THRESHING MACHINES

With Milligan's improved Patent Horse Power.

THE great encouragement heretofore received from the sale of his machines, induces him to offer to the public a new and improved Horse Power, which can be shifted in gear or out of gear by keys, and shift the band to give it five different revolutions. And he has no hesitation in assuring the Farmers that he is now able to furnish them with an article far superior to those manufactured heretofore. For speed and clean threshing and ease to the horses, he believes his machines to be unequalled.

His price is $140—seventy dollars to be paid cash, and the balance in six months, for which a note will be required with interest. Any person purchasing a machine and upon a fair trial, not being pleased, can return it. He will at all times be ready to furnish them on the shortest notice, orders from a distance will be punctually attended to. He will also repair machines on the shortest notice.

TO DR. SWAYNE, Philadelphia.—It is with sincere pleasure I write you these lines—Having been reduced by a long spell of sickness in the lower country to a very critical state of health, and returning to this climate, I was attacked by a most distressing pulmonary complaint. My symptoms were of the most alarming kind, and in my weak state of health I thought I foresaw my early dissolution. Had a constant cough, and a sense of pain on my chest which seemed to be obstructed so that I could not breathe with ease. I got no rest at night, and my constant irritation produced a high fever at times. In this alarming state I looked for help, and recollecting your advertisement, I sent to your agent for two bottles of Wild Cherry Syrup, and before finishing the second bottle, I found my cough had disappeared, and with it all those distressing symptoms. You are at liberty to publish this, and I most earnestly recommend your Syrup of Wild Cherry Bark to sufferers with diseases of the Lungs, as an effectual remedy. Respectfully yours,

REUBEN RICHARDSON.

DR. SWAYNE'S—Respected Friend:—From the very beneficial effects which I have received from the use of the Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry Bark, I am fully willing to testify to the astonishing effect. My attack was that of a common cold, which began to threaten something of a more serious nature. Being recommended to use the above Syrup, I finally gave it a trial, and am happy to say it gave me the most instant relief. I have used it frequently, and always with the same beneficial effects. If others would use this medicine at the commencement of their Colds and Coughs, they would prevent a disease which would be more alarming in its character, and much more obstinate in the cure.
