COTTON MARKET.

MONTGOMERY, Thursday, March 18

Cotton.—The market is entirely inactive, because there is very little here offering for sale.—Rates have steadily advanced, in consequence of the increased rates at Mobile and N. Orleans, and the general conviction that the crop will prove to be a very short one. We quote middling 9½@10½, good mid. 10; mid. fair 10½c.

Receipts to the 17th inst.	42,507
" for the week	45
Shipments to the 17th inst.	38,803
" for the week	354
Stock on hand	4,612

MOBILE, March 17.

Cotton—The receipts of the week 7,083 bales; exports 13,359; stock on hand 170,321 bales, against 101,270 last year. Monday the 8th, sales were only 1000, owing to the severity of the weather. Tuesday, notwithstanding the advance of prices, sales were 6000 bales, at an advance of ⅛c. on the rates of last week, which were for middling 9½@9¾c. Wednesday 3500 bales were sold, holders demanding higher rates. Thursday and Friday, sales amounted to 1500 each day, holders being unwilling to sell at current rates. The rates we give here show an advance of ¼@½c. for the week, the market closing firmly: Fair 11½@11¾; mid. fair 11@—; middling 10½@10¾; ordinary 10c.

CINCINNATI MARKETS.

WHOOPING COUGH.—Messrs Editors—I observed some time ago a communication over the signature for "A Parent," stating that Dr. Jayne's Indian Expectorant had been the means of saving the lives of three of his children, who were suffering severely with whooping cough; and having, but a short time before, lost one of my children by that dreadful complaint, and having another, and my only child, suffering the greatest agony with the same disease, and in hourly expectation of its death, I was induced to purchase a bottle of it, and commenced using it according to the directions—and to the surprise of all it began to mend in fifteen minutes after we commenced using it, and the child has now completely recovered.

I have no acquaintance with Dr. Jayne, but hereby return him a husband's and a father's grateful acknowledgments.

J. L. SIMPKINS.

Philadelphia, April 22d, 1846.

Jayne's Hair Tonic.—We commend to the attention of those desirous of restoring their hair or improving its beauty, to this elegant preparation We hear it every where highly spoken of, and especially by all who have made use of it, as greatly efficacious in stimulating the growth of the hair, and preventing and curing many affections of the skin. Its virtues are amply and sufficiently proved.—N. Y. Sun.
