Cumberland County, ss.

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the Sheriff of Cumberland County, GREETING:

WHEREAS, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the use of John Holsapple Adm'r, &c., of Sarah M'Keel, deceased, in the Court of Common Pleas, to wit of the term of August, A. D., 1846, before Samuel Hepburn, Esq., and his Associate Judges of the same Court, did by consideration of the same Court, recover against Christian Failor, Adm'r &c, of Jacob Failor, deceased, who was co-obligor in a joint and several bond with Geo. Wike, Robert Blean and Christopher Faylor, late of your county yeoman, a certain sum of nine hundred and twelve dollars and twenty one cents, lawful money of Pennsylvania, debt, as also thirty six dollars and twenty five cents which to the said Commonwealth of Penn'a for the use of John Holsaple, adm'r, &c, of Sarah McKeel, dec'd, in the same Court were likewise adjudged for its damages, which it sustained by occasion of the detention of that debt, whereof the said Christian Failor, adm'r &c, of Jacob Failor, deceased, who was co-obligor in a joint and several bond with George Wike, Robert Blean and Christopher Failor, is convict as appears of record, &c.

And whereas, the said judgment to preserve the lien according to the Act of Assembly in such case made and provided, should be revived as is suggested to us by the said Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for use of John Holsaple, adm'r &c, of Sarah McKeel, dec'd, as also execution as said Judgment remains to be made, as on the information of the said Commonwealth for use as aforesaid we have received, and we being willing that those things which in our same Court are rightly acted, should be brought to due execution: Therefore, we command you that, by good and lawful men of your bailiwick you make known to the said Christian Failor, adm'r of Jacob Failor dec'd, with notice to Jb. Failor, jr.
