopes, and it is believed that they have 100,000 men who will boldly fight the Government troops, retain the conquered positions, and make no advances for peace. To-day a battle is raging in the fields between Chatillon and Vaures. From the latter place the insurgents maintain an incessant fire from behind the forts. Crowds of women and children, frantic with grief, are searching each ambulance as it arrives for the bodies of their husbands and fathers. The slaughter on both sides yesterday and to-day was fearful. Terror reigns, and the prisons are crowded. The churches and the houses of the aristocrats are pillaged, and all priests imprisoned. A great many murders have taken place. On this Good Friday there were no religious services in Paris. German intervention is now believed to be the only hope."

There was severe fighting before Paris on Saturday, the Government forces gaining ground. President Thiers is said to be opposed to taking Paris by assault, but prefers the slower method of investment. A fight has taken place among the insurgents, a portion of the National Guards having refused to go outside the city walls. Marseilles is again quiet, the mutinous National Guards having been disarmed.
