"A Wise Man shall hear and he shall be Wiser."

WE are all creatures of one creator—who has placed us upon this globe, and surrounded us with the means to sustain life and preserve health; or restore it when lost, and given us minds to investigate and ascertain the properties and effects upon our organization, of the various substances and elements within our reach and under our control.

THE MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT is prepared upon these immutable principles of nature—after carefully studying and experimenting with the various elements of its composition upon the different diseases for which it is recommended. There is no guess work or chance hazard about it. It acts upon strict chemical, physiological and organic laws, and can therefore be depended upon with perfect certainty, in curing Rheumatism, Piles, Bruises, Burns, Ulcers, Sprains, or sores of any kind, and for sore or caked breast chapped hands, tetters or ringworms. The thousands of bottles daily selling is proof enough of this.
