Our Weekly Sheet,

For to-morrow, is a highly interesting one. In addition to all the most important Foreign News, Intelligence from the Army, Domestic News, Editorials, Markets, &c.; we give Original Poetry; "The Boquet of Magnolia," a highly interesting Tale, translated from the French expressly for our paper; and much other useful and interesting matter. Single copies may be had, either with or without wrappers, for 5 cents. Subscription price, $2 a year in advance.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

The fiscal year of "THE DAILY MORNING POST," and "WEEKLY MERCURY AND MANUFACTURER," expires on the 21st instant. The bills for these publications, as well as for advertising and job printing, are now made out, and are in the hands of our agents for collection. We hope our friends will meet them promptly. We have labored faithfully during the past year, and trust our course has met the approbation of the true-hearted Democracy of Allegheny county. The bills are all made out according to our advance terms, which will be a great saving to our subscribers.—We are much in need of money at present, to meet our engagements, and as this is the first appeal we have made to our patrons, it is to be hoped they will respond to it cheerfully and satisfactorily.

DESPATCHES.

BY ELECTRIC TELEGRAPH.

EXPRESSLY FOR THE MORNING POST.

From Mexico.

PHILADELPHIA, JUNE 15th, 9h. 45m. P. M.

By the arrival of the steam ship Alabama from Vera Cruz, the New Orleans Picayune has advices from the city of Mexico to the 29th June, and from Puebla to the 30th.

Gen. Scott was at Puebla, awaiting the reinforcements under Generals Cannwallader and Pillow.

Gen. Cadwallader was at Perote about the 20th, awaiting the arrival of Gen Pillow.

The news from Mexico was rather indefinite.—Gen. Scott had communicated with them, and said Mr. Trist was with him, and was authorized to negotiate for peace.

Santa Anna had vainly endeavored to obtain a quorum of the Mexican Congress to consider the communication of Gen. Scott and it was supposed he would march into the city and secure a peace.

Owing to the strict censorship over the press, it was impossible to obtain a correct knowledge of the contemplated Mexican plans of defence. It was, however, understood that Santa Anna would leave the capital about the 3d inst., to assume the command of the Mexican forces. Every avenue to the capital was said to be fortified; but the success of our army was not doubted.

If was said that Gen. Pillow had to contest the entire route with the Guerillas, until he passed Cerro Gorda, where they took advantage of a defile to impede his progress, and where his loss was severe.

The Government of Puebla had been entrusted to Col. Belton, of the 3d Artillery.

Alvarez was at Jalisco, on the 14th June, at the head of 300 Mexican cavalry.

The American Star, at Puebla, says that there are three months' provisions at that place; and that the army obtain an abundance of forage from the fields around.

A Mexican had been detected by his countrymen on the way from the capital to Puebla, with drawings of the different fortifications around the capital. He was tried, and condemned, but escaped.

The Mexicans had used every means to induce our men to desert, and such as had done so were treated by them in a most shameful manner.

On Sunday, the 20th, a party of Americans, not connected with the army, and at a hacienda on the Mexican road, (where they had purchased some mules,) they encountered a party of Lancers.—They could not escape them, and were compelled to fight. All the Americans were wounded; one was kiled; and three are supposed to have been taken prisoners.

A letter in the American Star says that the Americans who had been imprisoned in Mexico were at liberty; and no one had-molested them. The writer states that he sees Major Gaines daily; that Gen. Urrea had ordered all Americans to leave the Mexican territory; but that this order did not extend to them.

It was more generally believed, however, that, though Gaines and Borland may be at liberty, the rest have been reincarcerated at Santiago.

The prefect of Puebla had recently decamped for Mexico, taking with him all the funds of the city.

The expedition of Com Perry against Tobasco, had been entirely successful.

A rumor was current at Vera Cruz, on the morning of the 1st, that Gen. Scott had entered the Capital; and that Gen. Pillow had been captured by the Guerillas. The former, however, was believed to be false; and no credit was given to the latter.

Exchanges.

No better proof of the prosperity of our country, and of the West in particular, can be presented, than the state of our domestic exchanges at the present time. On looking over the tables in the papers of New York, St. Louis and New Orleans—the great depots for our European and Western trade,—we find that exchanges on the Eastern cities range at ¼ to 1 per cent. discount, for sight bills; and we well remember, a few years since, that a bill at sight on New York could not be had in Cincinnati for less than 2½@3 per cent. premium; and in the Eastern cities, bills on New Orleans were at a considerable discount. Now a bill is drawn in St. Louis on New York at ¼ per cent. discount, and one in New Orleans commands ½ per cent. premium on New York. Then the West was largely indebted to the East. Millions of dollars had been borrowed, to invest in wild schemes of speculation; and all her surplus produce, which could be sent to market, was required to meet the demands against her. Now a more desirable state of things exists. Western men find a better market for their produce; an immensely greater amount has been sold; they have purchased what they wanted; and leave their money among the eastern merchants, who can give them a better rate of interest for it than they would be able to get at home. The ruinous Independent Treasury has had its full share in producing this result.

DAILY REVIEW OF THE MARKETS.

OFFICE THE POST,
FRIDAY MORNING, July 16, 1847.

Our readers must excuse us this week—we cannot give our usual weekly review, on account of a press of business in other directions. There is, however, nothing of importance to report; the week has been very dull in commercial matters—there have been few transactions, and no changes in prices of consequence. The river swelled a few inches on Wednesday. The weather has been very warm, and people seem more disposed to leave the city than to compete with their neighbors in business.

FLOUR—There has been no change for some days. Sales at $4,25 from wagon, from store $4,25.

ASHES—Sales Pearls at 6¾; Scorching and Pots, 4@4¼. Very little doing.

SEEDS—Clover, $5,75; Timothy, $1,45@1,50; Flax, 87c.

RICE—Sales of 2 tierces at 6c.

CHEESE—15 ⅌xs. W. R. sold at 6c.

BACON—Sale 200 ⅌s city cured Hams at 8c.

WINDOW GLASS—Sales 8x10 firm at $3,00.

CORNMEAL—Plenty in market; sales at 45c.

LARD—Market poorly supplied; sales 6@5½c

WHEAT—Dull at 50c.

WOOL—Arrivals slim; no change in prices.

MOLASSES—Very little doing; one small sale at 30c.

SUGAR—Regular sales at 8c.

COFFEE—Regular sales at 8¼@8½ for Rio.

WHISKEY—Raw taken at 21@22, Rectified at 24@25.

ORANGES—Good Oranges are becoming quite scarce in market, and sell readily at $6.00 @ $7,00 per box which is an advance

LEMONS—Are also scarce, and are selling at about the same price as oranges.

EAGLE ICE CREAM SALOON.

HERZ AND SIVORI.

PHILO HALL.

Friday Evening, July 17th.

OWING to the very advanced state of the season, HENRI HERZ, Composer and first Pianoist to the King of the French, and Royal Professor of the Conservatoire of Paris, and CAMILLO SIVORI, the only Pupil of Paganini, will give, previous to their departure for the Canadas,

An only Concert.

C. Sivori will play—
The Silver Bell Concert, by Paganini,
The famous Tremolo, by Le Beriot,
The Prayer of Moses,
Military Air, with variations, by Paganini.
☞ The two last compositions, undoubtedly the greatest and most difficult of Paganini, will be executed

ON A SINGLE STRING,
By B. Sivori.

Henri Herz will play—
Grand Fantasia on Lucia de Lammermoor,
Brilliant Variations on the Puritani,
The Praxa Clerce, (variations di Bravura.
☞ The last Rose of Summer.

The Concert will conclude with the Grand Duett on William Tell, by Herz and Sivori.

The Grand Pianoforte is from Mr. Herz's own factory in Paris, and has been awarded the Grand Golden medal (first degree) by the French government.

C. Savori's violin is the same upon which Paginini played in all his concerts, and has been bequeathed to him by his immortal master.

Mr. Rohbuck will preside at the Pianoforte.

Tickets, one dollar each. To be had at the usual places.

N. B. Two tickets admit one gentleman and two ladies. jy16

Hams and Shoulders.

23 CASKS Bacon, Hams and Shoulders, a prime article just rec'd and for sale by jy16 F. SELLERS.

$10 Reward.

ON Wednesday, the 15th inst., a Pocket Book was lost between Henry Barker's in East Liberty, and the Course, containing upwards of $100, in bank notes. One $10 bill is on the State Bank of Ohio; a $2 bill on Allegheny, one half of which was blackenced with ink; a $3 counterfeit note was also in the book, a piece of which was torn off. Several other notes were in the pocket book, on banks which I do not recollect. The above reward will be given to any person who will leave said pocket book and money in care of Rody Patterson, in Diamond alley, between Wood and Smithfield sts. jy16 2t*
