Miscellaneous.

INDUSTRIAL FAIR.

THE "Big Spring Literary Institute" will hold an Industrial Fair in Newville, to open on the second Tuesday of June next, and continue two weeks.

It is intended particularly for the encouragement of the mechanical arts, but contributions (i e articles for exhibition) are solicited from all classes of persons interested in the progress of the arts and sciences. A prominent place will be given to plain and fancy needle work, artificial flowers, drawing, &c, and the ladies are cordially invited to become contributors to this department. No charge will be made for articles for exhibition, and in addition to this the exhibitor is furnished with a ticket which will admit him or her to the Fair at any time during its continuance, provided in all cases that the exhibitor is the manufacturer. Persons desiring to exhibit any article must apply to the Secretary or President of the Board of Managers on or before the first of June. The rooms will be open on Monday, June 5th, for the reception of goods, and every article intended for exhibition must be received on or before the following Friday. The Judges who are decide on the respective merits of articles on exhibition will be appointed by the Board of Managers. The circumstances of the Institute will not permit the awarding of premiums, but certificates of excellence with the seal of the Society will be given to the exhibitors of such articles as the Judges may decide upon.

Enterprising mechanics, business men, and others, from neighboring towns and counties, are invited to send on their contributions.

JOSEPH H. HERRON, Pres't.

Spring Style of Hats & Caps

WM. H. TROUT,

DESIRES to inform his old friends that he has removed to his new establishment on High street, near the Rail Road Depot, and is now opening a large and elegant assortment of the just received from Philadelphia, which the gentlemen of Carlisle are requested to call and examine. He has also a large assortment of Silk, Fur and Slouch Hats of his own manufacture, got up in the best style and at various prices, the excellence and finish of which he will warrant. His stock he is confident only needs to be examined to be approved. ☞ Also a large supply of Men's, Boys' and Children's CAPS, of Cloth and Fur and of every variety of style and price just received from Philadelphia. Let all who want a Hat or Cap give him a call, as they may be sure of being suited to their own satisfaction. Mar 22, 1854.

SPRING STYLE OF HATS,
