It reminds us very distinctly of a former well-remembered victory, the time when the question was asked, with a very pecu-liar grace, "Wh is James K. Polk?" But it was not long until the people of the Union introduced him to the affairs of the nation, and to the world, too, in a manner that very speedily removed all ignorance, and it will be but a few days until the people of Pennsylvania will take a similar liberty with this unknown "Printer boy."

Extracts from the Auditor General's Annual Reports.

Amount of interest paid on the public debt for the year 1846, see page 40,	$1,984,923 77
Amount paid in 1847, see page 40,	2,002,240 41
Amount paid in 1848, see page 45,	2,005,740 79
Amount of interest paid under Shunk's administration,	5,992,604 97
Amount of interest paid on the public debt in the year 1849, see page 50,	$2,007,616 99
Amount paid in 1850 see page 52,	2,004,714 51
Amount paid in 1850, see Aud. Gen.'s books,	2,020,360 87
Amount of interest paid under Johnston's administration,	6,032,692 37

Or, in round numbers, FORTY THOUSAND DOLLARS more have been required to pay the interest on the public debt under Gov. Johnston's administration than was required, in the same length of time, under Governor Shunk. And yet, with these facts upon the records, the Governor's organ and friends are appealing to the people to vote for Gov. Johnston, because, as they say, he has reduced the State debt and lightened the burthens of the tax-payers.

Some of our readers may be puzzeled to know how it is that so much has been paid for interest the present year; but the matter is easily solved. Whilst the sinking fund commissioners have been buying up five per cent. stock, at high rates, the Governor has been borrowing money at six per cent., so that between the two operations, the people have been paying interest on all the money that went into the sinking fund, at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum.

If this same policy should be carried on for three years more it would absolutely be necessary to increase the State taxes to four mills, instead of three, as at present.

Now let us see if the tax-payer has been relieved from any portions of this burthen, and if so, how much.

We have a table standing in another column, certified by the Auditor General, giving the exact amount of taxes assessed on real and personal property in the State, and summing up as follows:

1845,	$1,305,593 83
1846,	1,324,594 61
1847,	1,434,871 72
1848,	1,460,783 92
1849,	1,446,908 36
1850,	1,545,956 44

Showing that the taxes assessed for State purposes, upon the farmers and others owning property, amounted in the last year to the enormous sum of $85,172,52 more than has ever been paid in any previous year—and that in the two last years, under Johnston's administration, the TAXES levied upon the property-holders of the Commonwealth, exceed the amount levied in two years under Gov. Johnston (1846 and 1847) in the startling sum of $243,397,47.

Tax-payers, do you believe the men who tell you that Gov. Johnston has paid the interest on the State debt, and that he is actually paying off the debt itself? Do you believe them when they tell you your taxes have been less? or do you believe they are deceivers, endeavoring to beguile you into the support of Johnston, that a few greedy cormorants may retain their places, and revel three years longer upon the spoils of office and the increased salaries, drawn from the people's treasury.

The facts we have given above are from the record, and cannot be controverted.—Investigator.

LATEST MAIL NEWS.

A Terrible Conflagration in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, September 26—9 A. M.

About 4 o'clock this morning, a fire broke out in a wooden building on Peacock street, situated in the very centre of what is called "The Five Points."

A strong southeast wind was blowing at the time, and the buildings all being of wood, and very dry, the fire spread with fearful rapidity, and in less than fifteen minutes the entire blocks of buildings on Rock and Peacock streets, from the ship canal and Erie streets to Evan street were in flames.

The fire then crossed Erie street and took the large planing mill of the Messrs. Eaton.

It then crossed the canal and Erie street bridge, sweeping every thing on the opposite side of the canal to the "Terrace;" thence down the "Terrace" to Mechanic street, on both sides of the canal.

Here, after great exertion, the fire was checked.

The number of buildings burned must have been over five hundred, and the ground burnt over, some thirty or forty acres.

The large brick school house on Erie street, in District No. 2, was also destroyed.

The amount of lumber burned in Messrs. Eaton's mill and yard was very large, as was also the case in the yards of George Yonell, and Farmer & De Blaquire.

The buildings burned were nearly all of wood.

The number of families turned out of house and home is great beyond conception, many of them barely escaping with their lives, so fearfully rapid was the progress of the flames.

It is feared a number have burned to death, although no bodies have as yet been recovered. The loss is estimated at half a million of dollars, but a small portion of which is insured.

The Michigan Conspiracy Case, Verdict of the Jury.

DETROIT, Sept., 26th.

The Jury on the Railroad Conspiracy case, after being out for nearly ten hours, came into court about nine o'clock last evening with their verdict.

They find twelve of the prisoners guilty, and the remainder not guilty.

Annexed are the names of the persons found guilty:

E. Champion, Williard Champion, Lyman Champion, E. J. Price, William Corwin, O. D. Williams, A. J. Freeland, Aaron Mount, Erastus Smith, Ebenezer Farnham, Amny Tilby and E. Price.

Smith and Farnham were recommended to the mercy of the court.

The Drought in Ohio.

The Cincinnati Gazette says: "In some of the neighboring counties, the protracted drought has produced serious, and in many instances, distressing results. A gentleman just returned from an excursion through the Southern part of the State, informs us that, in Adams country, he witnessed a sad condition of things. Large creeks and streams, supposed to be unfailing, have dried entirely up, leaving thousands upon thousands of fish exposed to the sun, omitting a pestiferous stench, which affects the atmosphere for miles around. Springs have failed, and farmers, in consequence, are compelled to dig for water, to supply themselves and cattle. Vegetation, in all parts, is irreparably injured, and the harvest, this Autumn, it is feared, will but poorly compensate the husbandman for his long continued industry and toil."

GRAND ENTRANCE

OF THE ASIATIC CARAVAN,

MUSEUM & MENAGERIE

OF

P. T. BARNUM.

Being the largest exhibition in the world and double the size of all the other travelling menageries in the U. S. put together.

A TEAM OF TEN ELEPHANTS

will draw the GREAT CAR OF JUGGERNAUT.

A YOUNG CALF ELEPHANT

only six months old and 3½ feet in height will carry upon his back around the interior of the colossal pavilion the Lilliputian General TOM THUMB. The magnificent cortege comprises 110 HORSES and 90 MEN! The pavilion of exhibition will accommodate 15,000 spectators at once. All the finest wild animals ever exhibited in this country are now attached to this exhibition, being selected at immense cost from the various minor establishments North and South.

SIX BEAUTIFUL LIONS!

fresh from their native forests.

A BURMESE BULL,

from the Island of Ceylon, worshipped there by the pagan natives, and recently taken from their idolatrous temple. The drove of elephants were captured in the jungles of Central Ceylon, by Messrs. STEBBINS JUNE and GEO. NUTTER, accompanied by 100 natives, after a pursuit of three weeks and four days in the jungles. They were finally entrapped and secured in a of enormous dimensions and prodigious strength, where the elephants were subdued. The Calf Elephant accompanies its dam, and was weaned on its passage from India. A NATIVE CEYLON CHIEF belonging to the wild and wandering tribe of Kaffirs, whose ferocious habits are vividly described by Eugene Sue in the Wandering Jew, accompanies the elephants.

KRAUL, OR INDIAN TRAP,

A magnificent Brass Band will play during the exhibition, and accompany the Triumphal Procession.

P. T. BARNUM, Proprietor of the New York and Philadelphia Museums, has the honorto announce that encouraged by the brilliant success which has attended his enterprise of bringing JENNY LIND before the American People, as has been led to form the project of organizing a vast travelling

MUSEUM OF WONDERS!

Which comprises a greater variety of attractions, and more extraordinary novelties, than any traveling exhibition in the world. Every feature of this mammoth establishment is of a peculiar and interesting nature, and the whole is produced upon a gigantic scale of magnitude. The traveling paraphernalia of the American Museum, as it enters each town will be preceded by the gorgeous

CAR OF JUGGERNAUT,

Drawn by Ten Elephants superbly comparisoned, being an accurate model of that terrible engine of idolatrous sacrifice, finished and decorated in all the extravagance of the Hindoo style. Following this monster vehicle, is a long procession of costly cages and carriages, the whole forming a spectacle of more than Oriental splendor.—The exhibition will take place within a magnificent Variegated Pavilion, composed of American Flags of a waterproof fabric. The real, genuine, original is attached to this exhibition, and will appear in all his Performances as given before the principal crowned heads of Europe, including Songs, Dances, Grecian Statues, and his admired personations of Napoleon and Frederick the Great. The little general is nineteen years of age, weighs only fifteen pounds, and is but twenty-eight inches high! Also engaged,

GEN. TOM THUMB.

MR. NELLIS,

The man without arms, who will execute his extraordinary feats of loading and firing a pistol with his toes; cutting profile likenesses; shooting at a mark with bow and arrow; playing upon the Accordeon and Violincello, &c. Mr. Nellis, in these performances, exhibits a wonderful example of what indomitable energy and industry can accomplish even when laboring under disadvantages apparently the most insurmountable.

A complete Menagerie of Living Animals is also included in the American Museum, and at a convenient period during the exhibition.

MR. PIERCE,

Will enter the Dens of the Wild Beasts, and give his classical illustrations of Hercules struggling with the Numidian Lion; Daniel in the Lion's Den; Samson destroying the Lion, &c.

One of the most interesting portions of the exhibition is formed by the display of a great collection of

WAX STATUARY.

Including figures of the size of life, of all the Presidents of the United States, and also of a great number of noted characters. American and Foreign, all of which are accurate likenesses, and appropriately costumed. In fact, the whole establishment is a vast repository of Wonderful Objects of Nature and Art.

The full particulars of which it will be impossible to give within the limits of a newspaper advertisement, and which have been brought together at an enormous expenditure of means, forming the largest and most novel travelling exhibition in this or any other country.

A fine military band will perform the most popular airs of the day, as the procession enters town, and also during the hours of exhibition. The American Museum and Menagerie will exhibit in Montrose, on Wednesday, Oct. 15th, 1851. Also at Harford, on Thursday, Oct. 16th, 1851. Price of Admission 25 cts. Doors open from 2 to 5 P. M.
