PREAMBLE AND RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas—The money market is monopolized and forestalled by chartered Banking institutions, and by private persons, by their borrowing and receiving on deposits large sums of money, at rates in some instances even exceeding the legal rate of 6 per cent., for the sole purpose of loaning the same money to others for short periods of time, thirty, sixty, or ninety days at excessive usurious rates of interest varying from ten per cent., upwards, thus causing speculation in the borrowing and loaning of money, and creating much dissatisfaction among many people, all of which being to the injury, loss and annoyance of all personal interests, excepting only those receiving these excessive rates, and

Whereas, The Democratic party has always been opposed to monopolies of all kinds and has been and is a friend of the laborer and the industry of the country and in favor of protecting the weak, and curbing the strong, be it, therefore

Resolved, That this Convention is in favor of an act of Assembly being passed in the next Legislature of the State, establishing a uniform rate of interest, and prohibiting the charge of a higher rate, under and to the penalty of forfeiting all the interest on such loan to the borrower, and that the charging of such unlawful interest shall, in addition to such penalty be deemed a misdemeanor and punishable as such, and in case of a chartered Banking institution, in addition to said penalties, the charter to be forfeited and the directors be made liable to said penalties.

Resolved, That we most heartily endorse the platform of Resolutions enunciated at the late State Democratic Convention held at Wilkes Barre, and especially the manner in which the Salary Grab and those who supported it were denounced, and that we firmly plant ourselves upon it, with the full determination to employ all honorable means to bring about the supremacy of the principles upon which the Republic was founded, therein set forth, and that we earnestly invite the patriotic men of all parties to unite with us and assist in re-establishing the principles and practices of the better days of our Government, both State and National.

Resolved, That we endorse the nominees of the State Democratic Convention and the nominees of this Convention and that we pledge them our united and hearty support.

E. B. Hawley in a few remarks thanked the Democracy of Susquehanna County, through the members of the Convention, for the high honor conferred upon him.

On motion of R. S. Searle, the nominee for Representative was empowered to appoint his own conferees.

On motion Convention adjourned sine die.

WM. WHITE, S. E. CARPENTER, } Secretaries.

What our Opponents say of our Candidates.

The nominees of the Democratic party for State Treasurer and Judge of the Supreme Court are such as to compel even the most Radical journals to praise them. The Harrisburg State Journal pays them the following handsome and well-deserved compliment:

"The Democracy at Wilkesbarre, yesterday, made their nominations for Supreme Judge and State Treasurer. Hon. James R. Ludlow, of Philadelphia, is the candidate for Judge, and Frank M. Hutchinson, Esq., of Pittsburgh, for State Treasurer. Judge Ludlow is one of the Associate Law Judges of the Fist district. He is a respectable and able men, popular with extremists of his party and has a final reputation as a judicial officer. Mr. Hutchinson is largely connected with railroad interests in the Western part of the State, in Allegheny county and is claimed by his friends as being most highly personally esteemed.

We are thus explicit and fair in setting forth that the Democracy could not have made better nominations if they had met expressly to bring out their best men, and we want to have it clearly understood that these candidates are unexceptionable as men, and exceedingly popular.

The Sunday Dawn, an independent Philadelphia journal, is of the opinion that there is no comparison between the Democratic and Radical nominees, the former being so greatly superior. Speaking of our ticket, the Dawn remarks:

The ticket and platform are unexceptionable. Hon. James R. Ludlow, of the city, for Supreme Judge, is as we have said time and again, the strongest nomination they could have made and if the ticket is not loaded down with "scallawags," "roosters," and "pot-house politicians," for local offices, it will be found that our calculation on his majority in this city will be realized. As we said last Sunday, it matters little where the Treasurer comes from, so that we have the Judge here, for it is well known that Philadelphia, with her convenient registry law, makes up for deficits in the state where there is an object to be attained.—On the Republican side, there is no local object. On the democratic ticket there is, with Ludlow on the ticket. The inference is easily drawn. In Pittsburg, the other stronghold of Mackey, Frank Hutchinson, who is personally more popular than Mackey, will reduce the usual Republican majority, so that the two great props of the Ring are knocked from under it, and the figures this fall will have a different showing to what they had last. With this ticket, and this dissatisfaction in the opposition's ranks, if the Democrats can't elect, they should throw up the sponge.

——The Philadelphia Ledger, a Republican journal, is in favor of the election of Judge Ludlow, and has the following significant article in reference to his merits as a judicial officer:

It would be much better for the best interests of the people of the Commonwealth if they were left to make a choice untrammelled by party—between Judge Ludlow and Judge Gordon for the seat upon the Supreme Bench, which will be made vacant by the retirement of Judge Read. Then the election would have been to all citizens a free choice upon their judicial merits, a free choice as to which was the most desirable to advance to the higher position. With a large number of Philadelphia and to a number of other Judicial Districts of the State, there have always been considerable number of citizens who will not be bound by party in matters of such importance as the selection of the judges who are to administer strict justice in the suits and prosecutions which arise among men of opposing parties, and which too often bring party feeling into our Courts. These "independent" voters were sufficient in number in Philadelphia six years ago, when Judge Ludlow was a candidate for re-election to the Common Pleas, to decide the canvass in his favor, although the Republican party, which had nominated his opponent, was then in the majority in this city.—This decision was made, not because of objection to the opposing candidate but because the voters who cast the deciding votes acted upon the sound principle of keeping upon the bench of the most important Court of the State, except the Supreme Court itself, a judge who had demonstrated his possession of the judicial qualities, and who had proved himself to be eminently worthy of that honorable and responsible position. Judge Ludlow's upright character, his strict impartiality, his fearless independence, his long experience on the bench, his decisions rarely reversed, have given him that full title to public confidence which is enjoyed by nearly all our Philadelphia judges.

——Forney's Press speaks in the highest terms of the Democratic nominees. Forney knows that the candidates of his own party are mere trash beside them. The Press says:

"For Supreme Judge, James R. Ludlow esq., Judge of the Supreme Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia county was nominated. The convention could not have chosen a gentleman of greater abilities for the head of the ticket or one who commands in a higher degree the respect of his fellow citizens of both parties. For many years he has been an ornament to the bench and bar of this city—as a judge upright and impartial, who has never allowed political bias to warp his decisions, and as an advocate and author able and erudite. Mr. Frank M. Hutchinson, of Allegheny, a business man of high character, was nominated for the State Treasurership. He is at present treasurer of the Pittsburg Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company."

COLD COMFORT.—The World says:—Among the resolutions adopted by the National Republican Convention in 1872 was one pointed at with pride to the support given by the party to the Pacific Railroad enterprise, and assuming that support to be worthy of special admiration. It also declared that the Pacific Railroad and similar vast enterprises have been generously aided and successfully conducted.—The developements which have followed show just how they were aided and conducted. The Republican leaders in Congress have voted away the public money and the ring in the railroad have refunded a large share of it to these very Congressmen. And now comes the rumor of a like division on the part of the western division of the Pacific road. Those enterprises were generally aided by the Republicans, who in turn received a generous share of the aid. They have successfully conducted a large amount of frauds into the pockets of the Republican statesmen, besides furnishing a corruption fund to elect United States Senators and Congressmen. There are good reasons, solid reasons, greenbacked reasons, and coupon reasons for the Republicans to declare that those enterprises have been successfully conducted.

BACK PAY FOR GRANT.—In speaking of the back pay steal and those who are responsible for it, the New York Sun says:

The case of General Grant is still more marked, for leaving out of view his influence in passing the bill, this measure could never become a law without his distinct approval. He is more responsible for it than either branch of Congress, because his single will decided the question in his own favor. Had there been no constitutional doubt to give pause, there was at least the question of delicacy, if not of decency, to cause a President to hesitate about signing a bill in the last hours of an Expiring Congress, by which he was personally to pocket more than $104,000. For this law makes his pay date back from the 4th of March, instead of the 1st of July, the beginning of the fiscal year, up to which time the regular salary had already been appropriated. He received therefore four months of back pay at the increased rate.

UNDEVELOPED VIGOR.

The feeble and debilitated usually fancy they are in more hopeless condition than they really are. The resources of nature are not easily exhausted. Even when strength and appetite fail when the eyes are heavy and lustreless, the complexion pallid, the nervous tremulous, the body attenuated, and the mind depressed, there is generally a reserve of latent power behind such palpable evidences of weakness. Various modes of treatment are resorted to by physicians in the hope of developing and rendering available this store of sleepy vitality, but the surest, and indeed the only thoroughly safe and reliable means of awakening the dormant energies of the system is a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Electricity, shower baths, the flesh brush, sea bathing, &c., may be well enough in their way, as auxiliaries, but they do not reach the source of the evil. All physical debility proceeds either from a derangement of the functions of the assimilating, secretive and vital organs, or from a sluggish constitution. In either case, and also in cases where both causes exist, the Bitters will invariably produce an immediate and salutary change in the condition of the patient, and eventually effect a complete cure. None of the dangerous alkaloids, too often administered as tonics, can be otherwise than deleterious under such circumstances, and to give mercury is positively criminal. The direct effect of the great vegetable specific will be manifested in an improved appetite, a more cheerful frame of mind, a gradual return of strength, an increase of flesh, and a healthier complexion. Meanwhile, however, the constitution, if inert and feeble, will have been roused and renovated by the subtile elements of invigoration contained in the Bitters.
