AUNT RACHEL'S

Malarial Fever Bitters,

Of Peruvian Bark and Herbs.

ACHE NO MORE.

If malaria is prevalent in your vicinity, the meanest and most debilitating of all diseases,

BE SURE AND USE

Aunt Rachel's Malarial Bitters, a little in each glass of water you drink. Directions on the bottle.

It Purifies the Blood, Strengthens the Stomach and Tones the System. Creates appetite.

These Bitters are a scientific combination of Chinchona (China Regia), Wormwood and the Ague Tree, macerated in a tonic wine made from Elderberries and percolated through Jamaica Ginger and Snake Root.

It is from a recipe of one of the oldest and most successful nurses in the State of New Jersey.

It will counteract any deleterious poison or fever influence the water may hold that you drink or the air you breathe.

Be sure you get Aunt Rachel's Malarial Bitters when you first begin to feel symptoms of this fever. It is a sure thing. Druggists sell it.

D. DODGE TOMLINSON'S

Celebrated H. H. H. Medicine is not a mere perfumed lubricating oil, the application of which serves only to amuse and occupy the patient, but is in reality a scientific combination of powerful chemicals and potent drugs, which have the marvelous property of going straight to the seat of the pain, where they act upon the lymphatics in such a manner, that the cause of the pain is absorbed and removed. It does not matter much whether the pain be due to an abnormal swelling, to sprains of the joints or strains of the muscles or tendons, to rheumatism, lumbago, neuralgia, sciatica, to toothache or headache, all of these are quickly relieved by the magic effect of H. H. H. No other medicine or liniment seems to equal it in the rapidity or certainty of its action. Often a single thorough application causes the pain and discomfort to vanish, as if by magic.

The H. H. H. is used only externally. It is put up in a 25 cent size and also larger bottles.

The signature and portrait of the inventor, Dr. D. Dodge Tomlinson, 400 North Third St., Philadelphia, Pa. is printed on the wrapper around each bottle. Sold by druggists. A slightly smaller sample vial will be delivered by U. S. Mail on receipt of 25 cents in stamps.
