Santa Anna Resigning the Presidency—All quiet at the Capital—Orders of Gen. Quitman—Contemplated Expedition on Toluca—Foreign Prince invited to Mexico.

Richmond, Oct. 31, 8 P. M.

The New Orleans Delta and Commercial have been received. They contain some further interesting details. The latter publishes Santa Anna's Address on the occasion of his resigning the Presidency, which clearly proves that he continues to direct the operations of the scattered portions of the army, which have been collected since the late conflict. He has now 1500 regulars, besides the guerillas.

A rumor reached the Capital from Puebla, on the 27th, that Gen. Paredes, Bustamente, and other influential persons, had invited a Foreign Prince to visit Mexico and settle the difficulties of that country.

The papers of the city of Mexico, dated 38th, say that Gen. Quitman had issued an order on the 25th, notifying all officers of the Mexican army at the Capital, to report themselves immediately to the Inspector General of the American army: and another on the 27th, regulating the value of corn.

American shops, stores, &c. are again opened—the Theatre is crowded to overflowing—contentment begins to reign, and the numerous families, including the softer sex, are seen promenading the streets of the Capital, with perfect confidence and security.

'Lixo y National' states that Gen. Scott had proposed issuing a circular to the citizens of the respective Mexican states, inviting them to send commissioners, clothed with full powers to conclude a peace. Also, that he had projected an expedition of sixteen hundred men against Toluca.

The corporation of Mexico had addressed several proclamations to the inhabitants urging them to peace; and if they did not comply there would be no guarantee for their lives or property.

Fanchon, the Mexican Executive, who was discharged by Pena y Pena, has associated with Pechecca and a General whose name is not mentioned.

It is supposed that Pena would decide to form a cabinet on the 27th.

"WINTER IS COMING."—For the benefit of our lady readers, we quote the following from an exchange:

Flowers in pots will now need protection. Geraniums, Cacti, Camelias and green-house plants of all kinds, should be taken into the house, and placed in a room where there is no fire. They should have air during the day, whenever the temperature is not below the freezing point. Roses, Pomegranates, Pagerstromius, and Fig trees, may remain out of doors a little longer, to harden the wood. Oleanders may be placed in a shed, as it is rather too soon to put them in the cellar for the winter. As soon as the frost has nipped the top of your Dahlias, Tuberoses, Gladiopus, Amaryllis, and Tiger plants, have them taken up carefully, on a dry day, and let them remain during the day in the sun, so as to get rid of any moisture which may be about them previous to laying them by till next season. Take care that the Tuberoses and Tiger Lillies be not placed within the reach of mice, or they will devour them all in a short time.

☞ The New York correspondent of the Baltimore Republican, writing under date of the 17th, says:

The American Institute Fair has done a great business the past week. On Thursday, $1500 were received from visitors, and it is believed that full $20,000 will be taken during the exhibition. This would exceed by $5,000 the receipts of any previous exhibition.

The imports of our port during the past week, exclusive of goods warehoused, amounted to $799,599, and the duties received, to $173,748.

The exports of the past fortnight have amounted to $1,576 356. Those of the past week included 377,410 lbs. cheese, 9686 bbls. flour; 5588 bushels wheat; 4081 bales cotton; 35,070 lbs hams; 255 tierces and 387 bbls. beef and pork; 1081 bbls. meal; 13,909 bushels corn.

The arrivals during the past fortnight have been 48, with 30,58 passengers, and 79 clearances—27,0-5 tons.

ELK COUNTY.—From a letter received in this city, we learn that Shunk's majority in Elk county is 89 and Longstreth's 82 votes. The vote polled in the county was very small.

☞ Mr. COOPER, the distinguished tragedian, was dangerously ill, on Saturday last. It was feared he could not recover.

☞ On the 10th instant, six vessels sailed from New Orleans for Brazos San Jago, Tampico and Vera Cruz, all laden with government stores. The steamship Alabama, left for Tampico and Vera Cruz, on the same day.

☞ We perceive, through our exchanges, that the sale of the Mount Savage Mining Company's Works, near Cumberland, has been postponed until the 11th of November.

Married.

On Thursday evening the 21st inst., by the Rev. Dr. Elliot, Mr. James Miller of this city, to Miss Anna L. D. Smith, of Allegheny city.

"It is the Best Cough Medicine I ever used."

THIS was expressed in our hearing yesterday, by an intelligent gentleman, who had used but about one half of a bottle of Dr. Willard's Oriental Cough Mixture, before he was entirely cured. Come and get a bottle of it, and if the most obstinate cough or cold does not disappear by its use, your money will be refunded. Compounded as it is, of the most effective, though harmless and pleasant remedies, its use for years has not, nor indeed can it, fail to give entire satisfaction.
