Credit for Veteran Volunteers.

The appended letter receive the careful attention of all:

H. R., Harrisburg, March 5, '64.

Editor Montrose Democrat:

DEAR SIR: You will probably confer a favor upon the citizens of Susqu'a county by publishing the following instructions suggested to me by T. L. Case, Esq., the clerk of Scranton Enrollment Board) as to the proper course to take in order to secure local credit for veteran volunteers:

"Each township should send to the Adjutant-General of the State, A. L. Russell, Harrisburg, Pa., a list of men who have reenlisted, stating the Company and Regiment in which they reenlisted, and ask for a certified copy of the muster roll, and present said certified copy at once to Provost Marshal Bradford at Scranton.

Application should at the same time be made to the veterans themselves for their written consent to be credited to a particular district; [or township] said consent must also set forth that they have not already been credited to any particular locality."

This "written consent of veterans" I suppose is also to be presented to Pr. M. Bradford, who will then attend to perfecting the rolls.

Respectfully, GEO. H. WELLS.

Local Legislation.

Petitions are before the legislature asking an increase of pay of jurors to $1,50, and of the County Commissioners to $2 per day, for this county. We do not see why a juryman should have less than a Commissioner. While plenty of good men are eager to serve as Commissioners at $1,50, there should be no increase.

Naturalization Papers.

The great importance of the coming election should induce every alien to take steps to become a citizen. Those who have "declared their intentions," should not fail to take out full papers at April Court. They are now held liable to draft, and incur no responsibility in becoming voters. All aliens five years resident should become voters; they have an interest in our government, and should prepare to place it in the hands of better men, next fall.

Personal Items.

The Binghamton papers contain the following: Chauncey has been notorious in this vicinity as the wild man in the woods, and his confinement here and elsewhere for a season will be a relief to the women and children whom he has annoyed in the past:

"NIPPED IN THE BUD."—A man by the name of Chauncey Chamberlin, was arrested in town last night for stealing $104 from Israel Chamberlin, a farmer living near Montrose, Pa. Israel telegraphed to this place to have Chauncey arrested, as it was supposed he would be found here, and offered $50 reward for the arrest and recovery of the money. The case was left with officer Bob Meacham, who finally hit upon the right track, and found Chauncey in company with Susy L. at the store of Hirschmann Bros. negotiating for a cloak for Miss Susy, worth $15. The officer unceremoniously stopped the sale, making a loss in profit to H. Bros., and of a cloak to Susy. The prisoner was searched, when he acknowledged the theft and accounted for the funds, cash on hand, $70, paid for coat, pants and shoes, for wedding gear, as Susy said, $24,75, refreshments, $3,25. Officer Meacham left for Montrose with the bridegroom elect, last night.

Soldiers' Aid—Secretary's Report.

One barrel forwarded to the W. P. Branch U. S. Sanitary Commission. The barrel contained 20 lbs. dried apples, 1 bag currants, 1 bag blackberries, 1 package raspberries, 15 pairs mittens, 10 pairs socks, 10 towels, 14 flannel shirts, 6 flannel drawers, 2 dressing gowns, 3 pairs slippers. The Society acknowledge a valuable donation from the ladies of Harford through Mrs. Tyler Brewster.

A barrel will be packed at the next meeting; also a keg of pickles if contributions for it are received in time.

Our Fair.

At a meeting of the Soldiers' Aid Society, on Thursday, March 3d, resolutions were passed congratulatory upon the perfect success of their Fair, given in aid of the U. S. Sanitary Commission, on Friday, Feb. 26th; the net proceeds of which amounted to $400. A vote of thanks was tendered those gentlemen and ladies outside of the Society who contributed so generously for the Fair, and to all those both old and young who responded so readily to the late appeals of the Society. The ladies feel that it was not the Society's Fair, not a church nor an agricultural Fair, but "Our Fair" and the public and general expression by a humane and loyal community of interest in our country's brave defenders.

Local Intelligence.

We will be thankful to persons throughout the county, for information in regard to all occurrences of local or general interest. If any think they cannot write for public eye, just let them send us the facts, as brief as convenient, in their own style, and the printers can arrange the wording if necessary. Marriages, Deaths, and other Incidents and Accidents, Fires, Crimes, etc., etc., are note-worthy matters. Our friends will render a double favor by sending items of interest—not forgetting to give us their names, privately, if preferred, as evidence of good faith and guard against imposition.

MARRIAGES.

In Lathrop, on the 28th ult., by S. W. Tewksbury, Esq., Mr. CHARLES E. CHANDALL, of Brooklyn, and Miss MARY L. HOWE, of Hopbottom.

Feb. 12th, at the Hillside Cottage, by Rev. A. O. Warren, Mr. MORGAN D. TENANT, of New Milford, and Miss ADALAIDE M. GREGORY, of Meshoppen.

Feb. 17th, by same, Mr. JEROME WATE and Miss EMMA J. WADE, all of Bridgewater.

DEATHS.

In Bridgewater, on Saturday, 27th ult., Mrs. LUCY BUNNELL, wife of Elijah Bunnell, aged 58 years and 4 months.

In Bridgewater, Feb. 6th, EUDORA E., youngest daughter of Uri and Emily Newcomb, aged 18 years.

Rest, thee, cherished one! thy day is o'er,
Thy spirit young, just begun,
We will not mourn, tho' oft deplore
Thy race on earth so soon is run;
In Rush, on the 20th ult., of consumption, MARY JANE, wife of J. S. Dunmore, aged 22 years and 10 months.

In Harford, of spotted fever, after a short illness of twelve hours, Feb. 21st, ALPHA L., youngest daughter of Elenzer and Alsista Ellsworth, aged 1 year, and 21 days.

Sweet Alpha too has left us,
To join the heavenly throngs;
And we with rapturous ears will list
To her seraphic song.
Methinks I hear her cherub voice,
Come warbling through the air;
Hark! she calls—and upwards points,
Come—Papa, Mama—there!

In Harford, on the 3d inst., of spotted fever, after an illness of ten days, ALSISTA, wife of Eleazer Ellsworth, aged 36 years, 11 mo. and 4 days. We are called on to mourn the loss of a beloved wife and mother, and a much respected neighbor.

Ah, Death! hast thou returned again,
And claimed the mother too?
We will submit, O God, to Thee,
'Tis all that we can do.
We will not murmur 'gainst God that calls;
We feel His chastening rod;
We give our lov'd ones up to Thee,
Their Saviour and their God.

At Sterlingville, March 3d, of diphtheria, HANNAH L., wife of Merritt Lilly, in the 24th year of her age.

Dearest sister, thou hast left us,
Here thy loss we deeply feel;
But 'tis God who hath bereft us,
He did all our sorrows heal.

At the residence of her father, in Forest Lake, March 12th, 1864, of consumption, LOVINA, wife of Isaac Bedell, and daughter of Albert and Abigail Leonard, aged 22 years and 7 months.

She leaves a husband and two small children, father, mother, and numerous friends to mourn her loss; but she leaves a bright evidence that she has gone home to Christ, the Saviour, in peace.

The lovely—the beautiful,
Has faded from our sight;
We mourn her, and miss her,
But cannot call her back;
For an iron sleep has bound her
In its passionate embrace,
We may weep but cannot win her
From her dreary resting place.

In Rush, on the 13th Jan., of diptheria, BENTON F. DUNMORE, child of Henry and Emma C. Dunmore, aged 7 weeks.

in Pint Bottles at 50 cts. for the cure of lameness, sore throat, sprains, bruises, spasms, colic, stiff joints, sore throat, sore mouth, croup, whooping cough, diphtheria, rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, earache, sore feet, chilblains, frost bites, chapped hands, piles, old sores, burns, scalds, cuts, bites of venomous animals, and all inflammations, internal and external, for which it is a sure remedy. Its wonderful healing properties are not surpassed by any other preparation. Its effects are permanent and lasting. Its cures are rapid and astonishing. Its proprietors have in their possession hundreds of certificates of its wonderful cures, many of the most astonishing character, which they will publish from time to time. Its effects are such as to leave no doubt with the sick and afflicted that it is the best medicine ever offered to the public. Its cures are so sudden and so apparently miraculous as to induce the sick and afflicted to think it a humbug. Its proprietors have been in the business for many years, and have never been ashamed to own the preparation, nor do they now. Its sale is now so extensive, and its reputation so well established, that they do not deem it necessary to publish the certificates of its cures in this vicinity. Its proprietors have sold it for years, and have never had a dissatisfied customer. Its sale is now so large that they can afford to sell it at a small profit, and yet realize a handsome income from the business. They do not ask you to purchase and pay your money without knowing the article you buy, but they ask you to read the testimony of your neighbors, your friends, your ministers, your magistrates, your physicians, your druggists, your merchants, your postmasters, your editors, your lawyers, your mechanics, your farmers, your sons and daughters, your fathers and mothers, your husbands and wives, your brothers and sisters, your friends and enemies, your all and everybody's cures, and be convinced that it is the best article ever offered to the public.
