....Judge Johnson of Louisville, Ky., recently pronounced the judicial opinion that "a man has no right to whip his wife, and should be severely punished if guilty of such an outrage; but that the women on the contrary, had the right to whip their husbands whenever they pleased." This will be dreadful news to some husbands.

....Prof. F. S. Holmes, of the College of Charleston, has unearthed from the site of an old pond, near that city, bones of a mastodon, terrapin, deer, and a fragment of Indian pottery—seeming to establish the fact that the red man and all the creatures here named were cotemporaries.

Montrose, Dec. 29, 1858.-tf.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

—Where the above preparation is known, it has well established an infallible Remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, SORE THROAT, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, SPITTING OF BLOOD, PAIN IN THE BREAST CHEST, WHOOPING COUGH, and every form of PULMONARY COMPLAINT, that it were a work of supererogation to speak of its merits.

Discovered by a well known physician more than twenty years since, it has for the wonderful cures it has effected been constantly appreciating in public favor, until its fame and its reputation are alike universal; and it is now known and cherished by all and (the latter is legion) who have been restored to health by its use as the GREAT REMEDY for all the diseases which it professes to cure.

Sir James Clark, physician to Queen Victoria, has given it as his opinion that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED!

The whole history of this Medicine fully confirms the opinion of that eminent man. The annals can testify, and have testified, that when all other remedies had failed, this has completely cured; that when the sufferer had well nigh despaired, this has offered immediate relief; that when the physician had pronounced the disease incurable, this has removed it entirely.

The virtues of this BALSAM are alike applicable to cure a slight Cold or a Confirmed Consumption, and its power as a safe, certain, steady, pleasant, and effectual remedy cannot be equalled.

☞ CAUTION! Purchase none unless it has the written signature of "I. BUTTS" on the wrapper, as well as the printed name of the proprietors.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

The immense sale of this preparation is the best proof of the estimation in which it is held by the public.

For the cure of Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis and Pulmonary Affections, and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, including Consumption, its efficacy, is astonishing and its value incalculable. The only genuine has the written signature of "I. BUTTS" as well as the printed name of the Proprietor on the outer wrapper.

The Knickerbocker Magazine.

The Knickerbocker Magazine begins in its May number two serials—one illustrated, and in popular style, on the Adulterations of Food—the subject nearest the health and happiness of every family in the land, and now attracting great attention in Europe; the other a fascinating and powerful story of domestic life, entitled:

THE ROMANCE OF A POOR YOUNG MAN,

by Octave Feuillet, said to be the best novel produced within the last five years. The first chapter opens brilliantly. Neither Dickens, Thackeray, nor any American novelist, has produced anything more charming and interesting.

Every one knows that, by the criminal avarice of manufacturers and dealers, almost every article of food in common use, liquors and drugs, are adulterated with hurtful and poisonous substances, and the Knickerbocker is the first and only publication in the country that has undertaken to expose thoroughly this gigantic wrong which secretly attacks every man's life. All of its statements are based upon rigid chemical analyses and microscopical examinations made for this special purpose. The adulterations and the manner of detecting them are unravelled, and to probe the evil to the bottom, the Knickerbocker will publish, so far as its investigations extend, the names of the manufacturers and dealers guilty of this insidious crime against health and life. It is the most important series of articles ever begun in an American Magazine, and should go into every family.

The May Knickerbocker has also the conclusion of a splendid article on Dante, by Rev. Dr. Osgood;—a dashing contribution, Over the Pahri, by Dr. J. W. Palmer; Jollygreen's Western Tour, by Osmand Tiffany; Humorous Poems by Park Benjamin and Alice Carey; and a novel and picturesque contribution on Siam, by a recent missionary to the Kingdom of the White Elephant. The Editor's Table is always a feature of the Knickerbocker. A full-page steel-plate engraving of Madame de Chevreuse, the great rival of Richelieu and Mazarin, opens the Number.

Terms, $3.00 per year, postage pre-paid by Publisher to any part of the United States. A specimen Number of the May Knickerbocker containing the above, with seven splendid full-page steel-plate engravings, worth at least one dollar, will be sent on receipt of 25 cents in postage stamps at the office of publication. Just Published;

THE PILLAR OF FIRE,

By the Author of "The Prince of the House of David."

BEING an account of the Wonderful Scenes in the Life of the Son of Pharoah's Daughter, (Moses,) from his youth to the ascent of Sinai; comprising, as by an eye-witness, his Miracles before Pharoah, Passage of the Red Sea, and Reception of the Law on Mt. Sinai; containing an elaborate and highly colored Description of the Architecture of the Egyptians, their Manners and Customs in Peace and War, in the Temple, the Family, the Mart, and at the Tomb; and also of the Israelites, while in the Land of Bondage; together with Picturesque Sketches of the Hebrews under their Taskmasters, of Scenes, Processions, and Spectacles upon and beside the Nile, and Legends of the Obelisks, Sphinxes and Pyramids, and of their Founders before the Flood; Delineations of Beautiful Women, Miriam, Amense, Luxora, and Osiria, and of Wonderful Men, Aaron, Remeses, (Moses,) and the Prince of Uz, (Job,) narrated in a series of Letters from a Syrian Prince traveling in Egypt to his Royal Mother, Queen of Tyre.

The volume abounds in characteristic passages of highly wrought beauty and Dramatic Incident.
