AN OLD PAPER.—We are indebted to Andrew Patterson, Esq., of Academia, a gentleman with whom most of our citizens are acquainted, for a copy of a paper called "Juniata Journal," which was published here at Mifflin, by F. C Merklin, March 17, 1836, a time previous to the date of our birth. We regret that we were not in our office when Mr. Patterson called. An article, or a series of articles from his pen, on the men of those "by gone days," would be read with interest now.

OTTERLINE SWOPE, of Three Springs, Huntingdon county, had the boot, stocking and flesh clean to the bone, peeled off one of his feet by one of the Mt. Union stage horses which he was trying to hold, tramping upon it, on the 18th inst., at Mt Union, as the cars were passing. His injury is quite serious.—Blair Co., Radical.

DONATION.—M. G. Pifer & Co, of Philadelphia, about two weeks ago, sent to Mr. R. E. Parker, about $75, worth of boots and clothing to be distributed among the sufferers by the recent fire.—Mr. Parker made the necessary distribution, and Messrs Pifer & Co., have the thanks of our citizens for their liberality.

A NARROW ESCAPE—A warning to Boys—Every hour in the day boys can be seen clinging to wagons and sleds passing through the streets. The other day a sled was passing down Bridge street, the front carriage of a four-horse wagon—broad tire—was attached to it. Of course some boy must get on either the wagon or sled. One made an effort to get on the sled, missed his hold and fell, and had one of the wheels pass over his neck. The yielding snow saved it from being broken.

REVICTULED AND RESTOCKED.—During the continuance of the armistice Paris is to be revictualed. That news was announced by cable and we announce news that may be of more benefit to the pockets of the citizens of Mifflin and vicinity then the news of the surrender of Paris, namely that Martin & Walters have restocked their store with goods fresh from the Eastern cities. They invite all to come and examine the quality of the goods and learn the prices before calling elsewhere. Persons who attend Court next week are invited to call at Martin & Walters' in the Belford building.

A HOUSE BURNED AND A LIFE LOST.—A lady named Eve Nipple, whose age it is believed, was over 100 hundred years and who lived in Licking Creek Valley, about seven miles from Mifflin, was burned to death in her house on last Friday. For some years past she has lived alone. Mr. Alexander McCahan himself or some member of his family, daily visited her house to see that her wants were supplied. On Friday morning Mr. McCahan was at her house, she was then in the enjoyment of her usual health. Sometime near noon the house was discovered to be on fire. When the neigbors reached the burning building they discovered the body of the old lady lying near the front door, fearfully charred, and her limbs burned off. It was taken out as soon as possible. Mrs. Nipple had means and was not a public charge. After her fire, in the ruins of the house a five dollor gold piece was found Her remains were burried the same day, on her little farm where she had lived so long.

REPORTS having been extensively circulated that the school house in this borough was in a dangerous condition, the Directors employed two persons of known experience to examine them and report their opinion. We herewith append their report;

To the Board of School Directors of the Borough of Mifflintown:

From the examination that I passed upon your school house and from the defects that are visible on the outlines of the structure I do not apprehend any danger under the circumstances The foundation being defective, and that being the cause of the defect noticeable upon the superstructure, I would recommend that the western end of said structure receive a temporary support towards spring to guard against lateral extension.

Yours with respect,

WILLIAM HENCH.

To the Board of School Directors of the Borough of Mifflintown:

At your request I have examined the school house in Mifflintown, and in my opinion it is safe for the purpose for which it is used, and that no danger need be apprehended by the scholars or their parents. I would, however, after the present term of school has closed, recommend a strengthing of the west wall by rods or other effectual supports.

JACOB BERGEY.

SICK HEADACHE, hysteria, nervousness, and constipation may be cured by retiring early, omitting tea, coffee, pastry and confectionery, eating substantial food at regular intervals, plenty of out-door exercise, a draught of cold water the first thing on rising in the morning, and the reading of substantial literature instead of the light, trashy stuff.—Medical Independent.

PATCHING AND DARNING.—Patching and darning is something that the great majority of mortals cannot dispense with in this matter of fact world. Recently, the subject has had a good deal of interest centered in it. An exhibition of darned and patched work was given at the office of the Hearth and Home, in New York, on the 11 and 14 of January last. The skill displayed on the repaired garments that were there exhibited elicited high praises.

A CITIZEN OF MIFFLIN "DOWN IN TEXAS" AT WACO.—The Waco Register of January the seventh writes of a visit paid that office by a citizen of Juniata and a native of Mifflin, in the following style: "Mr. T. J. Frow, a gentleman of education and intelligence, just from the valley of the "Blue Juniata," Pennsylvania, and a nephew of Col Frow, of Alabama, well known to many of our citizens, has been in our city for several days and has favored us with a call.

On Wednesday evening, January 25, while Mr Daniel Musselman, near Duncannon, and his family were eating supper a stranger deliberately commenced smashing in the window. Mr. Musselman at once sprang out and caught the fellow, when a desperate struggle ensued. Mr. Musselman was almost overcome and called upon the hired man for assistance. Mrs. Musselman also come to the rescue of her husband, when the villian struck her a violent blow on the head with a club. The struggle now became exceedingly violent and was a thing of life or death, when the odds proving too great the fellow had to succumb.

Mrs Musselman, though a small and delicate woman, quickly procured a rope and tied the hands and feet of the assailant, in which condition he was kept until assistance arrived, when he was taken in charge of by two citizens of Duncannon, who intended to place him in the lock-up until morning. He succeeded, however, in giving them the slip, and went to Harrisburg Wednesday night. He was arrested by the Mayor on Thursday morning and lodged in jail as a suspicous character, and hardly been placed there before Mr. Musselman arrived at the office with a warrant for his arrest. The culprit, whose name proves to be Jacob Kraw, was taken to Bloomfield yesterday for trial.—Newport News.

THE superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either family use or manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellencies is no longer considered necessary.
