The Juniata Sentinel.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, May 30, 1866.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

GEARY CLUB.—The Juniata Central Geary Club meets in the Court House on 1st and 3rd SATURDAY evenings of each month at 8 o'clock. Any person wishing to sign the Constitution can do so by calling at the SENTINEL Office or at the meeting of the Club

R. M. KEEVER, has again returned to our borough and is ready and willing to do any work in the Dental line. He can be found at the Juniata Hotel.

WHAT everybody says must be true, is an old proverb, and it is a fact that every body should know that Mickey & Pennell of Patterson, have the largest stock and cheapest goods of all kinds to be found in the county. Call and examine for yourselves.

WANTED.—A Body maker in a Coach manufactory in Perrysville, Juniata county, Pa. Steady employment for a good workman. Call on or address

THOMPSON & BRO.
Port Royal,
2t. Juniata county, Pa.

LAST NOTICE.—All persons having unsettled accounts on the books of Henry Brubaker are requested to come and settle the same on or before the 11th day of June next, and against all who fail to settle by that time, suits will be brought.

JEREMIAH LYONS, Assignee of Henry Brubaker.

A PROLIFIC GOOSE.—A goose belonging to Caleb M. Taylor, of East Goshen township, recently hatched 14 Goslins out of 15 eggs. One was a double egg—which produced two perfect and distinct goslins. Whose goose can beat that?—American Republican

The tailor's goose at Washington can, for he has already hatched from the egg of treason over 5000 pardons.

FIRE.—For several days past the Shade Mountain has been on fire, and in Fayette township it came down in the valley, doing much damage to the fences, &c.—On Saturday night many of the citizens were out all night battling against the fiery element, but with little effect, and on Sunday morning a heavy shower of rain fell, answering a twofold purpose, extinguishing the fire, and watering the dry ground and parched grass.

AUCTION SALE.—At the Auction Room Saturday afternoon and evening, June 2d, will be offered a large and desirable assortment of new goods, consisting of Mens' and Ladies white and colored Hose, Mens' Linen, Lawn and Cotton Handkerchiefs, Suspenders, Spool Cotton, Shoe Lacers, Shoes of all descriptions, Soaps, Letter Paper, Mens' and Boys' Wool and Straw Hats, Mens' and Boys Caps, Photograph Albums, Jewelry, Pocketbooks and a variety of other goods.

Come, come if you want bargains.

A. H. WEIDMAN.

MIFFLIN BRIDGE.—Our attention has been directed to the dangerous condition of this structure. The weather-boarding is torn off in a number of places making it really dangerous in dark nights to pedestrians, riders or persons in vehicles—If the Company will persist in collecting toll from the public the public should see that the bridge is kept in a safe condition, else they should be promptly indicted for keeping up a dangerous public nuisance. This would be a proper subject for the consideration of the Grand Jury at the next term of court.

THE PHRENOLOGICAL JOURNAL FOR JUNE.—Contains Portraits of Hon. Soloman Foot, Thomas Jefferson, Aaron Burr, Conttance Emily Kent, Jenny Lind, a Group of Moquis or Utah Indians, with upwards of twenty illustrations and sketches of character; also Practical Physiognomy, Love and Lovers, Marriage and Divorce, Revelation and Science, Your Likeness, Strong Men, Hints to Preachers and Sextons, Physical Culture, True Politeness, How to Talk, Fashions, etc., $2 a year, or 20 cents a number.—A new volume,—the 44th,—begins with the next number. Address, FOWLER & WELLS, 389 Broadway, New York.

SABBATH SCHOOL ANNIVERSARY.—We understand that the Anniversary exercises of the Sabbath School of the Perrysville Presbyterian Church, (Rev. Mr. Brown) last Sabbath week, were largely attended. Nearly three hundred children attended and contributed much to the interest of the meeting by the beautiful hymns and Sabbath School Melodies which they sang. Brief addresses were made by Prof. Wilson, Capt. John M. Thompson and Mr. Haughawout. All seemed to enjoy the meeting, and we have no doubt it will be productive of good in begetting a more lively interest in the Sabbath school cause.

NEW LODGE.—Another Lodge of Good Templars was organized in our borough on Wednesday evening last. The ceremonies were conducted by Rev. E. W. Kirby, D. D. G. W. C. T., this of district. Mifflintown Lodge, No.—I. O. of G. T., starts under very favorable prospects, and from all accounts they will do much good in the community. The following is a list of the officers elected and installed for the present term:

W. C. T.—E. W. H. Kreider.
W. V. T.—D. A. Christy.
W. S.—B. F. Walters.
W. T.—J. H. Rollman.
W. I. G.—A. N. McCrum.
W. O. G.—H. H. Hamilton.
W. C.—W. H. Rollman.
W. A. S.—J. C. Doyle.
W. F. S.—J. W. Kirk.
W. M. —M. L. Littlefield.

Died.

McMILLEN.—On the 24th inst., in Johnstown, Juniata county, Mrs. Alice, consort of George McMillen, aged about 63 years.

CROZIER.—On the 26th inst., in Johnstown, Juniata county, Mrs. Sarah, consort of Armstrong Crozier, dec'd., aged 62 years.

BRYSON.—In Fermanagh township on the 23d inst., Miss Mary Bryson, aged about 74 years.

Miss Bryson became a member of the Presbyterian church in her early years, lived a christian life, was loved and respected by all who knew her, and died in full hope of a blessed immortality.

For the Sentinel

[COMMUNICATED.]

MR. EDITOR:—It becomes my painful duty to send you for publication, the death of one of our large family of children. It is the first, and hence the more deeply felt by all the teachers and associates. Little Lizzie Steffen, of Mount Pleasant Mills, Snyder county, a scholar of the Soldeirs Orphan School, McAlistersville, departed this life on Sabbath morning, May 20th, 1866; just a bud in the garden, yet surrounded with many evidences of promise and beauty. She has gone—God took her, and to-day while we are compelled to endure trial and storm she enjoys the presence and glory of Him who said "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of heaven."—May God sanctify this visitation of His providence to our good.

REVOLUTION IN PITCHING HAY.—The undersigned has received a lot of Rundell's First Premium Horse Pitch Forks—one of the greatest machines ever invented for unloading hay. All forks are warranted perfect or the money refunded. A boy 12 years of age can work them on a wagon with ease. Call at my store, in Patterson, and examine them—it will cost you nothing for calling.

J. B. M. TODD.

Mr. Emanuel Moyer, of Milford township, says: I purchased a Rundells Horse Pitch Fork last spring from J. B. M. Todd, and found it to be the lightest and most perfect fork I ever used. A boy 12 years of age can use it and I unloaded two tons of hay from a wagon in 7 minutes time, by the watch
