Daily Review of the Markets.

OFFICE OF THE POST, TUESDAY MORNING, March 28, 1848.

Yesterday was gloomy and wet. Business seemed inactive.

Bacon—The market is glutted; lots have been coming in from all quarters for weeks past. The news from below is favorable to a decline; but holders here are stiff. Sales were made yesterday in a small way at the quotations of last week: 3½, 4½ and 5½ for city cured. The Allegheny trade demand has not yet commenced, which will have the effect of holding up the article.

Bulk Pork—The receipts are heavy; but we hear of no sales. We understand that 3c is considered a fair quotation.

Butter—Still scarce: good Roll worth 14c; but we heard of no sale yesterday.

Potatoes—One large lot of Neshannocks arrived which was quickly picked up at 70c. ⅌ bushel.

Flax Seed—Sales from store at $1.60@1.65.

Dried Apples—An advance is noticed; sales were made at 75@7c for good article; and for one lot 80c was asked; sales at 62 for inferior.

Oats—Sales to arrive at wharf at 24c, from store 25.

Apples—Good Apples are scarce; and will fetch $1.75@2.25.

Hay—At river we noticed sales at $10.

Cotton—Demand was great, owing to the supply held by manufacturers. Sales of Tennessee at 7½c; 7c offered and refused.

Pig Metal—Some tons have arrived from Allegheny and sales on private terms. No sales of H. R. yesterday; prices tending downward; $38 asked.

Bran—None in market worth 16c.

Shorts—None in market; worth 38c.

Molasses—Regular sales at 28c.

Sugar—There seems to be some dullness in the market at 5c, but we hear of no sales below this figure.

Coffee—Regular sales at 9@9½ for good Rio.

Flour—No buyers appeared yesterday, and there were but few receipts. We heard of no sales from first hands which would be a fair quotation. Sales from store by dray load, at $4 62.

PHILADELPHIA, March 24, 1848.

THE CATTLE MARKET.

Beef Cattle—There were 1100 head at the yards this week, and sales of all but 150 were made at from $6 50 to $7,50 ⅌ 100 lbs.

Cows and Calves—175 offered; prices range from $7 to $23 each, according to quality.

Swine—Most of the 800 at market sold at $5,75 @6,50 ⅌ 100 lbs.

Sheep—1200 brought in, and sales made at $1,50 to $4,50 each, as in quality.
