L. HARPER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

PITTSBURGH:
TUESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 17, 1847.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
FRANCIS R. SHUNK,
OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY.
FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER,
MORRIS LONGSTRETH,
OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY.

SENATE—ALEX. BLACK.
ASSEMBLY—JAMES B. SAWYER,
J. H. M'ELHENNY,
JOSEPH COOPER,
JAMES S. LONG.
TREASURER—JOHN C. DAVITT.
COMMISSIONER—R. DONALDSON.
AUDITOR—EDWARD M'CORKLE.

Baltimore and Ohio Railroad—Alfred Kelley.

There lives in the City of Columbus, Ohio, a man by the name of ALFRED KELLEY, who in his own estimation, is the wisest man who has trod the earth since Solomon "shuffled off this mortal coil." We know him like a book. He is a shrewd, cunning, conceited man, who talks eternally a bout public improvements, but takes care not to advocate a single measure unless it will benefit him self individually, and enhance the value of his already valuable real estate. This, Mr. Kelly is amazingly fond of thrusting his opinions and speculations before the public, through the medium of the newspaper press. We observe that he has recently been corresponding, through the newspapers, with the Hon. Lewis McLane, President of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, in relation to the proposed terminus of said Road at Wheeling, Virginia, and a continuation from thence, through the interior of Ohio (via Columbus, of course,) to Cincinnati and St. Louis. We presume no person would have the least objections to Mr. Kelley exercising his cacoethes scribendi, if he would not trespass on his neighbor's rights; and after making gross misstatements, draw false conclusions therefrom.

We have not any of Mr. Kelley's learned essays before us at this moment from which to quote, but we shall state from memory the substance of his argument. He endeavors to convince Mr. McLane that it will be to the precuniary interest of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road to strike the Ohio river at Wheeling, and continue from thence to Columbus, for two reasons. The first is, that the expense of some 70 miles of road will be saved—second, that all travellers coming up the Ohio river will stop at Wheeling and take the Railroad to Baltimore, at which place they will arrive as quick as they will reach Pittsburgh by water! This is certainly a very plausible argument, to say the least of it. We confess that it would be unanswerable, provided the Baltimore road was actually made to Wheeling, and there was no Railroad from Pittsburgh to either the East or West. But unfortunately for Mr. Kelley, in his desire to injure Pittsburgh, he has only given opportunity for us to expose the fallacy of his argument, and completely demolish his whole superstructure.

In the first place, then, the Baltimore Company could reach Pittsburgh by a cheaper and better route than Wheeling. No sensible person will deny this. And it must be obvious, too, that at least three times the amount of business would be done on the road by striking the Ohio river at this point. These are facts too palpable to require argument to sustain them. But we will take it for granted that the Company intend taking the Road to Wheeling, to avoid the competition of the Central Railroad through Pennsylvania, and to secure the travel of the Ohio river.

We shall examine this matter more closely.

The Central Railroad, from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh, will be completed at least a year, perhaps two or three years, before the Baltimore Road reaches Wheeling. The Philadelphians have money and will expend it freely in making this great thoroughfare through Pennsylvania; and Pittsburgers will readily bear their share of the expense.—The Baltimore Company, if not bankrupt, is at least swamped; and it will require all the financiering of Mr. McLane and his friend Kelley to raise means to build another foot of the road, and to do this they will be compelled to mortgage the road, or pledge its profits through all time to the creditors. We presume Wheeling will never be able to raise the $500,000 while she has an existence.

The proposed Railroad from Pittsburgh West to Cincinnati, will be made before the Baltimore road reaches Wheeling, unless it gets into better hands than Mr. McLane and his narrow sighted colleagues. This Western Railroad will bring to Pittsburgh the produce of the rich countries of Columbiana, Stark, Wayne, Ashland, Richland, and twenty others in the great State of Ohio.—That this Western Road will be constructed, and that at an early day, does not admit of a doubt.—If necessary, the people of Ohio will contribute the means without hesitation and without assistance from abroad. They are all deeply interested in its construction, and take a lively interest in the subject. The moment this Railroad is built, all the travel of the West, South and South-west will come over it to Pittsburgh and Philadelphia; and the Baltimore road, with its Wheeling termin us, will be perfectly useless, unless to bring a few bags of coffee occasionally to the little village below us!

Every merchant in the West and South who has business in the Eastern cities, will also have business here. Pittsburgh, from its peculiar position, and unequalled manufacturing facilities, will always manufacture certain articles better and cheaper than any other place West of the mountains—Amongst the articles manufactured here, which are kept in every city, village and country store in the West, may be mentioned Cotton Yarns, Batting, Window Glass and all kinds of Glassware, Bar Iron of all descriptions, Nails and Tacks of all sizes, Spades, Shovels, Forks, &c., &c., &c. There is no other place in the country, where these articles can be manufactured as cheap and as well as in Pittsburgh. Therefore, the Western and Southern merchants will at all events be certain to visit this city, even though the Baltimore road should happen to be taken to Wheeling.

After purchasing here, our western and Southern friends will go direct to Philadelphia, where they can procure goods on as good if not better terms than in Baltimore; and they will then be nearer to the New York and Boston market, which is another important consideration.

Suppose for a moment, that both roads were at this moment completed, the Central Railroad from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh, and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad to Wheeling—still the business men of the mighty west would come to Pittsburgh, for the reasons above stated. There is no inducement—and never will be—for business men to stop at Wheeling. It is a small place, which only does a neighborhood business, and never will be able to compete with Pittsburgh. Her merchants buy many articles here, and of course must have their profits before selling again. Besides all this, steamboats charge no more for carrying freight or passengers from Cincinnati to Pittsburgh than they do from Cincinnati to Wheeling. Wheeling has no commerce of its own, and we presume there are not three steamboats navigating the western waters that are owned there exclusively. The Pittsburgh and other boats occasionally stop there a few moments in passing, just as they stop at Marietta, Steubenville, Wellsville, Beaver and other towns on the Ohio, to put off and take in a small lot of freight and a few passengers.

We have now answered Mr. Kelly's argument in every particular. He and Mr. M'Lane may tax their wits to the utmost, and they will fail most signally in injuring Pittsburgh, or stopping for a moment, its rapid progress in wealth and greatness. In their splenetic efforts to build up rivals for Pittsburgh, they will find in the end that they have only been plotting their own ruin!

☞ We shall attend to the federal papers tomorrow. Our time and space otherwise employed to-day.

RAILROAD TO THE WEST.—A meeting is called at New Lisbon, this day, of those who are friendly to the Great Western Railroad.

A meeting of the citizens of Wooster was held on the 8th inst., at which a Committee was appointed to procure the survey of the route of a Railroad from Wooster to intersect the contemplated Railroad from Pittsburgh to the Ohio Canal.

PROSCRIPTION TALKED OF ALREADY.—The federal party leaders, believing that they will have a majority in the next Congress, have already manifested a determination to remove the present efficient and gentlemanly Clerk of House of Representatives, B. B. FRENCH, Esq. The only sin that is charged against Mr. French is, that he will not bow the idolatrous knee to the base spirit of Federalism! The very men who are advocating the nomination of Gen. Taylor for the Presidency, on the ground that he will do away with all parties and cliques, strange it may appear, are at the head of this movement! We all remember the hypocritical pledges that were made in 1840, that "proscription was to be proscribed," in case they succeeded to power; and as soon as that power was obtained, the guillotine was applied to the neck of every man who was suspected of democracy!—Federal professions and federal practices are widly different things.

THE TEN HOUR SYSTEM.—The Legislature of New Hampshire has passed a law to prohibit the owners of factories from exacting more than ten hours labor each day from persons in their employ. We think this is perfectly right. We have no objections to a man working as long as he pleases each day, and making any arrangement with his employer to that effect he may see proper. But we shall always raise our voice against employers whether manufacturers or not, who compel those in their employ,—delicate females, and helpless little boys and girls—to perform some 12 or 10 hours labor each day; and to take from them hours that were intended by the great Creator for their natural rest.

☞ The Federalists in good old Democratic Westmoreland have actually nominated a county ticket! Wonders will never cease!

ARMSTRONG COUNTY.—Our Democratic friends in Armstrong county have nominated the following ticket, viz:

Assembly—Lewis Brinneiman of Freeport borough.

Treasurer—John Croll, of Kittanning borough.

Commissioners—John Shoop of Kittanning township.

Auditor—Jacob Milliron, of Brady's bend township.

Drowned.—The body of a drowned man was found in the Ohio river, on the 8th instant, five miles above Augusta, Ky. From an honorable dicharge found on his person, it appears that his name is John Tucker, and that he had been a private in Company B, 4th Regiment, U. S. Infantry; and that he was a shoemaker by trade. We have been informed that he was drowned near Maysville, from off the steamer Pacific, on her last trip up to Pittsburgh. He was from M'Keesport, where, we learn, his family resides.—Cin. Eng. Aug. 14.

Astronomical.—The Comet, discovered by a Board of Cambridge, and as it now seems, previously discovered in Europe, can be seen with very moderate telescopic power. Every body knows the dipper" in the Great Bear, two of the four stars composing it being "The Pointers." At 10 o'clock in the evening cast a glance from the dipper towards the Pole star, and two stars of the thir l magnitude will be seen, which are in the tail of the Dragon, and a little above it to the left of the upper star, Kappa Draconis, the Comet will be easily found. It has a short, scrubby tail, extending upwards, and rather towards the right hand.

Coal.—In Cincinnati there was received during five days, 620,000 bushels of coal. As steam-mills, foundries, furnaces, factories and population increase, the demand for fuel will become greater in the west, and the coal beds in this vicinity, both in Illinois and Missouri, will be extensively worked. The coal trade of Pittsburgh, and especially of Pennsylvania, is one of the best sources of wealth in this country; and at some future day, the inexhaustible mines of this neighborhood will give new prosperity to this region.—St. Louis Union.

GREAT ITALIAN REMEDY.

PHILADELPHIA, April 26, 1846.

Being afflicted for some 8 years with that most listressing disease, the asthma, and for the last 1 years much of the time confined to my room, and at several different times my life was despaired of; I concluded to obtain some of Matoni's Sicilian Syrup, which was recommended to me by a friend from New York, who stated that it had cured some of the most inveterate cases known to the medical profession. Suffice it to say, that, after using the above medicine for about 4 weeks, I was entirely relieved, and I believe radically cured. Yours with respect,

OLIVER W. OWEN,

☞ WHOOPING COUGH.—MESSRS Editors—I observed some time ago a communication over the signature for "A Parent," stating that Dr. Jayne's Indian Expectorant had been the means of saving the lives of three of his children, who were suffering severely with whooping cough; and having, but a short time before, lost one of my children by that dreadful complaint, and having another, and my only child, suffering the greatest agony with the same disease, and in hourly expectation of its death, I was induced to purchase a bottle of it, and commenced using it according to the directions—and to the surprise of all it began to mend in fifteen minutes after we commenced using it, and the child has now completely recovered.

I have no acquaintance with Dr. Jayne, but I hereby return him a husband's and a father's grateful acknowledgments.

J. L. SIMPKINS.

Philadelphia, April 22d, 1846.

Jayne's Hair Tonic.—We commend to the attention of those desirous of restoring their hair or improving its beauty, to this elegant preparation. We hear it every where highly spoken of, and especially by all who have made use of it, as greatly efficacious in stimulating the growth of the hair, and preventing and curing many affections of the skin. Its virtues are amply and sufficiently proved.—N. Y. Sun.

LOCAL MATTERS.

THE PARKER TESTIMONIAL.—In pursuance of notice, a number of citizens met at the Monongahela House, on Saturday, the 14th of August. The meeting was organized by calling Capt. E. HARDING, U. S. Army, to the Chair, and appointing the Hon. C. Darragh and Wm. B. Foster, Esq. Secretaries.

On motion of Wilson M'Candless, Esq., it was resolved, that the Chair appoint a committee of five to prepare resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. The Chair appointed Messrs. Wilson M'Candless, Dr. W. H. Denny, John Anderson, C. Darragh, and E. D. Gazzam.

Mr. M'Candless, from the Committee, reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Lieut. Parker, whose death we deplore, has left to his family no inheritance, but an illustrious name. His wife and children are in our midst, and as friends and admirers of the gallant dead, we feel that the best tribute to the memory of the hero who has fallen in the service of our common country, would be care, protection, and provision for those who, while living, were, next to his country, the objects of his devotion and love. Therefore:

1st. Resolved, That an annuity be purchased for the support of the family, and education of the children of Lieut. James Lawrence Parker.

2d. Resolved, That a subscription for the above object be commenced forthwith in this meeting.

3d. Resolved, That Hon. Harmar Denny, Dr. Jos. P. Gazzam, John Shoenberger, Esq., James Ross, Jr., Esq., Andrew Burke, Esq., Col. William Robinson, Jr., and Major John Saunders, be a committee to expend the "Parker Fund" in the purchase of an annuity.

4th. Resolved, That Wilson M'Candless, Esq., James Crossan, John Anderson, Geo. A. Bayard, and Robert M. Riddle, Esqs., Dr. J. M'Clintock, William B. Foster, Sen., J. Williamson Butler, F. G. Kay, and Chas. Knapp, Esqs., be an Executive Committee, to obtain additional subscriptions, and to carry into effect the general objects of this meeting.

5th. Resolved, That Dr. Wm. H. Denny be appointed Treasurer of the Parker Fund.

6th. Resolved, That the letter of Dr. G. Q. Colton, kindly offering a contribution, be referred to the Executive Committee.

LARCENY.—Information was made yesterday before Mayor Adams, by Mrs. Humphrey Jones, Penn street, against a servant woman who has been in her house for some time, for stealing a bracelet, breast pin, and some money, to the value of about $35. After the investigation, the woman was sent up for trial.

We understand that this same woman applied to Ald. Steele, yesterday morning, for the purpose of making information against a person who has passed as her husband, for breaking open her trunk and taking from it a watch.

☞ A lady of the 5th ward, named King, yesterday made information before Ald. Steele, against Capt. Roberts and Mr. Mankney, of the Night Police, for bad treatment, while attempting to arrest her. These guardians of the night will have to take care how they handle the ladies.

LARCENY.—Old Johnny Maxwell is again in Jail, awaiting his trial, for a larceny committed on Saturday. He broke open a trunk belonging to a man named Echart, on Grant street, and took a clarionett and shirt. The music he hid among some weeds, near Bakewell's Glass house; and was about starting down the river on a journey, when Hague seized him.

☞ The Atheneum opened out brilliantly last evening, to a large and very respectable audience. Mr. Foster can boast one of the most splendid Concert Halls in the Union. Such is the opinion of those who were present last evening. We never saw an audience better pleased with a musical entertainment. The Knoops of course give general satisfaction always.

We are gratified in being able to state that they give another Concert this evening. They do not pretend to resist the earnest solicitations of their Pittsburgh friends. We trust that both the Knoops and Mr. Foster may realize something handsome from the Concerts.

EAGLE SALOON.—Mrs. Sharp, Miss Bruce and Mr. Kneass appear again to-night. Let those who have not yet heard these vocalists attend this evening.

Mr. Andrews announces in a Card, which will be found in another part of the paper, that Mrs. Phillips and Mr. Holman will make their first appearance on Thursday evening. Their reputation is sufficient to guarantee full audiences.

BOYD'S HILL LOTS.—Mr. Davis sold about $3,000 worth at the sale on Saturday. The lots, we understand, went off at a fair price; and what is better, the purchasers are men who intend to improve that section of the city by erecting substantial dwellings immediately.

NOT DEAD.—NO FOUL PLAY.—Mr. Wallace, noticed yesterday as having been either killed by accident or by the hand of a murderer, is not yet dead, or was not when last heard from. He received his injury while taking a ride in his buggy.—The vehicle was broken to pieces. His wife started for his lodgings on Sunday.

☞ That was a delightful shower we had yesterday.

☞ Now's the time to make that delightful and most healthy of condiments, tomato catsup. Fine tomatoes are selling low enough for any one.

☞ If any person wishes to go down the river, for business or pleasure, we would recommend the steamer American Eagle, Capt. Atkinson. She leaves this morning.

☞ There was but one case in the Tombs on Monday morning!
