LOCAL MATTERS.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS.—Pittsburgh will soon be amply supplied with public rooms and buildings. We have already the Philo Hall, the Odeon, many splendid saloons, and other places for the accommodation, amusement and instruction of the people. We have now to add another, noticed some weeks ago, which will soon be finished. It is not in the most convenient part of the city, yet the advantages and excellencies of the building will attract large crowds. We refer to the Atheneum, owned by Mr. M'Clurg. We find in the Gazette the best description of it, which we transfer to our columns:

The establishment occupies the second and third stories of the building, the entrance being on the corner of Liberty street and Strawberry alley. On the second floor of the building is the large Atheneum Saloon, the Atheneum Lyceum and Reading Room, and a large number of lady's and gentlemen's Bath rooms, and a lady's Fatigue Parlor and Drawing Room. To the bath rooms there are two entrances at each extreme end of the building—one for the ladies, the other for the gentlemen. On the third story of the building is found the great Atheneum Musical Hall, perhaps the largest in the Western country. This Hall is intended for public assemblies, concerts, lectures, &c., for which it is admirably adapted, being spacious and well ventilated, and having three grand entrances leading to it. Adjacent to the Musical Hall is a Refreshment room, belonging to the Saloon below, from which it is intended to serve the company in their seats with ice creams and other delicacies, at such times—during intermissions in concerts, &c.—as they may not have time to leave the room to partake of refreshments in the Saloon below. The Saloons are to be under the superintendence of an efficient company, and the baths are to be under the direction of Dr. M. R. Delany, who is eminently qualified for the task. The Lyceum and Reading Rooms, we are informed, are to be under the direction of the Merchants, Manufacturers and Artizans of Pittsburgh. The Musical Hall is expected to be under the control of Mr. Bingham, Principal of the Pittsburgh Musical Academy. The whole of the extensive establishment is to be fitted up and conducted in the very best style, so as to make it one of the most agreeable places of resort in the city.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS—July 12th—Present, Judges PATTON, PORTER and KERR.

Court met pursuant to adjournment. The day was consumed on the argument of cases in the Common Pleas, till 2 o'clock, P. M. The Court, after recess of an hour, disposed of motions for new trials, and passsd sentences in the following cases:

Commonwealth vs. John and James Torrence—Indictment, Forcible Entry and Detainer. Motion for a new trial argued and overruled. Sentence on Saturday.

Commonwealth vs. John Landfear and John Bradley—Convicted for Larceny; motion for a new trial overruled, and the Court sentenced each of the Defendants to pay a fine of 6 cents, and undergo imprisonment in the Penitentiary for one year.

Commonwealth vs. August W. Copp—Convicted of the larceny of a watch; petit larceny. Sentenced to pay a fine of 6 cents, and undergo three months' imprisonment in the county jail.

The motion for a new trial in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Miller, will be argued by the Defendant in propria persona.

Adjourned till 8 o'clock this morning.

☞ The Wheeling Argus makes a great fuss about an accident which happened to the steamboat Financier, on going down the river last week.—The accident was such a one as might have occurred under any other circumstances, and at any other point in the river. She had government stores on board, it is true; but Capt. Birmingham, the vigilant Assistant Quartermaster here, at once went down on another boat, and despatched her cargo as soon as it could be removed from the Financier. We have his authority for saying that her cargo was on its way down the river before the article in the Argus appeared; and the Financier is again lying at the levee here, ready for another trip.

MR. EMMET.—The destruction of this building was caused by a stove pipe!! The furniture was saved. The American says that Mr. Sweeny was insured in the American company's office for $3000.

☞ Kane & Roberts have some high priced bedsteads, but not dear ones, in our opinion; yet Cincinnati goes ahead—$500 is the price of the best article of the kind manufactured in that city. Persons who wish to sleep sweetly, free from the pains of night mare &c. need not buy one; one that can be had without the "00"s will do just as well.

☞ This is the time of year for sickness. People cannot be too careful of themselves and neighbors. Let all bathe every morning, with a basin of water and a sponge, if they can afford no more convenient fixings. Cheat the doctors.

☞ We hear some talk of the organization of a Dramatic Company, during the recess of the Theatre, that will perform in some of the gardens in or near the city. It might take for a few weeks.

PUBLIC LIBRARY.—We understand that some person made a mistake in the call for a meeting to organize a Library Society. It should have been called for Thursday afternoon next, instead of yesterday. We hope there will be a good attendance on Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

☞ The Wharf Constable arrested a boy yesterday for swimming near the second pier. Ald. M'Masters—Mayor pro tem—decided that the officer had no right to make an arrest for an offence committed beyond low-water mark; so the boy escaped.

WHITE'S BAND, mounted on their new and magnificent wagon, passed through our principal streets yesterday ebening, discorsing most eloquent music at the corners. We think our city can boast a band equal to the much lauded Cendall's; but, as we are not scientific musicians, we cannot risk an opinion.

MAYOR ADAMS has taken a trip to Washington, Pa. Ald. M'Masters officiates during his absence.

☞ A. A. Addams, and the Shaker family are at the Cincinnati Athenæum.

☞ Christy's Minstrels are in Cleveland.

☞ The Dispatch made its appearance yesterday morning with a new head; and a pretty one it is, too. The paper will be enlarged in a few days.

☞ The Gazette has in that our good friend Isaac Harris keeps an Auction store. This will be news to the patrons of Mr. H.

CLOTHING! CLOTHING!! CLOTHING!!!
The Three Big Doors vs. The Western World!!!
150,000 WELL SELECTED GARMENTS
NOW made and ready to be offered on the most liberal terms to my old customers and the public in general. The Proprietor of this far famed and extensive establishment has now, after returning from the Eastern cities, at much trouble and expense, just completed his fall and winter arrangements to supply his thousands of customers with one of the most desirable stocks of Clothing that has ever been offered in this or any other market west of the mountains. For neatness in style and workmanship, combined with the very low price which they will be sold for, must certainly render the old unrivalled Three Big Doors one of the greatest attractions in the western country. It is gratifying to me to be able to announce to my numerous friends at home and abroad, that notwithstanding the extraordinary efforts which I have made to meet the many calls in my line, it is with difficulty I can keep time with the constant rush that is made on this popular establishment. It is a well established fact, that my sales are eight or ten times larger than any other house in the trade, and this being the case on the amount sold, I can afford to sell at much less profit than others could possibly think of doing if they wished to cover contingent expenses. I intend to make a clean sweep of all my present stock before the beginning of next year; coming to this conclusion, I will make it the interest of every man, who wants a cheap winter suit, to call and purchase at the Three Big Doors.

Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam.
WOMENS, SPRINGS PA, 1844.

MY child was afflicted with a bad cough from its birth, which continued to grow worse till the year 1839, when she was consumed. At the time we had taken per force. I had written to my friends that I thought she could not recover. She had taken various medicines under the direction of a physician, with no great benefit. Having heard that the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam had been recommended in another case by a distinguished physician of Boston, I was induced to purchase a bottle. The good effects were immediate on using it. Her recovery was speedy, and I attribute the preservation of her life to the use of this valuable preparation.
