☞ Ex-Judge Elmore of Kansas, who represents the pro-Slavery interest, recently called on Gov. Robinson, to induce him and the other State officers and the members elect of the Legislature, not to take the oath of office, in the several offices to which the Sovereign people of Kansas have elected them. General Robinson replied by saying, "I shall, at the proper time, take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution, if I know that I shall be hanged for it the next hour." If that is treason, as Elmore alleged, the Governor he should be ready and willing to be arrested and tried on such a charge. Not a single officer or member of the Legislature elected under the new constitution, it is believed, will refuse to take the oath. The arrest and trial of near two hundred men in Kansas, indicted for treason on such grounds would cause some excitement throughout the country.

☞ The Hon. Benj. F. Wade, whose present term as United States Senator from Ohio, expires in March, 1857, was on Thursday last re-elected for a second term of six years, by the Ohio Legislature, by a vote of 100, against 36 for Mr. Todd, and 2 Scattering.

By the same, at Harford, on the 1st instant, Mr. DAVID ALEXANDER of Harford, to Miss ANN DICKSON of New Milford.

DIED.

In Montrose, on Sunday, February 22d, 1856, ELIZA MARIA, wife of W. Singleton, in the 44th year of her age.

In Forest Lake, Feb. 18th, 1856, PERRY BALL, in the 76th year of his age. The deceased was one of the early settlers of this county, having emigrated from Berkshire county, Mass., to this place in 1811; his own hands cutting the way through the forest, in advance of team which conveyed his family, to his anticipated home in the welds of, (since then) Susquehanna county. With the blessings of Heaven upon preserving industry, he has made the wilderness to bud and blossom like the rose. He survived a few years the companion of his youth and sharer of his toils; also two of his three children, deceased before him. An only son was left to smooth the pillow of his dying bed. The deceased was one of those of whom it may be truly said he was faithful in what appeared to be his duty. Benevolent and kind in his disposition, charitable towards others, and happy in his intercourse with his friends, thus adorning his profession, having been a consistent member of the Baptist church at Middletown for more than forty years, and highly respected by all that shared his acquaintance. He always obeyed the Supreme injunction by "Keeping himself unspotted from the world." The hoary head is a crown of glory to those found in the way of righteousness. COM.

RHYMES FOR THE TIMES.

ONCE more a bright new year,
With its blessings and its cheer,
We have gladly welcomed here.

Now, as your plans you fix,
And as earnestly you mix
In the scenes of fifty six—

Pray give yourselves the pleasure,
At your earliest hour of leisure,
Of securing such a treasure

As Deans, the "Man of Faces,"
With a sunlight pencil traces!
And to suit your fancy, places
In his neatly finished cases!

Defer not till to-morrow!
Wait not for seam and furrow
Which come with age and sorrow;

But go let the artist take you,
Ere youth's warm glow forsake you;
And a copy true he'll make you.

The place where this can be done to perfection
(No doubt you have been there before)
Is (I'm sure you cannot mistake the direction)
At Odd Fellow's Hall, second floor.

BOOT AND SHOE EMPORIUM OF C. M. SIMMONS.

THE subscriber has removed his Boot and Shoe Store into the building recently occupied by Messrs. Bentley & Read, Public Avenue, first above the Post-office, where, notwithstanding the mixed state of politics, the stringency of the money market, the "Nough Sunthins," Rail Road Monopolies, Jack-O-Lantern inducements, and the great drouth, as one extreme follows another, in all human probability, we shall have a cold winter. In view of this state of things the subscriber begs leave to say that he is prepared to meet the wants of the Boot and Shoe wearing public, with good and substantial varieties of Boots and Shoes of Eastern or Home Manufacture, warranted equal (if not better) than any offered in this market. His stock embraces a general variety of Ladies SILK LASTING, Pat. LEATHER.

All kinds by the side or pound, to suit customers. The public are invited to call before purchasing elsewhere. Customers may rely upon getting what they bargain for, and that is better than they can do in "some places." If they buy Eastern work, they can be accomodated with as good an article as can be found in this market. If they prefer home manufacture they can have it without being humbugged. All kinds of work made to order and warranted. Repairing done on short notice.

THANKFUL for past favors, he hopes by strict attention to business, to merit a continuance of the same. C. M. SIMMONS.
