PROMOTED.—We are pleased to learn that Capt. C. B. PENROSE, Commissary of Subsistence of Volunteers for some two years past, on duty in the office of the Commissary General, at Washington, D. C., has been brevetted to the rank of Major. This is a well earned honor; for the Major has been a most able, efficient, and faithful officer in that department of the public service since the very beginning of the war.

We congratulate him upon his promotion, and should be gratified to see him receive still further honors.

SCHOOL MONTH.—How many days constitute a School Month, has been a disputed question between teachers and directors for the last six or eight years. The Legislature at its last session decided the matter, by enacting that twenty-two days shall constitute the School Month, but that Saturdays should form no part of the twenty-two days; that is, the schools cannot be kept open on Saturdays; but they further decided that if a majority of all the members of a Board of Directors chose, they might appropriate two Saturdays of each month for Teacher's Institutes, which two Saturdays, if so appropriated, may be counted as part of the twenty-two days.

PEACE!—"THE BOYS ARE COMING HOME."—From every section of the State—in fact, from every section of the Northern States—comes the pleasing intelligence that conscripts have been discharged, that the recruiting and provost marshals' offices are being closed up, and that the armies in the field are being disbanded. The gratification at these glorious indications of a return to peace are hailed by no one party or class of people, but by all.

There is joy and gladness, in reality, in the land. Not only are families again reunited, whose stays and protectors had been gobbled up by the remorseless turn of the wheel of chance, but thousands of city and rural firesides are alive and joyous at the news that spreads far and near—"the Boys are coming Home!" The gentle wife who has waited in sadness and tears these long weary months, turn with anxiety and fear at every report of a fresh battle, cheered only, after weeks of weary waiting, with the welcome letter announcing the glad tidings that He is safe, is now the happiest of the happy, for He is coming home! The little olive branches, dancing around the mother's knee, clap their hands with glee and shout—"Papa is coming home!" The silvery-haired old patriot and his ancient dame, whose weakened limbs scarce served to bear them through each day's anxiety and despondencies, seem now braced by a new stay, as hurrying about among their friends they announce that "our son—our soldier boy—is coming home!"

Everywhere the fatted calf is being killed, not for the prodigal son, but for that brave soldier boy who has served his country well; who has shed his blood; who has lost a limb; and, with honorable scars, is coming back from his labors and his sacrifices, to that most blessed of all bright spots on earth—HOME—SWEET HOME. May each brave Boy—Child of the Republic—live long in the land he has fought so well for, and may the laurels he has won never fade or grow less green.

SPRING.—We are in the midst of this beautiful and inviting season of the year.—We love summer for her cool shades and running waters and sparkling fountains; autumn, for her ripened grain and golden harvests; winter, for her social evenings and merry bells; but, more than all, spring.—How sweet and fragrant the flowers! How musical the songs of the birds! How balmy the air! How pleasant the sunshine! How green the forests! Even the "April showers" that make May flowers" have a soothing influence. No wonder that poets have made themselves eloquent in their writing about this season, for it is, of all others, the one we must love.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.—Yesterday, as a train of freight cars from the Cumberland Valley Railroad was passing along Mulberry street east, a most horrible accident occurred to a little girl aged three years, a daughter of a Mr. Bay. The child was doubtless playing on the street, and as the train passed stumbled and fell under the wheels of the hind car. Her right arm was mangled in such a manner as to render amputation necessary. At last accounts the little sufferer was doing well as could be expected.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

THE ECLECTIC MAGAZINE.—The May number of this very excellent Magazine has been for some time upon our table, and, as usual, it is well filled with solid and instructive reading matter. Its literary articles are very choice and select—being the PICK of the English Magazines and Reviews. One of the articles is on "The Last Campaign in America," from the Edinburgh Review, and is unusually fair, considering its British origin. It is embellished with a portrait of the famous Catharine II., Empress of Russia.

The "Eclectic," published by Rev. W. H. BIDWELL, No. 5, Beekman street, N. York, appeals to the best cultivated intelligence of the country for support.

It gives relief almost instantaneous, and is without not disagreeable to the taste.—There is no doubt but the Mellifluous Cough Balsam is one of the best preparations in use, and is all that its proprietor claims for it. Magnificent Sale.

GOLD AND SILVER WATCHES,

Jewelry, &c.

ON THE ONE DOLLAR PLAN.

The Entire Stock of

One Gold and Silver Watch Manufactory, Two Immense Jewelry Establishments, One Silver Plating Warehouse, One Gold Pen and Pencil Maker,

To be disposed of with dispatch

WITHOUT REGARD TO COST!

The Goods are of fashionable styles and most excellent workmanship, and are sacrificed in this manner to relieve the proprietors from embarrassment occasioned by a distracting civil war. It should be prominently stated, also, that they are mostly of and therefore greatly superior to the goods imported from abroad and hawked about as the cheapest ever sold. The simple duty on imported goods, and the high premium on Gold (all foreign bills are payable in gold,) amount to more than the entire cost of many of the articles offered by us to the public. To facilitate the sale will be charged for any article on our list, and this sum the purchaser need pay only until he knows what he is to get! This plan accords with the method recently become so popular for disposing of large stocks of Jewelry and similar productions.

THE PLAN IS SIMPLE!

The name of each article offered for sale—as "Gold Hunting Watch," "Gold Stud and Bracelet," "Pearl Breastpin and Ear-Drops," "Gold Enamelled Ring," "Silver Plated Cake Basket," &c, is written on a card and enclosed in a sealed envelope; these envelopes are then placed in a drawer and well mixed; then as an order is received, with twenty five cents to cover return postage and other expenses, one of the cards or certificates is taken at random and by first class mail to the customer, who will see at once what he can get for One Dollar. If he is pleased with his fortune he can forward the money according to directions on the certificate and secure the prize. If the article awarded should be unsuited to the purchaser—as for example, a set of Pearl Ear-Drops and Breastpin for a young man who could not wear them, and had no one to give them to—we will send any other article on the catalogue of equal price which may be preferred. Or if, for any reason, you choose to venture no further, then you can let the matter drop where it is and spend a cent. Examine carefully our Catalogue!

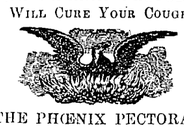
THE PHŒNIX PECTORAL

WILL CURE YOUR COUGH.



THE PHŒNIX PECTORAL;

OR, COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY AND SENEKA SNAKE ROOT.

Will cure the Diseases of the THROAT & LUNGS, Such as Colds, Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough, &c. Its timely use will prevent

PULMONARY CONSUMPTION,

And even where this fearful disease has taken hold it will afford greater relief than any other medicine.

Miss Kate Vanderslice of Pottsville, says: "I was benefitted more by using the Phœnix Pectoral than any other medicine I ever used."

Elias Oberholtzer, of Limville, Chester county, was cured of a cough of many years' standing by using the Phœnix Pectoral.

Joseph Lukens, of Hall street, Phœnixville, certifies that he was cured of a cough of two years' standing, when all other medicines had failed, by the Phœnix Pectoral.

Jacob Powers certifies that he has sold hundreds of bottles of the Phœnix Pectoral, and that all who used it bear testimony of its wonderful effects in curing coughs.

John Royer, editor of the "Independent Phœnix," having used it, has no hesitation in pronouncing it a complete remedy for cough, hoarseness and irritation in the throat.

The West Chester "Jeffersonian" says: "We have known Dr. Oberholtzer personally a number of years, and it gives us the greater pleasure to recommend his medicines in order that the public may have the benefit of family medicines prepared by a physician of his acquirements and experience.

Dr. Oberholtzer is a member of the Alumni of the Medical Department of the University of Pennsylvania, at which institution he graduated in 1854.

The Reading "Gazette" says: "This cough remedy is made up by Dr. L. Oberholtzer, of Phœnixville, Pa., and it has acquired an unsurpassed reputation in curing coughs. It is carefully and skillfully prepared from Wild Cherry Bark and Seneka Snake Root."

Dr. Geo. B. Wood, Professor of the Practice of Medicine in the University of Pennsylvania, Physician to the Pennsylvania Hospital, and one of the authors of the United States Dispensatory, says of Seneka Snake Root
