JANUARY 1, 1865.

TWENTY-SEVENTH ANNIVERSARY
OF
THE NEW YORK MERCURY.

THE PRIDE OF THE FIRESIDE.

In the prime of a vigorous intellectual manhood, the Phenix of the weeklies begins its flight for the new year, over the wrecks of its flagging and lifeless contemporaries, with its eye fixed upon the sun, beneath which it owns no rivalry.

The war, which has toppled down whatever it shallow and baseless, has written no wrinkle on the bright ægis of our success. Our features for the issue of 1865 shake the pillars of whatever has heretofore been deemed imperial in serial literature. Both sides of the Atlantic render us tribute. We shall continue the thrilling romances of Miss M. E. Braddon, necromancer of the strong dark passions, to whom we pay more annually than the entire capital of our imitators, and add to our American staff the champion jester of the cap and bells, Josh Billings, who will commence with the first of January a series of his well known inimitable comic dapers, written expressly for us, in his irresistibly convulsive vein. Harriet E. Prescott, the most polished and imaginative sketch-writer living; P. T. Barnum, the world-famed showman and autobiographer; Miss M. A. Earlie, Fairfax Balfour, Dr. J. H. Robinson, and "Ned Buntline", renowned and versatile novelette-writers, will eke out the sparkling contributions of such facile poets, feuilletonists, humorists, critics, travelers, paragraphists, etc., as George Arnold, W. O. Eaton, Millie H. Carpenter, George Alfred Townsend, Julia S. Ingraham, Edward Willett, George Martial, Joseph Barber, J. A. Patten, and others numerous enough and clever enough to run all the newspapers on the Continent.

The vivid pencils of Darley, McLellan, and White, the first draughtsmen of the age, will make the new volume pictorial, and whatever of fugitive or meteoric note may appear during the year, will at once be engaged and made available.

In addition to its crisp and telling editorials; its delectable Gossipers' Club, in which the aptest and wittiest poems, caricatures, and burlesques of the time first appear; and its coquettish Ladies' Promenade, to which all the mothers, sweethearts, daughters, wives, and widows of the land subscribe their experiences, THE NEW YORK MERCURY will continue the faithful and cogent.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF POPULAR PEOPLE.

highly illustrative of the oldest, ablest and artifulest folk of the era; the Great Fashion Article, by Jennie June, whose sprightly notes upon the latest and most perfect New York modes are suggestive to idaders of society everywhere, and universally consulted doth in the metropolis and throughout the country; and commence a series of illustrated Sketches of Grotesque Adventure in Foreign Climes During the War, by Alfred Trample; as well as Hints upon Cookery, by Henry Gosling, the metropolitan cuisiner.

The first of the year will inaugurate the thrilling triginol novelette bp Doctor J. H. Robinson, entitled:

ALETHE:
OR
THE CHILD OF THE CORD,

which will be followed by a splendid new story by Miss H. E. Braddon, written expressly for THE NEW YORK MERCURY.

Notwithstanding the upward march of every article of luxury and consumption, and our enormously increased outlay for the year 1865, the Star Paper of the Republic with its forty columns of sterling original matter, will continue to be issued at six cents a copy, and sold by all newsmen and periodical dealer, in America. Its long and honorable history insures its subscribers against the casualties and fatalities which have swept so many mushroom journals off the board, and left their patrons disconsolate at the loss of their money.

To mail-subscribers our terms are:

Cash in advance: Single copies, $2 50 a year; three copies, $7; six copies, $13; nine copies, $20. The party who sends us $20 for a club of nine copies will receive an additional copy free. Six months' subscriptions received. Canada subscribers must send twenty cents extra for each subscription, to pay the American postage.

Subscribers should be careful to write plainly the name of their post-office, county, and State. Specimen copies sent free to all applicants. Address,

Proprietors of the New York Mercury,
