DIED.

In Middletown, December 30, 1857, Miss Ann Birdsick, aged 24 years and 6 months.

Farewell, dear Ann, thy toils are o'er,
Thy transient life is sped,
We'll see thy face on earth no more—
Thou sleep'st among the dead.

No more thy lovely voice we'll hear
In girlish mirth and glee;
But o'er thy grave we'll drop a tear,
In sacred memory.

In Brooklyn, on the 18th inst., Mrs. Mary Catharine, widow of Joseph Reece, aged 84 years.
The deceased and her husband were natives of Amsterdam, in which City they lived until the difficulties consequent upon the French invasion near the close of the eighteenth century, caused them to leave their Fatherland. They then made Philadelphia their home for a number of years. About forty years since, they, with the younger members of their family, moved to Susquehanna County, Pa., and settled in the township of Bridgewater, where they continued to live until the death of Mr. Reece.

Just Published:
BRIGHTLY'S UNITED STATES DIGEST,
1789 TO 1857.
From the adoption of the Constitution to the end of the Thirty-fourth Congress.
One Vol. Imp. 8vo., pp. 1149.

THE matter is arranged ALPHABETICALLY, with ANALYTIC DIVISIONS and SUBDIVISIONS, under which the Congressional enactment has been, as far as possible, THEMATICALLY POSITED, MARGINAL REFERENCES to each section whereby its CONTENTS can be seen at a glance. The notes of JUDICIAL DECISIONS, including not only those of the SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES, but also those of the CIRCUIT and DISTRICT COURTS and COURT OF CLAIMS, many of which are scattered throughout the LEGAL PERIODICALS and not to be found elsewhere; many DECISIONS of the STATE COURTS, the OPINIONS of the ATTORNEYS GENERAL and HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS are placed at the foot of the page, and refer to the respective SECTIONS of which they are the JUDICIAL INTERPRETATION. There is an accurate TABLE OF CASES, and also a CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE OF STATUTES. The REFERENCES to the ACTS are placed completely in the margin of the page. The CONTENTS comprise not only the TITLES of each SUBJECT, but also the various subdivisions under each TITLE has been distributed. The INDEX is thorough and comprehensive, and refers not only to the LAWS but also to the CONSTITUTION of the United States. The matter is arranged under LOCAL as well as GENERAL TITLES; for instance, the names of STATES, TERRITORIES, CITIES and many of the FORTS of the United States, will be found in their alphabetical order with a SUMMARY of the LEGISLATION in which each of them is interested. The SECTION as well as the page is given, by means of which greatly increased facility and speed in the use of the work will be obtained, not merely by PROFESSIONAL GENTLEMEN, but by those unfamiliar in the Law.

In order that ERRORS might be avoided, the PAGE OF EVERY REFERENCE has been carefully verified, in the case of the NOTES, by reading the matter of the Authorities, and in the INDEX, by comparison with the Text; after the matter was in type.

LASTLY, Careful regard as to the convenience of SIZE and FORM has been had in the choice of the type, to produce a book, which, though typographically clear and legible, should not be amenable to the charge of great bulk and unwieldiness.

In order that no impediment may be thrown in the way of the purchase of this Digest, but that, on the contrary, it may become a Legal Manual in use in every Court, Law-Chamber, and Counting-house, as well as in the Legislative Halls and Public Offices, we have determined to sell the Work at SIX DOLLARS per copy; and we flatter ourselves that a Law Book so costly in its preparation has rarely before been offered at so low a price.

From the Hon. R. B. Taney, Chief Justice of the United States.
"It is a work of much value and well executed. The heads under which the different Acts of Congress are arranged, are well chosen and appropriate; and what is still more important, the labor, so far as I have been able to examine it, is complete. The book has evidently been prepared with much care and judgment, and will, I doubt not, be very acceptable to the public."

From the Hon. R. C. Grier, one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States.
"The work does honor not only to the learning and industry of the author, but to the publishers for the very handsome manner in which it is executed. Those who prefer to have the statutes in a digested form, will find it a very valuable book."

From the Hon. Isaac F. Redfield, Chief Justice of Vermont.
"I esteem it a most excellent work of the class."

A FIRST CLASS LITERARY WEEKLY PAPER,
WITH A
BEAUTIFUL PRESENT TO EACH SUBSCRIBER,
EVERY SATURDAY THE 32ND YEAR OF
"THE NEW YORK LEDGER."
THE NEW YORK LEDGER is a large, first class, literary paper, of the highest character, containing Tales, Romances, Biographies, Adventures, Poetry, Miscellany, Wit and Humor, &c., &c., &c., by the best writers in the world, and is the only paper in the country that does not contain a line of politics, or anything else to offend the most fastidious taste. Every number contains a complete story, or romance, of the highest character, and the best literary matter, and is the only paper we can take into our families, and be sure that it will not contain something to offend the most delicate lady or gentleman. It is the only paper we can recommend to our friends, and say, you can take it home and read any thing in it, without fear of offending your wives or daughters. It is the only paper we can recommend to our friends, and say, we have not seen a line in it for years that we could wish to be stricken out
