RIVER NEWS.

At Louisville, on the 22d inst., there were six feet of water in the channel.

☞ The steamer Algoma, which arrived at St. Louis on the 18th, brought down 30 tons of machinery, &c., saved from the wreck of the Saluda. Her furniture and the greater part of her cargo and machinery has been saved; but the boat will prove a loss.

☞ The steamer Lehigh broke a shaft on the 17th inst., a short distance above St. Louis.

☞ The St. Louis Era reports the steamer War Eagle hard aground on Lower Rapids, and Bon Accord in the same conditiou on the Upper Chain. The Planter is also reported hard aground in the river below, at Turkey Island.

The officers of the Revenue Cutter, down from Galena, report the Upper Mississippi river falling rapidly, with but 26 inches water on the Lower Rapids.

☞ We understand that the steamer Anthony Wayne was sold yesterday for thirteen thousand dollars. She was purchased by Capt. Rogers; we did not learn in what trade she is intended to run. [St. Louis Union, 19th.

☞ The Hibernia No. 2, bound up, and the New England No. 2, on her way down, came in contact at the head of Four Mile bar, about 12 o'clock, Thursday, by which some little damage was sustained.

Daily Review of the Markets.

OFFICE OF THE POST,

FLOUR—Yesterday morning sales were made at $6,37½ ℔ bbl. At noon there was a slight decline in prices, and sales at $6,25 ℔ bbl. Towards evening there was a still further decline, and most of the sales were at $6,00 ℔ bbl. At this price about 1200 bbls. changed hands.

TELEGRAPHED FOR THE POST.

PHILADELPHIA MARKET.
May 26, 8 o'clock, P. M.

FLOUR—The indisposition of buyers to come forward at the prices asked yesterday for Flour was not visible to-day. The very light stock in the market has had some effect. To-day they took 2000 bbls. standard brands at $6 ℔ bbl. Supplies will soon be coming forward and partly from New York, where purchases have been made on Philadelphia account.

WHEAT—Sales 3000 bu. Wheat to-day at $2,05 for prime samples of Red, and $2,08@2,12 ℔ bu. for White.

CORN—Sales 2000 bu. White at $1,13@1,14, and Yellow at $1,16@1,16.

RYE FLOUR—Sales to-day 500 bbls. at $6,50 ℔ bbl. 300 bbls. at $6,75.

OATS—Selling readily at 56@61c. ℔ bu. as in quality.

CORNMEAL—A shade better, and sales at $3,31½@3,43¾ per bbl.

WHISKEY—Holders have obtained a further advance. Sales at 37c. per gal.

PROVISIONS—The transactions of the day show no change. Pork and Beef are both dull and meet with little inquiry. There is a better demand, however, for Bacon at former prices, which have not varied. Some new Pork changed hands at $16,50@14,50 for Mess and Prime. Sales 30 bbls. Bacon at 10c. for Hams, 9@9½ for Sides, and 8c. for Shoulders. A few sales Lard at 9½@10c.

SUGAR—Market is heavy, and sales small—prices are barely supported. First hands hold a large stock.

MOLASSES—The inquiry is small and the market quite dull.

COTTON—There is more demand for Cotton, and sales 500 bales Upland to-day at 12¾@13¼c., usual terms.

NEW YORK MARKET.
May 25, 7 o'clock, P. M.

FLOUR—The demand for Flour is quite active—in fact, it may be characterized as very heavy. The receipts are light and not near equal to the demand. The effect is to create and sustain a buoyant market. The sales of Gennessee to-day were 9000 lbs. at $8 75@$8 87½. Some of the sales were for shipment to Philadelphia. Buyers are in market, endeavoring to contract for future delivery. Large offers of $7 62½ for July were peremptorily refused; $8 for August has been accepted to some extent. Of southern sales at $9,-25 per bbl. The market closes firm, the sales being at the outside figure.

CORN—There have been sales to-day to a considerable extent at $1 12 for prime white and $1,-15 for yellow, of similar quality.

RYE FLOUR—has gone up still further; sales to-day at $7 25@$7 31½ per bbl.

CORN MEAL—Moderate sales at $5 25 per bbl.

RYE—has advanced; sales to-day at $1 48@$1 52 per bus.

☞ We received nothing from Baltimore last night.

GREAT ITALIAN REMEDY.

PHILADELPHIA, April 26, 1846.

Being afflicted for some 8 years with that most distressing disease, the asthma, and for the last 3 years much of the time confined to my room, and at several different times my life was despaired of; I concluded to obtain some of Mazzoni's Sicilian Syrup, which was recommended to me by a friend from New York, who stated that it had cured some of the most inveterate cases known to the medical profession. Suffice it to say, that, after using the above medicine for about 4 weeks, I was entirely relieved, and I believe radically cured. Yours with respect,

OLIVER W. OWEN,
No 175 Bertram st., Philad'a.

Hays & Brockway, Wholesale and Retail Agents; see advertisement. feb23

CHRISTIE'S Galvanic Remedies for all kinds of nervous affections they have been used with entire success in all cases of Rheumatism; acute or chronic, applying to the head, face or limbs; gout; tic doloreux, bronchitis, vertigo, nervous or sick headache, indigestion, paralysis; palsy, epilepsy, fits, convulsions, cramp, palpitation of the heart, neuralgia, general debility, &c. In cases of dyspepsia which is simply a nervous derangement of the digestive organs—they have been found equally successful.

These applications are in the form of Rings and Magnetic Fluid, Bands, Bracelets, Belts, &c.

For sale at the only agency, 57 Market street.

☞ WHOOPING COUGH.—Messrs Editors—I observed some time ago a communication over the signature for "A Parent," stating that Dr. Jayne's Indian Expectorant had been the means of saving the lives of three of his children, who were suffering severely with whooping cough; and having, but a short time before, lost one of my children by that dreadful complaint, and having another, and my only child, suffering the greatest agony with the same disease, and in hourly expectation of its death, I was induced to purchase a bottle of it, and commenced using it according to the directions—and to the surprise of all it began to mend in fifteen minutes after we commenced using it, and the child has now completely recovered.

I have no acquaintance with Dr. Jayne, but I hereby return him a husband's and a father's grateful acknowledgments.

J. L. SIMPKINS.

Philadelphia, April 22d, 1846.

Jayne's Hair Tonic.—We commend to the attention of those desirous of restoring their hair or improving its beauty, to this elegant preparation We hear it every where highly spoken of, and especially by all who have made use of it, as greatly efficacious in stimulating the growth of the hair, and preventing and curing many affections of the skin. Its virtues are amply and sufficiently proved.—N. Y. Sun.

COME, list to the lay of Keevil's cheap Hats, They will wear for two years, and then good at that,

Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
He sells for two-thirds of the price that is paid.
For the very same hats by the rest of the trade;
Of the very best stuff they are tastily made;
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter!

One of the finest and best he a candidate sold,
Was the cause of his being elected, I'm told;

Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
Its beauty won for him a wife, it is said,
Who declared to her husband, soon after she wed,
She was far more in love with the Hat than the head;
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter!

That man, when he went into Congress, I'm told,
Was the wonder of all who the Hat did behold;

Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
And he made a great speech upon this and on that,
And his fame was the theme of the wise and the flat,
But 't was all brought about by the wonderful Hat;
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter!

This congressman soon celebrated his name,
And the Hat was the cause of his wonderful fame;

Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
In his Hat, not his head, were his talents combin'd,
For his speeches he there any moument could find;
'Twas a cabinet made for his wonderful mind;
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter!

That hat was more useful to him than his head,
For he stowed away in it far more, it is said;

Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
'Twas a library, where he his speeches display'd;
'Twas a post office, where all his letters were laid;
'Twas a box for cigars, and a great deal of trade;
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter!

That Hat was a shield, and an umbrella too,
No cut from a club, and no rain could drive thro',

Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
When the rowdies in Congress made claret to flow,
As the best of men will, for amusement, you know,
That Hat saved his head from a terrible blow;
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter!

'Twas thus, you all see, that Protection began,
The Hat first protected the head of the man,

Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
But the Hatters all persecute Keevil, you know;
'Tis because they can never sell hats so low,
And in doing of business he's now "all the go;"
Success to friend Keevil the Hatter!

The jealous may joke, and may rail at his name,
But the faster he'll rise on the record of fame,

Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
For the people are not to their interest blind,
They will buy where the cheapest and best they can find,
And these qualities both in his Hats are combin'd;
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter!

Do you know why he's able to undersell all?
He makes them himself, and his profits are small,

Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
Not two or three profits his Hats ever bear,
A Hat that is sold at four dollars elsewhere,
He will sell for three fifty, and that's very fair;
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter!

Then come all, who would find good and cheap, too,
'Tis in WOOD STREET, number one fifty-two,

Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
Come buy a cheap Hat as was ever yet made,
Far cheaper than now can be sold by the trade,
For they "can't come" the duty that Keevil has laid;
Success to friend Keevil, the Hatter!

They may rail at his prices, and ridicule more;
But they'll find that the people will flock to his store,

Three cheers for friend Keevil, the Hatter!
His fame is fast spreading the country around,
And his profits, though small, are becoming profound;
And his Hats are in currency solid and sound;

Then buy of A. KEEVIL, the Hatter!
