THE LATEST DISCOVERY.—The latest discovery which has been made, is a new planet which adds a new feature to the many discoveries already made, but while astronomers are observing everything appertaining to their interest, the ladies of Carlisle and vicinity say that they have discovered the latest star and are not to be outdone by anybody. They have visited and are visiting daily the STAR STORE of Mr. M. Mayer, in North Hanover Street, formerly occupied, and known as Mr. Miller's bakery, one door North of Dr. Dale's Carlisle, where they constantly find the best and cheapest assortment of Millinery Goods, such as Bonnets, in straw, silk and velvet, richly trimmed. Ladies and Misses Hats, in straw, felt, silk and velvet, trimmed with birds, feathers &c., &c. A large assortment of Cloaks, such as the Chesterfield Coats, Loose Sacks, Circulars, Short or Walking Sacks, Shawls, Knitted and Woolen Goods, Embroideries, Trimmings, &c.

By strict attention to his business, and by constantly receiving fresh supplies from New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, Mr. Mayer offers rare inducements, and respectfully requests the ladies of Carlisle and vicinity to give him a call. tf.

HARPER'S

NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

Critical Notices of the Press.

It is the foremost Magazine of the day. The fireside never had a more delightful companion, nor the million a more enterprising friend, than Harper's Magazine.—METHODIST PROTESTANT, (Baltimore).

The most popular Monthly in the world.—NEW YORK OBSERVER.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellences of Harper's Magazine—a journal which has a monthly circulation of a quarter of a million copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We spend on this work as an evidence of the American People; and its popularity it has acquired is merited. Each Number contains fully 144 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood-cuts; and it combines in fact, the early morning and late morning philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the all-a-month. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—TURNER'S GUIDE TO AMERICAN LITERATURE, London.

The Illustrated Magazine of themselves a library of choice and amusing reading such as can be found in the same compass in any other publication than has come under our notice.—BOSTON COURIER.
