SUMMER EXCURSION

Routes and Rates via the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The 1893 edition of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's annual book of Summer Excursion Routes has just been issued. It is tastefully gotten up and presents in a most practical and comprehensive manner about four hundred popular summer resorts, from which excellent selections may be made for either limited trips or extended sojourns during the summer and early fall months.

The great variety of routes suggested, the complete schedules of rates, the graphic and exhaustive descriptions of the different places, the explanatory maps and the illustrations, make this volume a most valuable guide.

Copies of the book may be obtained at any ticket office of the Pennsylvania Railroad on payment of ten cents, or upon application to the General Passenger Agent, Pennsylvania Railroad, Philadelphia, it will be forwarded upon the receipt of twenty cents.

The Wrong End.

Mr. Binks (something of a philosopher)—It would be less unpleasant for people to economize if they did not insist on beginning at the wrong end.

Mrs. Binks—Of course. There's Mrs. Winks, for instance. She might have gone without overshoes, and no one would notice it; but, instead of that, she went and bought a cheap bonnet—N. Y. Weekly.

Getting His Hand In.

First Pickpocket—Hullo, Tuffy! Where you been lately?

Second Pickpocket—I've been sick abed.

First Pickpocket—That's too bad. Interfere with your work much?

Second Pickpocket—It did for awhile, but I'm getting my hand in again.—Judge.

A Misapprehension.

"You have had a great deal of experience on the ocean, haven't you, Mr. Shingiss?" asked Miss Dinwiddie.

"Why, no, Miss Dinwiddie. I have never even seen the ocean."

"That's odd. I've sure I've heard papa say you have been often half seas over."—Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph.

A Rapid Development.

"The senator who has just sat down," whispered the guide in the visitors' gallery, "began his public career as a page."

"Indeed?" said the visitor. "I judge from his speech that he has developed into a volume of statistics."—Harper's Bazar.

Coming Events.

June 19 to 24.—Fair and festival in Robbins' hall under the auspices of the English Lutheran church.

July 3 & 4.—Independence Day festival in Robbins' opera house, under the auspices of Camp 49, Sons of Veterans.

Fire Alarm Boxes.

The following list shows the location of the alarm boxes of the Shenandoah Fire Department:

LOCATION.

15—Coal and Bowers streets.
16—Bowers and Centre streets.
24—Bridge and Centre streets.
25—Main and Centre streets.
34—Main and Poplar streets.
35—Main and Coal streets.
42—Gilbert and Centre streets.
43—Gilbert and Cherry streets.
52—Chestnut and Coal streets.

To send an alarm open the box, pull down the hook once and let go. When an alarm is sent in the fire bell will sound the number of the box and repeat the alarm four times.

HOW TO LOCATE ALARMS.

If the alarm is sounded from box 15 the fire bell will strike one, then pause and strike five which will indicate that the fire is in the vicinity of No. 15 box. Every alarm is repeated four times.

PEOPLE who go out of town to purchase their Carpets should call at Fricke's Carpet Store and get prices and have the different grades explained, so they will not be taken in.

Seldom Pinched That Way.

"Could I ask a great favor?" asked the guest of the hotel clerk as he beckoned at the key-board for the key to room No. 44.

"You could, sir."

"Will you sell or lend me about a pound of chicory until to-morrow? I've been out, but all the groceries are closed up."

"Couldn't possibly do it, my dear sir," was the bland reply. "The steward just told me that we hadn't over ten pounds of chicory for breakfast, with one hundred and fifty guests in the house, and we may be obliged to use as much as two or three pounds of coffee to get out of the pinch."—Detroit Free Press.

A Sure Sign.

Miss Summit—I invited some of my friends around last night, and we had a delightful card party.

Dashaway—Yes, I passed the house during the evening. You were playing whist, were you not?

Miss Summit—Why, Mr. Dashaway, how did you guess?

Dashaway—You were making so much noise.—Truth.

An Uncomfortable Position.

Mrs. Smith—And how is your neighbor?

Mrs. Brown—She's well enough, I suppose. I haven't seen her to speak to for six weeks.

Mrs. Smith—Why, I thought you were on the most friendly terms.

Mrs. Brown—Well, we used to be; but we've exchanged servants.—Vogue.

On the Train.

Mrs. Honeymoon—Do you love me?

Old Party (confidentially, from seat behind)—She's asked you forty-seven times in four hours. I get off here; but I'll leave the score with this gentleman by the window.—Brooklyn Life

A Misfit.

Little Miss De Fashion—I am going to send these shoes right back. They are a miserable misfit.

Father—How?

Little Miss De Fashion—They is a mile too big. They don't pinch a bit.—Good News.

Superior in Arithmetic.

Teacher—If your father can do a piece of work in seven days and your Uncle George can do it in nine days, how long would it take both of them?

Johnny—They'd never get it done. They'd sit down and tell fish stories.—Golden Days.

The Final Order at the Caterer's.

"And pray remember, Mr. Pazetti, not to send me a very black negro to serve the supper. This is my parents' golden wedding, and a sort of yellowish complexioned man would be more appropriate to the occasion."—Brooklyn Life.

The Ugly Heiress.

Fortune Teller—Your husband will be a poor man.

Inquirer—How can you tell that?

Fortune Teller—Well, rich men don't marry for money.—Life.

Living in Hopes.

May—Don't you think your landlady's little boy is an angel?

Frank—Not yet; but I have hopes!—Life.

Proof of Merit.

The proof of the merits of a plaster is the cures it effects, and the voluntary testimonials of those who have used Allcock's Porous Plasters during the past thirty years is unimpeachable evidence of their superiority and should convince the most skeptical. Self praise is no recommendation, but certificates from those who have used them are Beware of imitations and do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for Allcock's, and let no solication or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

World's Fair Holiday Trip!

EVENING HERALD CONTEST

10 Days at the World's Fair

With accommodations at a first-class Chicago hotel, and transportation to and from Chicago, including sleeping berths, all free of cost.

To the 2 Most Popular Teachers.

CONTEST CLOSES JULY 1st, 1893, at 6 P. M.

The two teachers who receive the largest number of votes will be taken to the World's Fair and royally entertained by the HERALD. Cut out this coupon, and on the blank lines write the name of the Public School Teacher, north of the Broad Mountain, in Schuylkill county, whom you consider most popular, and send it to the "CONTEST EDITOR, EVENING HERALD, SHENANDOAH, PA." Every coupon properly filled out counts as one vote for one teacher. Every person, young or old, can vote, and vote as often as they please. Coupon must be in the hands of the editor within ten (10) days after the date it bears.

For the Lucky Ones.

A Gold Necklace and Charm.

Holderman, the Jeweler, will give the lady teacher receiving the highest number of votes a handsome gold necklace and charm

A Set of Furs.

R. J. Mills, the Pottsville Hatter and Furrier, will give the lady teacher receiving second highest number of votes a hand some Set of Furs.

A Plush Toilet Set.

Mr. Reese will give the lady teacher receiving the second highest number of votes a handsome Plush Toilet Set.

A Gold-Headed Cane.

W. H. Mortimer, the Pottsville Jeweler, will give the gentleman teacher receiving the highest number of votes a Gold-headed Cane.

Gold-Headed Silk Umbrellas.

The Home Friendly Society, of Baltimore, Md., will present the two lucky competitors in the contest with handsome Gold-headed Silk Umbrellas.

ADDITIONAL OFFERS.

The two teachers having the third and fourth highest number of votes at the close of the contest will be given a five-days' trip to Niagara Falls at the expense of the HERALD.

The two teachers having the fifth and sixth highest number of votes at the close of the contest will be given a five-days' trip to Boston at the expense of the HERALD.

CONDITIONS:

The two teachers who receive the greatest number of total votes up to the closing hour above stated will be declared the winners.

All coupons must be cut out of the EVENING HERALD and sent, securely sealed in envelopes, addressed to "Contest Editor, Evening Herald, Shenandoah, Pa."

Any person residing in any place may vote as often as he or she may desire for one or more teachers engaged in teaching in a public school north of the Broad Mountain at the close of the current school term; provided, that any teacher who may have been incapacitated by sickness or accident for teaching for a period of not more than three months prior to the end of the term, may also compete.

Each vote for each teacher must be represented by a seperate coupon.

A coupon bearing the name of more than one teacher or specifying more than one vote for a teacher will be thrown out as void.

A careful record will be kept of the names of all contestants, and all coupons will be filed and kept safe until the final adjudication. Three prominent and responsible men of Shenandoah will be selected to act as judges, make the final count, and announce the names of the two winners. Should three or more teachers be tied on the highest number of votes, the judges will be allowed to decide.

The names of the winners will be announced on or before Saturday, July 15, 1893. Should the winners be absent from Shenandoah at the time they will be informed of their good fortune by telegraph, so that they may start on the trip as soon thereafter as possible.

All blanks in the coupon must be filled out, especially the blank requiring the name of the person voting. The number of votes received at this office up to 4 p. m. each day will be published in the next issue of the HERALD with the names of the teachers voted for.

Grand Display of

FINE DRESS GOODS

DRESS GOODS is such a bewildering topic that we will not attempt a full description, but give a partial outline, which you can fill in by a personal inspection. There are the plain and changable diagonals; plain, plaid, striped and invisible plaid serges; fancy mixtures in all sorts of odd weaves, dots, threads, cross-threads, hair-lines, lines here and there, many at a glance appearing alike, but upon examination are found entirely different. Our assortment of silks is complete—china silks, china surah, plain surah, bengaline, plain, figured and changeable silks, in all the new shot effects. Full line of fancy braids to match any color of dress goods.

.....In Wraps We find the most stylish and the prevailing mode to be the Cape, in some of its variations, single, double or triple capes. Some are plain, others very highly decorated, with fancy indescent braid, butterfly colors, or some full arrangement at the neck, so much approved this season by the feminine fancy. To some, coats only are the correct garment. To those we would say coats are equally fashionable and stylish, many of these having capes also attached—sometimes one, two or three, as the taste or inclination of the wearer may desire.

We have this season, for the first time, added a Millinery Department, and have spared neither trouble nor expense to make it a success. The result exceeds our most sanguine expectations. This department will be under the same management and conducted on the same principles that have always characterized our entire business. We shall keep everything in trimmed and untrimmed hats, novelties of every description. Having secured a trimmer noted for her artistic and skillful work, we are enabled to suit all tastes. We invite a careful inspection of our entire store. All welcome.

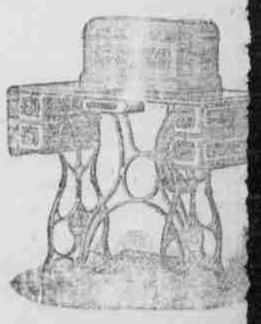
AHEAD AGAIN!



We have mounted another rung on the ladder of popularity. It is the Standard Grand this time, a drop-head, half-cabinet at a reasonable price. The head rises automatically to its place when the leaf is laid back. With a single movement the head disappears, the cabinet closes, and you have an elegant ornamental piece of furniture. Drop in and look at it. And while we are talking of cabinet work we might mention the different kinds of wood the Standard is made up in—Antique Oak, XVI Century Oak, Walnut, Hungarian Oak, Mahogany and Sycamore.
