Costiveness, headach, giddiness, pain in the side and breast, nausea and sickness, variable appetite, yellow or sallow complexion, &c. are the usual symptoms of a disordered liver. Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are certain to remove the above complaints, because they remove from the body those morbid humors which are the cause not only of all disorders of the liver, but of every malady incident to man. A single 25 cent box will in all cases give relief, and perseverance according to directions, will most assuredly drive every particle of disease from the body.

☞ Beware of counterfeits and imitations. Remember that the original and only genuine Indian Vegetable Pills have the written signature of WILLIAM WRIGHT on the top label of each box.

The genuine is for sale by CHARLES OGILBY, sole agent for Carlisle, and general agent for Cumberland county, by whom country dealers will be supplied at the Philadelphia prices.

A Lady in Troy, N. Y., who had been given up by her physicians, sends us the following:

Troy, May 15, 1846.

Mr. Fowler—In October last, I took a violent cold, which settled on my lungs and produced a hacking cough, accompanied with hight sweats, which reduced me very low. A few days after I was taken I employed one of our best physicians, but received no help; I tried another, but with no better success, and finally a third, still growing worse all the while. At this stage of the disease I was reduced so low as to be unable to turn myself in my bed, or sit up while my bed was made. My physicians finally gave me up, and said that I had the Consumption, and that there was no help for me. My friends advised me to try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, but the doctors objected, said that it would only hurry me out of the world; I finally procured a bottle, and by using three bottles I was restored to perfect health.

"If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of any election within this Commonwealth, or shall offer to make any such bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereof, or by any written or printed advertisement, challenge or invite any person to make such bet or wager, upon conviction thereof he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so bet or to be bet.

"If any person not by law qualified, shall fraudulently vote at any election in this Commonwealth, or being otherwise qualified shall vote out of his proper district, or if any person knowing the want of such qualification, shall aid or procure such person to vote, the person offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months.

"If any person shall vote at more than one election district, or otherwise fraudulently vote more than once on the same day, or shall fraudulently hold and deliver to the inspector two tickets together, with the intent illegally to vote, rise or procure another so to do, he or they offending, shall on conviction be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any term not less than three nor more than twelve months.
