Town and County.

COUDERSPORT, JULY 19, 1860.

We would call the attention of our readers to the new announcement of the Ulysses Academy. The institution is already well known that it needs no commendation from us now; but the principal feature of the coming term will be the Teachers' Institute of two weeks duration, under the conduct of Prof. C. W. Sander, author of a popular series of school books. It will be well worth the price of tuition for the term to those who attend it.

We give below a list of the mail routes diverging from Coudersport. We do not give all the figures as we have not been able to ascertain them. We do give the prices at which they are re-let, as those are private contracts:

From Coudersport to Wellsville, daily, to Gerard Hall, for $575—re-let to Wm. Van Horn.

From Coudersport to Jersey Shore, semi-weekly, to J. J. Werline, for about $860—re-let to Nathan Woodcock.

From Coudersport to Wellsboro, semi-weekly, to G. McClelland, for $475—re-let to Bob Harrington.

From Coudersport to Smethport, semi-weekly, to G. McClelland for $250.

From Coudersport to Sinnemahoning, weekly, to S. A. & D. H. Pitts, for about $275 re-let to Barclay & Brainard.

From Coudersport to Ceres, semi-weekly, — Cooper, for about $250.

From Coudersport to Ulysses, weekly, to Lowell & Taggart, for $94—re-let to G. Nelson.

The event of the times was, and is no more—lunacy has for two hours had the ascendancy over a little more than half of Old Sol. In other words, the Eclipse has transpired, and smoked-glass and colored pick-bottles are no longer in demand in this region.

And while on the star-gazing theme, we would state that we have come to the conclusion to take back our announcement that there is a comet visible in the heavens. We have looked after it till our eyes are sore and our neck stiff, and it won't there. Our friend Brown has scanned the starry world with his fine telescope of upwards of 3 inches diameter, and reports non est. We are rapidly relapsing to believe that certain professors in certain colleges and universities are practicing humbugs, and that the "comic" is visible only to the naked lie. In fact, we think they have been telling us a "Great Bear" story that can't be proved by the stars.

The Premium List for the next Agricultural Fair will be found in this number of our paper, and we presume will be read by everybody, without particular solicitation. The Hon. A. B. Dickinson, of Steuben Co., on of the most extensive practical farmers in the country, and one of the best agricultural lecturers in the United States, is to deliver the address; and the general arrangements for the Fair are of such a character as to command the earnest coöperation of every citizen of the county. The premiums are liberal and comprehensive.

The following persons compose the list of local

"Burying" the Captured Africans.—From intelligence received here, there is reason to suspect that the alleged mortality among the captured Africans at Key West, is only a sham to cover nefarious designs which have been successfully practiced in some cases. The solemn mockery of carrying coffins to sea for purposes of pretended burial is well understood, and they do not always contain dead men. Suspicious vessels have been prowling around Key West with the intention of carrying off parties of these poor creatures, and it is believed that many of them have already disappeared, who are now working on plantations in Alabama and Mississippi. Some of the pirates engaged in the slave-trade prefer a descent upon Key West to the hazards of a run to the coast of Africa and back. As Congress made provision for the removal of these negroes long ago, it is properly asked why the President has allowed this delay, if he intends to execute the law. The cry is now got up in Florida that they do not desire to be removed, as if in their ignorant and wretched condition they were competent to decide such a question.—Washington Correspondent of N. Y. Tribune, 13th.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

I. All Animals, to be entitled to compete for Premiums, shall have been kept and owned in the County, by the persons presenting them, at least four months previous to the Annual Fair. No animal shall draw a premium two years in succession other than certificate of Honorable Mention.

II. No person shall be permitted to complete for a Premium on any article of Domestic Manufacture, or Butter or Cheese, unless the same shall have been made or manufactured by such person or persons, or his or their family or families, within the year that it shall be offered for a premium.

III. Exhibitors must become members of the Society and have their articles and animals entered on the Secretary's book on or before the day next preceding the opening of the Exhibition; and all articles and animals must be brought within the enclosure as early as noon of the first day of exhibition, in order that they may be suitably arranged. The Managers do not intend to assure any exhibitor who neglects these requirements, that his articles can be submitted to the Judges. While every effort will be made to secure the examination and proper notice of every article on exhibition, justice to those who comply with the rules of the Society requires that they shall in all cases first receive attention.

IV. Articles or animals removed before the close of the Exhibition (except by permission of the President) cannot receive a Premium, though awarded.

V. Should any individual enter an animal in any other name than that of the bona fide owner, the person making such entry shall not be allowed a premium should one be reported by the Judges, and shall be precluded from competing at any future exhibition of the Society.

VI. Persons entering stock of the age of three years and under, shall furnish the Judges evidence of the time when the animals were dropped, to be filed by them with the Secretary; and the ages of animals above this, to be given on making their entries.

VII. The Judges shall in all cases withhold premiums where the animal or article is not worthy, though there be no competition.

VIII. No premiums are to be awarded to Bulls, Cows or Heifers that have been fitted for the butcher—the intention of the Society being to promote the rearing of superior animals for breeding purposes.

IX. Whenever it shall appear to the Judges that articles of superior merit have been presented, not noticed in the Premium List, they shall make special report thereof to the Board of Managers.

X. It is particularly desired that no persons shall be present while the Judges are examining the Stock referred to them, except those taking charge of the animals, unless by special request.
