LEVI G. CLOVER, COLLECTOR.

☞ The St. Louis New Era of the 4th says: "We have not, for a number of years, noticed a more general activity, in all branches, than has prevailed in the business of our city since the opening of navigation; not only have the receipts of produce been large and a very extensive trade going forward in this particular branch, but the aggregate amount of dry goods, groceries and manufactures, which have been sold this spring, are much heavier than have heretofore been disposed of at so early a period in the season. Quite a number of new customers have been in the market, and bought to a considerable extent, for cash. The merchants generally are well stocked with goods of all kinds, and offer great inducements to country dealers. The carrying trade continues heavy and tonnage abundant."

☞ In the District Court at Philadelphia, on the 10th inst., Mr. M'Kenzie, of the Columbia House, was called on, in evidence, to state a private conversation which he had with the plaintiff in the case. This he declined doing, on the ground that he had given his word of honor not to state the conversation. The Court informed him that he must be committed to prison for contempt of Court if he did not make the statement called for by defendant's counsel. He said he could not do so. The Court was about to order his commitment, when the counsel withdrew the question. The Court then said they would consult upon the question of counsel's right to do this.

☞ On the 23d of March, in Braceville, Ohio, Mr. FOSTER WHITFORD, aged 71, was married to Mrs. SALLY STORY, aged 72. More than 50 years ago (says the Western Reserve Chronicle,) they were first married; and soon after Mr. W. left for parts unknown. The wife did not hear of him during several years, concluded he was dead, and married Mr. Story, with whom she lived many years. He died, and she has passed several years in widowhood. A few weeks since Mr. W. came to Braceville; a coal of the former fire has no doubt kindled a new flame; and the young people are again united!

☞ A person died recently in Brussels, who had been known as M. Croibart, who at one time was a captain in the army, afterwards an officer of the excise at Paris, and more recently employed in the war department. The persons who attended to the preparations for interment, certified to the government that the deceased was a woman! It was then ascertained that the wife of Capt. Croibart had followed her husband to the field; that he had been killed in battle, and she had taken his post and his title! Certainly a most wonderful woman

☞ It is stated in late foreign journals, that not less than 600 Germans have recently passed through Cologne on their way to Bremen, Havre and Antwerp, where they will take their departure for America. The greater part of them seem rather well off. The town of Menden was lately so full of emigrants that it resembled a camp of a wandering tribe; the streets were literally crammed with baggage, and people waiting for the steamers. It is calculated that 720,000 Germans will emigrate this year.

☞ The value of the Spanish coins which circulate among us for 6¼ and 12½ cents, can be determined from the fact that the Post Office Department actually sustains a loss in taking them at 5 and 10 cents and having them recoined into pieces of these denominations. Mr. Buchanan of the Baltimore Post Office, (says the Sun,) having sent to the Mint, recently, $609 40, for which he received in coins only $631 62—leaving but $22, 22 for the cost of transportation, and the expenses of an agent to take charge of it going and returning from Philadelphia.

☞ JOHN L. ROBINSON, Esq., of Rush county, Indiana, editor of the Jacksonian, has been nominated as the Democratic candidate for Congress in the 3d district of that State, in place of the Hon. THOMAS SMITH, who declined a re-election. Mr. R. is a gentleman altogether worthy of the confidence of his fellow citizens, and qualified to sustain their interests on the floor of the House.

☞ The British ship Cygnet, recently arrived at Spithead, England, from the coast of Africa, where she has been for the last three years. She had in that time captured 1760 slaves, and 19 vessels; 15 of which had been condemned. Letters received by her deny the truth of the statement, published some days ago, that there had been a massacre of 2,000 slaves at Galleneos.

☞ Near Burlington, N. J., there is a native grape vine, which is said to be six feet one inch in circumference, at the ground; and three feet in girth at the height of ten feet from the earth. It is still healthy, and its branches cover four large trees.

☞ Captain PETER FRITZ, of the Philadelphia National Greys, has recently been appointed to the command of one of the ten regiments authorised by the late act of Congress. He will soon leave for the seat of war.

☞ It is ascertained that the exports from our country of flour, corn meal, wheat, corn, and other grain, from the 1st of September 1846, to the 10th of April, 1847, have amounted at shipping prices, to about twenty millions of dollars.

☞ Those who are fond of Angling, (and who is not?) should call at "Old Blair's," No. 120, Wood street, where they will always find an extensive variety of fishing tackle, the best we believe in the city.

☞ We have received the proceedings of the Diagnothian Literary Society of Marshall College, Mercersburg, Pa., in relation to the death of our esteemed young friend, the late HENRY C. BEELER, Esq. We shall publish the proceedings on Monday.

☞ Resolutions in favor of Mr. Whitney's Railroad to the Pacific, passed both branches of the Legislature of New York on the 7th inst.

LATEST FROM MEXICO.

MARCH TOWARDS THE CAPITAL.

Jalappa taken!—Perote fallen!—Santa Anna superseded!

From the New Orleans papers of the 6th we learn that our gallant army was marching towards the City of the Aztecs.

Generals Scott and Taylor have communicated with each other, and intend joining their forces before they attack the Mexican Capital.

Gen. Twiggs hoisted the American flag in Jalappa on the 19th of April.

Gen. Worth entered Perote on the 22d ult. The Mexicans evacuated the city after spiking their guns.

Gen. Ampudia, with about 3000 cavalry, in a wretched condition, was near the town when our troops entered it, when he put off.

The killed and wounded on our side, at the battle of Cerro Gordo, amounted to over 350.

Gen. Shields was improving—there is a probability of his recovery.

Gen. Patterson has recovered his health in a great degree.

It was said that Puebla would yield without a gun being fired.

Santa Anna was at Orizaba, a small town at the foot of the mountain, with only 1,000 troops.

It was reported that Santa Anna was removed from the head of the army, and Gen. Valartine appointed in his stead.

After the taking of Tuspan, Com. Perry contemplated moving towards the interior, with a force of 2500 brave tars.

Three men belonging to Col. May's dragoons, were murdered by a band of prowling Mexicans.

Gen. Taylor was at Walnut Springs on the 18th ult. There heard of his nomination for the Presidency, said nothing about the matter, but appeared chagrined.

ARREST.—The Police of Allegheny city yesterday arrested a man by the name of Thomas Haggerty, in the neighborhood of Tarentum, believing he was concerned in the murder of Frederick Bollmyre. He was committed to prison, until this morning at 10 o'clock, at which time he will face his accusers at the Mayor's office.

☞ Lieut. Trovillo, of the Duquesne Grays, Mr. William Black, and some other Pittsburghers, arrived home yesterday morning, from Mexico. They were in bad health, and obtained a furlough for a short period.

THE PROCEEDS OF THE IRISH LECTURE, IN PART.—We understand from Mr. R. H. Kerr, that he has about $150. The other gentleman of the Committee who assisted at the door, Mr. Kerr could not see in time to make a full report. We will give it on Monday.

We have heard it suggested that it would be highly proper, to have the Lecture repeated in some other church. Numbers were deterred from attending, thinking that the house would be overcrowded. And we are confident that our citizens who have not heard it, would be delighted, and, indeed those that did listen to the gushing eloquence of the learned and distinguished gentleman, and so well pleased there, they also would be much gratified to hear it repeated. We hope the Committee, with their untiring Secretary, will attend to this matter.

IRISH RELIEF.—The following relief produce was shipped yesterday by our worthy friend M. Allen, Esq., by Whightana Line, 540 bags of corn, and 360 bags by Bingham's Line, in all about 1900 bushels.

The Committee, through Mr. Kerr, acknowledge the receipt of 403 sacks, about 870 bushels, from New Castle. This is doing business in good style. The western country is now going ahead of the eastern portion of our State.

[COMMUNICATED.]

PITTSBURGH, May 12, 1847.

Mr. Editor:—In passing the market house this evening, about 10 o'clock, my attention was attracted by one of the Native American speakers. I stopped to listen, thinking that I might hear something new, and I was not mistaken. He was then giving his hearers a history of that party, and among other things he said, that the women of this country should be protected; for, said he, when there was only thirteen men of that party, the women came out in mass and declared that the Bible should not be taken from the American children by foreigners. Now whether this declaration about the women has any thing to do with party politics, I will leave for others to determine, admitting that such a thing did occur; but every man of common sense knows it to be a wilful and downright lie. I would like to know whether it was a foreign move, in turning the Catholic, Jews and Universalist children out of the Jane st. school of Philadelphia, and in other schools of that city, when they would read the Holy Bible for the Catholics, they would read about the Beast, the Pope of Rome, the man of sin; for the Universalist, hell fire and damnation; and the Jews, they would compel to read the New Testament—a book that they did not believe in. Now, sir, what I would like to know of the Natives is, whether they consider those acts foreign moves or foreign influence?

X.

☞ The above communication comes to us from a lady.

☞ English papers state that the great docks of Birkenhead were opened on the 5th ult., when not less than 50,000 persons were present to witness the ceremonies. The American ship ONDOOON was the first to enter the docks, and the occasion was made one of great good feeling. "Lord Morpeth made a speech, in which he highly complimented the Americans, concluding by saying that he hoped these docks, extensive as they were, would not afford more than room enough for the corn, the cotton, and the forest products of the Western world, and trusted that by their completion a new link had been added to "that chain of amity which ought to bind England and America."

☞ The New Haven Herald tells a curious story of a cat in that city, who took an especial fancy to the nest of a hen, in which to attend to her young kittens. He says there is no disturbance between them whatever; as the cat leaves the nest whenever the hen wants it, and then goes to her young ones when the hen leaves it. A strange family!

☞ At a late horticultural exhibition in Paris, one specimen of the Spirea Prunifolia, which, though a very rare plant, is said not to be particularly brilliant, was bought by M. Souchet, for the sum of 10,000 francs.

SECRETARY WALKER.—We regret to learn from the Washington Union that Secretary WALKER is sick at present, "caused by the unwearied attention he has given for the past two years to the laborious duties of his office."

☞ No news by Telegraph last night. No news by the western mails.

Virginia Election.

We learn from the Lynchburgh Virginian of the 10th, that Babcock, (dem.) is elected to Congress in that district, by a majority of two votes over Irving. Our readers will remember that our telegraphic despatch a few mornings since, declared that Irving was elected. In the Wythe district Col. M'Mullen (dem.) is certainly elected over his federal opponent, but the majority is small.

IMPORTANT IF TRUE.—The Baltimore Sun of Thursday says "By a dispatch from a reliable source in Washington, received at 10 o'clock last night, we have the information that a rumor was current, and generally believed in that city, that the President and Cabinet had decided on calling an extra session of Congress, and that the Union would contain the official announcement. The Union had not gone to press when the Telegraph office closed, consequently we have nothing positive on the subject." There are so many rumors sent abroad from Washington by gossiping letter writers, that we are very much disposed to doubt the truth of the above.

☞ The Britannia sailed from England on the 4th inst., and is expected to arrive next week.

Sympathy for Ireland.

The following description is given by one who is said to have been an eye-witness at Rome, of the feeling manifested there for the suffering Irish. Thank Heaven! true charity is not confined to a country or to a sect; and yet who ought to feel more deeply for Ireland than those of Italy:—

"At the conclusion of the Padre Ventura's sermon, at Rome, in favor of the distressed Irish—which was a master-piece of sacred eloquence—notwithstanding the present distressed state of the Roman people, when the collections commenced, a sympathy impossible to describe was manifested throughout the assembled multitude, each vied with the other in contributing. The poorest gave the most liberally; and the very beggars, with tears in their eyes, gave the alms received into the hands of the collectors. Many, who had no money to give supplied some other oblation. Some individuals gave their gold seals, or deprived themselves of their watches; even gold ones were freely given. Some poor priests took the silver buckles from their shoes; and several females, not satisfied with their pecuniary offering, despoiled themselves of rings, brooches, earrings, bracelets, to swell the collections for their suffering brethren in Ireland. A number of medals, the prizes won by victors from every part of the globe—from Lapland to the Cape of Good Hope, from the Shannon to the Ganges, in many a hard fought literary and scientific contest, were also given—a valuable and expressive tribute of the genius of every country to the land whose hospitable halls, in times of yore, were open to the students of every clime."

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.

The Rev. Dr. Cox, of Brooklyn, N. Y. will preach in the Third Presbyterian Church, to-morrow morning, at 10 o'clock. He will deliver a discourse at the same place, at 3 o'clock, P. M. on the Objects and Prospects of the Evangelical Alliance, held in London. He will also preach to-morrow evening in the 5th Presbyterian Church, on Smithfield street. my15
