LOCAL MATTERS.

THE POST OFFICE.—This establishment will be closed to day after ten o'clock, A. M.

THE CIRCUS.—We never before witnessed such a mass of human beings in a pavilion, as we looked upon on Saturday. We understand that the doors were closed upon hundreds—perhaps thousands—before the grand entree. The ladies' side presented a very beautiful appearance. This alone was worth the price of admission. The performances gave the audience satisfaction. Mr. M'Farland was to us, "the feature of the show." We doubt whether he is excelled by any one now in existence. That performance on the wire was great.

There will be four performances this day and evening. Young and old will have ample opportunity of attending.

CELEBRATION.—The Rechabite Division of the Sons of Temperance, of Freeport. Armstrong county, Pa., celebrated the anniversary of American Independence, on Saturday, the 3d instant, in their village, in an appropriate manner. They were visited by a large number of the members of the Order from Pittsburgh, Kittanning, Butler, Leechburgh, Birmingham, Temperanceville, and other places. They were eloquently and appropriately addressed by N. P. Fetterman, of Beaver. Every thing went off in good style, and nothing happened to mar the prospect and universal happiness of those interested. We will give a more full and lengthened notice, so soon as the necessary information can be arranged.

REFRESHMENTS.—Great preparations have been made for those who can and will afford to indulge in ice creams, raspberries and cream, beverages, &c., &c. Hunker, Fifth street, has branched out extensively, and will be able and willing to do a great business; and we know that his friends have a disposition to patronize him. Bennett, who keeps the coolest and most pleasant rooms in the city, has prepared for the reception of his friends, who will receive a kind greeting. Then there is Andrews; he has said what he intends to do, and will fulfill his promises to the letter. There are others—almost too numerous to mention—who have claims and deserve success, and we doubt not will win it too. Mr. Dossett, who has a new establishment in the Fifth ward, serves up most delicious refreshments in a well furnished saloon. The good people of his neighborhood will not pass his door.

PILFERING.—A man called at Christy's Hotel, St. Clair street, on Saturday, and asked for lodging; stating that he wished to leave early in the morning, and paid his bill. When morning came, he was among the missing; but left a bundle of old clothes, which he disdained to carry with him. The boarders on feeling into their pockets, found them minus of several sums of money, which in the aggregate amounted to about $120. The thief cannot be described by any one in the house; so that he will probably escape justice.

CLAIRVOYANCE.—This afternoon, Mr. Loomis will exhibit at the Odeon, the wonderful experiments in Human Magnetism, which have gained for him so much notoriety throughout the country. In order that all may have an opportunity of seeing for themselves, he has put the price of admission at 12½ cents, which will not more than cover expenses.

THE MILITARY will not be out to-day. Reason? Those who had spunk went to Mexico; those who are at home have heard too much about "holiday soldiers." On the next Fourth we hope to see the Grays, the Blues and the Greens out in their full strength, with officers and privates all alive and in the ranks, as when they left us. We dare say that they are all celebrating the Day in grand style in the enemy's country—perhaps in the Halls of the Montezumas.

☞ The Rev. Mr. Winans will lecture on Anti-Slavery, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, in the Wesleyan meeting house, corner of Middle Alley, south of the North Common, and west of Federal street, Allegheny city; immediately after which an Anti-Slavery Society will be formed.

TEMPLE OF HONOR.—We are informed that a charter for "Bouquet Temple of Honor, No. 41," of the Order of the Sons of Temperance, has been granted to a number of persons who are desirous of uniting still firmer their fraternal relations.

It will be regularly installed in a few days, of which we will give due notice.

HOWITT'S JOURNAL.—We are indebted to our friend Fleming, for this great English work. A perusal gives one hope of those "good days coming," to which so many noble spirits aspire. We think those progressive publications of the old world, should be more extensively read in this country. What Democrat does not feel an interest in the evidence of social and political improvement, which such works as the above afford us?

OYER AND TERMINER.—The case of Miller, for Burglary, was ended on Friday night. The Court received the verdict of the Jury, about 9 o'clock, on that night. It was—Not Guilty. He will probably be sentenced on the other indictment this week.

Court adjourned till to-morrow morning.

ARRIVED.—Lieut. Ankrim, Chas. Glenn and Hambright, of the First Pennsylvania Regiment arrived yesterday.

FIRE.—There was a light somewhere on Saturday night, which caused an alarm.

☞ There was a small conflagration in the Circus on Saturday night. A fellow put a lighted cigar into his coat pocket, which came near taking off his own clothes; but was extinguished only with the loss of his coat tail.

Goon.—There were only two customers in the lock up on yesterday morning!

STOP THAT HORSE—$30 REWARD.
A MAN who called himself John Gardner, came to the Livery stable of the subscriber, on Front street, on Wednesday morning last, June 23d, and hired a horse and saddle for half a day, stating that he wished to ride out a few miles beyond East Liberty and that he would return by the middle of the day. Since then I have not heard of the man, or the horse, and must conclude that Gardner does not intend to act he part of an honest man. Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam.
WOBURN, SEPTEMBER 18, 1844.
MY child was afflicted with a bad cough from its birth, which continued to grow worse till the year 1840, when she was six years old. At the time we had given her over. I had written to my friends that I thought she could not recover. She had taken various medicines under the direction of a physician, with no great benefit. Having heard that the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam had been recommended in another case by a distinguished physician of Boston, I was induced to purchase a bottle. The good effects were immediate on using it. Her recovery was speedy, and I attribute the preservation of her life to the use of this valuable preparation.
