The War.

The Charleston Mercury of the 15th, referring to the occupation by our troops of the southern half of Morris Island, says there is but one way to save the city of Charleston, and that is by a speedy and unflinching use of the bayonet.

A telegram from Hagerstown announces that the rear guard of Lee's army left Martinsburg at 2 o'clock on Saturday morning. Our whole force is across the Potomac. Lee is retreating by way of Strasburg and Staunton, not by Culpepper.

Southern papers of the 16th, received at Washington, are very gloomy over the rebel situation. The Richmond Enquirer publishes a proclamation by Jeff. Davis calling out under the confederate conscription act, all white men between the ages of 18 and 45 to serve for three years, under penalty of being punished for desertion in case of disobedience.

Morgan's raid has come to an unlucky end. He made an unsuccessful effort to cross the Ohio on Sunday, near Cooleyville, but was prevented by a gunboat.—150, rebels were killed or drowned, and 1000, prisoners with their artillery were taken, among whom are Colonel Ward and Colonel Dick Morgan. The remainder of the band is entirely broken up, and portions of it are continually being taken. 1300, had already been taken.

Gen. Hurlbut's scouts report that Bragg was retreating precipitately into Georgia on the 13th followed by Rosecrans's forces. Rosecrans's advance was reported to be at Rome, Ga. Bragg was endeavoring to make a junction with Johnston, and it is said that desertions from the army were numerous.

Hon. C. L Vallandigham.

We learn from the British side of Niagara that Mr. Vallandigham has arrived there in good health and spirits, notwithstanding the bad treatment he has been subjected to by the Administration. He has issued an address to the people of Ohio, in which he declares his allegiance to the Constitution of his country. He says he has had to pass through the various States of the Southern Confederacy, and he found all the men, all the women, and all the children united together in the declaration to resist the invasion of their States by the Federal armies to the very last extremity! More than this he says that while they are firmly and unyieldingly held to this opinion, still, that whenever the Federal armies are withdrawn that they will listen to the terms of reunion on the basis of the Constitution, in all its length and breadth. He adds that no treatment of him, however tyrannical and oppressive it may be, can ever change his devotion to the Union, and his unalterable love for Constitutional liberty. Then he thanks the people of Ohio for the honor they have done him in standing by him, and accepts of their nomination for Governor, and he concludes by declaring that his opinions in regard to the war are unchanged, and feels assured that it is only by Peace that the Union can be reconstructed.—Daily News.

The Draft Riots.

The riot in New York city partially subsided as soon as Gov. Seymour gave the people the positive assurance that the Constitutionality of the Conscription Law should be tested in the Courts.

The following are the reasons that are believed to have operated for the present restoration of peace:

First. The effectual pro tempore stoppage of the conscription.

Second. The rumors that no new attempt will be made to enforce the conscription.

Third. The judicious appeals and prompt action of Governor Seymour and the municipal police.

Fourth. The conciliatory addresses of Archbishop Hughes.

Fifth. The vicious marandings of thieves, blacklegs, and jail-birds, who endeavored to enrich themselves and revenge private grievances, by seizing upon a time of popular commotion for the perpetration of the basest crimes, have been pretty effectually stopped by the police, assisted by state and federal troops.

There is a lull in the fearful tempest that raged on Monday and Tuesday. Whether it will be a complete subsidence of the storm depends upon the future action to be taken by the federal authorities. Those who were concerned in the troubles of Monday and Tuesday have been heard to say that they do not wish the scenes of those days to be re-enacted, and were ready to stop at the mere rumor that the draft had been suspended. During the quiet that now follows some Republicans are moving their families out of town, as the provost marshal general has stated that the draft is to be enforced.

It is estimated that 200 lives have been lost during this fearful outbreak, not more than one fourth of whom were rioters.

Is the best and cheapest and most beautiful of all Sewing Machines. This machine will sew anything, from the running of a tuck in Tarletan to the making of an Overcoat—anything from Pilot or Beaver Cloth down to the softest Gauze or Gossamer Tissue, and is ever ready to do its work to perfection. It can fell, hem, bind, gather, tuck, quilt, and has a capacity for a great variety of ornamental work. This is not the only machine that can fell, hem, bind, and so forth, but it will do so better than any other machine. The Letter "A" Family Sewing Machine may be had in a great variety of cabinet cases. The Folding Case, which is now becoming so popular, is as its name implies, one that can be folded into a box or case, which when opened, makes a beautiful, substantial, and spacious table for the work to rest upon. The cases are of every imaginable design—plain as the wood grew in its native forest, or as elaborately finished as art can make them.

The branch offices are all well supplied with silk, twist, thread, needles, oil, etc., of the very best quality.

Terrible Disclosures—Secrets for the Million.

A MOST valuable and wonderful publication. A work of 400 pages, and 30 colored engravings. Dr. Hunter's Vade Mecum, an original and popular treatise on Man and Woman, their physiology, functions, and sexual disorders of every kind, with never-failing remedies for their speedy cure. The practice of Dr. Hunter has long been, and still is, unbounded, but at the earnest solicitation of numerous persons, he has been induced to extend his medical usefulness through the medium of his "Vade Mecum." It is a volume that should be in the hands of every family in the land, as a preventive of secret vices, or as a guide for the alleviation of one of the most awful and destructive scourges that ever visited mankind. One copy, securely enveloped, will be forwarded free of postage to any part of the United States for 50 cents in P. O. stamps, or 3 copies for $1. Address, post paid, Dr. Hunter, No. 3 Division street, New York.
