Daily Review of the Markets.

OFFICE OF THE POST,
THURSDAY MORNING, March 16, 1848.

Yesterday was again cold, and quite uncomfortable on the streets. On the wharf there was not so much activity as on the previous days. The sales from stores were to the regular trade generally; from first hands there were but few transactions. There is some stir in the neighborhood of the canal. It is expected that the water will be let in about Monday, should the weather show signs of pleasantness.

Cotton—We have heard of some sales during the past few days, but we have no change to notice. There have been considerable receipts. We still quote at 7@7¼ firm, for Tennessee.

Pig Metal—Nothing doing to indicate a fair price. Receipts of Allegheny may be expected shortly, as the rivers are up.

Flour—We noticed considerable on the wharf yesterday, but much of it was for shipment. We heard of several sales at $4.37½@4.40. The demand is brisk; many merchants have orders to fill, and will give freely $4.37. From store we quote $ fill at $4.50. The tendency is upward, unless better there will be any considerable rise we do not predict.

Sugar—We have no change to note. Sales by hhds. at 5@5¼ prime New Orleans; and if there are any sales, under $4, they are forced.

Molasses—We still quote at 28c. in bbls.

Rye Flour—Sale of 15 bbls. at wharf at $4.

Corn—Sales at 72@75c.

Rye—As we stated yesterday, 50c. will be given pretty freely for a good article. The demand seems good with light receipts.

Cheese—The market is bare; we find no good W. R. in our travels. We quote nominally at 4@7c.

Clover seed—Sales from store at $3.25; from first hands it is worth $3.12½. There appears to be some activity.

Apples—Sales of 200 bushels yesterday at $1.75 from first hand—a higher figure.

Bran—Market bare, and price high: sales a few days ago from store at 16c. which would now be given.

Shorts—None in market; worth 25@27c in store, according to quality.

Butter—Very scarce, and no prime Roll to be found. Sales of an inferior article at 12½@13. In market, fresh print brought 25@31, on yesterday morning.

Eggs—Scarce, and demand good; sales in bbls. at 9c. In Diamond market the retail price on Wednesday was 12½@15.

Lard—Some activity; sales yesterday at 6@6½.

Dried Apples—Market almost bare, and demand brisk; a good article is well worth 7c.

Dried Peaches—Sales of good article from store at $1.50.

Corn Meal—Sales, yesterday at 37, looking up a little.

Whiskey—We have to quote the old price: Receipts 200 gal; Raw 19c.
