Carlisle, Jan. 14 1857.

GREAT ATTRACTION!—A. G. KEET would respectfully inform the citizens of Carlisle and the public generally that he has purchased that well known DAGUERREAN GALLERY, in Marion Hall, formerly occupied by Geo. M. Hoffer. The Gallery is now on the second instead of the third floor. This will be a great inducement to elderly people in particular, as it is easy of access. The rooms have been fitted up a superior style, and no pains will be spared to make it a FIRST CLASS GALLERY. The apparatus used is of the best quality. We receive our materials direct from the manufacturer in New York city, which enable us to be in receipt of all the latest styles of fancy and other cases, and we warrant them to be of a superior quality to any ever offered for sale in this vicinity. I have placed in this Gallery an artist who has been in successful operation in the Gallery in Harrisburg for several years past, and will guarantee good pictures to any part of the country equal to any home work. Pictures inserted in Lockets, Breast Pins, Finger Rings, &c. Instructions given in the art on reasonable terms. We invite all to call and examine our specimens, whether they want pictures or not; then judge for themselves.

Such as desire it, will be educated and trained for the business of teaching. Special attention will be given to the Normal departments, having connected therewith a Model school, for the education and training of instructors of youth; and, when qualified, no pains will be spared in obtaining them eligible situations. We have now several applications for good teachers.

In the classical department, pupils, male and female, will be prepared for any class in college.

Terms very moderate. The next session will commence, April 1, 1857. Parents, guardians and others wishing to learn the particulars from a Circular, or otherwise, will address,

PROSPECTUS FOR 1857.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST.

Established August 4th, 1831.

The publishers of this old and firmly established paper take pleasure in calling the attention of the public to their programme for the coming year. Surfeited with politics, the claims of literature will be more than ever appreciated by the reading world. We have, therefore, already made arrangements with the following brilliant list of writers:—

WILLIAM HOWITT, (of England,) ALICE CARY, T. S. ARTHUR, MRS. SOUTHWORTH, AUGUSTINE DUGANNE, MRS. M. A. DENNISON, the author of "ZILLAH," &c.

We design commencing in the first number in January next, the following original Novelet:

Tallengetta, or the Squatter's Home,

By William Howitt, author of 'Rural life in England,' 'Homes of the Poets,' &c., &c.

This is a story of Australian life, Mr. Howitt having visited Australia expressly with the object of acquainting himself with the novel and romantic aspects under which nature and society present themselves in that singular region.

The following Novelets will then be given, though probably not in the order here mentioned:

The Story of a Country Girl, by Alice Carey. An original Novelet, written expressly for the Post.

The Withered Heart, An Original Novelet, by T. S. Arthur, written expressly for the Post.

Light House Island. An Original Novelet, by the author of 'My Confession,' 'Zillah, or the Child's Medium,' &c.

The Quaker's Protege. An Original Novelet, by Mrs. Mary A. Denniston, author of 'Mark, the Sexton,' 'Home Pictures,' &c.

The Raid of Burgundy. A Tale of the Swiss Cantons, An Original Novelette, by Augustine Duganne, author of 'The Lost of the Wilderness,' &c.

We have also the promise of a short and condensed Novelet, by Mrs. SOUTHWORTH, to run through about six or eight numbers of the Post.

☞ In addition to the above list of contributions, we design continuing the usual amount of Foreign Letters, Original Sketches, Short Selections from all sources, Agricultural Articles, General News, Humorous Anecdotes, View of the Produce and Stock Markets, The Philadelphia Retail Markets, Bank Note List, Editorials, &c., &c., our object being to give a complete record, as far as our limits will admit, of the Great World.

ENGRAVINGS.—In the way of Engravings, we generally present two weekly—one of an instructive, the other of a humorous character.

The postage on the Post to any part of the United States, paid quarterly or yearly in advance, at the office where it is received, is only 26 cents a year.
