The Morning Post.

L. HARPER, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

PITTSBURGH:
WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 2, 1848.

IN THIS PAPER, THE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES, TREATIES, RESOLUTIONS OF CONGRESS, &c., ARE PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

VOICE OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY!

FOR PRESIDENT,

JAMES BUCHANAN,

Subject to the decision of the National Convention.

☞ Several editorials and articles of news have been crowded out by a press of new advertisements.

☞ A call is in circulation for a meeting of the friends of Gen. Scott, to take place in this city, on the 22d inst., provided (of course) the weather is not too cold! Poor delicate whigs!

☞ Generals SHIELDS and QUITMAN have declined partaking of a public dinner in Philadelphia.

☞ The Mississippi Democratic State Convention has nominated an Electoral Ticket, but made no choice of a candidate for the Presidency.

☞ Col. Rhichard M Johnson arrived in Washington City on Saturday last.

From the Washington Union.

National Democratic Convention.

We understand the Democratic members of Congress felt some delicacy in meddling, in the slightest degree, with the National Convention.—But, when they found themselves appealed to upon the time and place of the meeting, by various meetings of the people; and when they found the State Convention of Georgia invoking their imposition, they could not reconcile it to themselves to abstain altogether from expressing some opinion upon the question. They accordingly met and conferred together; and the result is now laid before our readers—being a respectful recommendation to the Democrats of the Union to meet, as of old, according to the usages of their party, at the usual place and time of meeting. In taking this course, they do not pretend to dictate to their fellow-citizens, but most respectfully recommend the former course of the Democratic National Convention to the adoption of their republican brethren. The following is the official account of the proceedings of the meeting of the republicans of both Houses on Monday night:

Democratic National Convention.—Meeting of the Democratic Senators and Members.—At a meeting of the Democratic Senators and members of the House of Representatives, held in the Senate Chamber of the United States, on the evening of the 24th of January, 1848.

Gen. Samuel Houston, Senator from Texas, was called to the chair; and

Mr. Richard Brodhead, of the House of Representatives, from Pennsylvania, appointed Secretary.

Mr. Sevier, of Arkansas, from the joint committee appointed at a previous meeting, reported the following resolution:

Resolved, That it be respectfully recommended to our Democratic friends throughout the Union, to hold the proposed National Convention, for the purpose of nominating candidates for President and Vice President of the United States, at the usual place, to wit: on the 4th Monday of May next, at Baltimore.

Mr Thompson, of Mississippi, moved to strike out Baltimore; which motion, after some discussion, was not agreed to.

Mr. Bradbury, of Maine, moved to strike out the 4th Monday of May, and insert the 4th of July; which motion, after some discussion, was also decided in the negative.

The resolution submitted by Mr. Sevier was then unanimously adopted.

On motion of Mr. Turner, of Illinois, it was

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the officers; and that all the Democratic editors be respectfully requested to publish the same. SAMUEL HOUSTON, Chairman.

RICHARD BRODHEAD, Secretary.

Death from a Slight Cold.—By neglecting those salutary precautions which common sense dictates, many, very many, fall victims to their imprudence. We have seen the young bride, blooming as it were, as the bird of paradise and the fair flowers of hope, the pride of her father and the joy of her mother—her cheek flushed with anticipation, and her eye beaming with the soft expression of love—the gay dreams of life dancing on her fancy with the rich and varigated tints of the rainbow's promise. We have seen all this changed—aye, the wedding garment for a shroud and the bridal chamber for the sepulchre of the dead; and all this from neglecting a common COLD. Now, before it is too late, use DR. ROGERS' LIVERWORT AND TAR, which gives immediate relief as thousands of our most intelligent families now admit of its most extraordinary cures. The gay, the beautiful and the young speak forth its praise, and will, so long as it makes positive cures, and cheers the desponding family fireside.

For sale by Spaulding & Kneeland, Grant street, one door below 2d. Also, by J. Kidd & Co., corner of 4th and Wood sts feb2

☞ Let every one who is in need of some such Medicine as Sarsaparilla, and who wishes a good preparation, put up in generous sized bottles at one dollar each, read the advertisement in another column, of DOCTOR WOOD'S SARSAPARILLA AND WILD CHERRY, a compound of two of the most valuable medicines in the Materia Medica. As a tonic for General Debility, Dyspepsia, &c. we may safely say it is an excellent preparation.

Sold at the HEALTH DEPOT, Smithfield, between 3d and 4th streets, Pittsburgh, Pa.

LOCAL MATTERS.

MESMERISM.—We don't know what confirmed sceptics may say now, but those who are liberal enough to listen to new truths and new things generally, (new humbugs, too, if you please,) are convinced that Mr. Spencer has practiced no deception. Mr. Scott, whose character has been vouched for by too many respectable and disinterested citizens to give room for doubt as to his integrity in this matter, was present, and was again thrown into the mesmeric state. His recollection was restored in a moment; almost! We would doubt all this if we could, but we can't We must believe what is made palpable to the senses. We have no means of applying a higher test

The other experiments of Mr. S., on Monday evening, were equally astounding to unbelievers. He succeeded in influencing a number of persons of the number who appeared upon the stage; others were not overcome.

Last evening Mr. Spencer was again successful. He performed all he promised with a Mesmerized subject named Tevis. The audience looked on in wonder.

The experiments will continue this evening; and we advise those who have not yet witnessed the phenomena exhibited by Mr Spencer, to call to night.

A PICK POCKET.—Officer Fox yesterday made an arrest of a fine looking young man, whose failing was an attempt to live upon the industry of his fellow mortals, without rendering back an equivalent. Information was made by some boarders in a boarding house of this city, yesterday morning, that they suspected a man named Eli Hoyt, for having picked their pockets of sums of money (in all amounting to about $6,75.) Fox proceeded to make the arrest. He found the fellow in the house in question, tapped him on the shoulder, and showed him the warrant. The poor chap was quite down; and quickly concluded to ease his conscience, by making a full and frank confession. After examination before Ald. Steele he was fully committed for trial.

HABEAS CORPUS.—Timothy Hurd, committed on the charge of counterfeiting, was yesterday brought before his honor, Judge Irwin, on a Habeas Corpus, by Deputy Marshal Kerr. On hearing the case, the Judge required the defendant to enter into bail in the sum of $2,000—which he could not procure. He was remanded to prison. There was a considerable amount of the impure stuff found in his possession, with crucible, and other matters pertaining to the art—the whole of which was placed in the keeping, of the Marshal, by the direction of the Judge.

THE CLAY MEETING last evening was rather large. We found the Lafayette Room filled. W. J. Howard, Esq., was called to the chair, with a tremendous crowd of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. Messrs. McKnight, John B. Sheriff, and others, reported resolutions.—the most important of which was one in relation to the employment of an artist of this city to take a bust of the Hon. Henry Clay.

Messrs McKnight, Loomis, Scully and others made thrilling speeches.

We presume a full report will be found in the Whig papers of this morning.

☞ We have had high winds for two days past—(a premonition of the blow up of the Whig meetings.) A great many accidents have occurred in consequence. Roofs have been blown from out houses, chimneys blown down, boats driven from their moorings, window-shutters jarred from their hinges, and hats, caps, bonnets, and dry goods, generally, borne off, &c. No lives lost and no blame attached to the officers.

GARDEN SEEDS.—F. L. Snowden has received his Spring supply of Landreth's Garden Seeds. Cultivators need not fear the seeds offered by Mr. S.: we have never heard a complaint against him on account of failures in seeds he sells.

☞ The Eddy Family gave a Concert in Washington, on Monday evening, we presume, as arrangements had been made for their appearance on that evening.

☞ The Second Lecture before the citizens of the Sixth Ward, will be delivered on Friday evening next, by Mr. Allen. Seats are free to all.

☞ Mr Allen will give his views on the Land Question, this evening, in Temperance Hall. Those who have a taste for eloquence and originality should attend.

☞ A gentleman lost a Cloak, yesterday evening about 10 o'clock, going from Fourth to Seventh streets. The finder will be rewarded by leaving it at this office.

☞ There is a Mesmeric Society in Allegheny city, under the superintendance of Professor Suman.

☞ We call attention to the card of managers of the Mercy Hospital. It is hoped that city editors will copy.

Clocks! Clocks! Clocks!
