Daily Review of the Markets.

OFFICE OF THE POST,
MONDAY MORNING, September 4th, 1848.

The river was so low on Saturday that boats did not take in full loads. Freights were pressed upon some of the smaller class, running to Beaver, Wellsville and Wheeling.

Business was rather slack; we think Saturday was the dullest day of last week.

BACON.—Prices remain stationary; as yet, the demand has not increased. We note a few small sales at former quotations. We do not notice any canvassed Hams in market, though there is some demand, with 7@7½ in small lots to retailers.

FLOUR.—There were no lots for sale on the wharf on Saturday. Heavy receipts on consignment, which were generally put into store or shipped.—We noticed sales of two lots from wagon at $4,50 Sales were rather brisk from store at $4,62.

WHEAT.—Red sales reported at 75c. from first hands and one from store at 80c.

LARD.—Nothing doing in Lard, because the market is almost bare. There is a good demand, and we note sales from 1 in kegs at 7c.

OATS.—No sales from first hands; from store 25c.

CORN.—Regular sales from store at 35@37, as to quality.

RAISINS.—Sale of small lots to city trade at $1,75.

APPLES.—There is a brisk demand for good Apples; the market is not well supplied. We quote regular sales at $1@1,25 from first hands.

POTATOES.—Regular sales at former quotations; 50c. for best quality.

CORN MEAL.—Scarce and in some demand.—Worth 37c.

—We found difficulty in collecting sales, on Saturday.

Increase of Boston Commerce.

From September 1st, last year, the importations of cotton into this port are, in round numbers, 240,000 bales, against 180,000 in the same period the year before. Of corn, 2,800,000 bushels, against 2,100,000 bushels; of flour, 900,000 barrels, against 800,000; and of coal, including foreign, 340,000 tons, against 280,000 last season. This great increase in the importation of Cotton, does not argue a prostration of the manufacturing interests under the Tariff of 1846!

Norwalk and Sandusky Bank.

We understand that some, if not all the banks of this city, continue to receive the notes of the Norwalk bank, but none of them received those of the Sandusky. The latter bank has been sold to a company of brokers in whom the bankers have no confidence, is the alleged cause of the refusal. We advise our friends now, as we advised them months ago, to beware of both these concerns, for we have no faith in them. Both will go, as soon as they can make it profitable so to do. The fact that the Cincinnati and Columbus bankers refuse to trust the Sandusky, and that many of the Cincinnati banks refuse to trust the Norwalk, is a good reason why the public should do the same.—Ohio Statesman.

The Great Purgative.

DR. CLICKENER'S SUGAR COATED VEGETABLE EXTRACT PILLS.—These celebrated Pills have obtained an enviable notoriety in the United States, in consequence of Giddiness, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Fevers, Piles, Costiveness, Cough, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Bad Breath, Pain in the Side, Cold Chills, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, and a variety of other diseases to which flesh is heir to, as a medicine for the million! To all seasons of the year, spring, summer, autumn, and winter,—and under all circumstances, they can be taken with perfect safety and success. As a Vermifuge and general medicine for children, they are unrivalled. Being coated with pure white sugar, children will easily take them; they neither gripe nor nauseate, but act thoroughly in their operations. For adults, by increasing the dose, they are equally benefitial. As an Anti-Bilious Pill they will be found without a superior. Ask any one, among the thousands who use them, and an unqualified approval will be the certain result.

Remember Dr. C. V. Clickener is the original inventor of Sugar Coated Pills, and that nothing of the sort was ever heard of until Dr. Clickener's in June, 1842. Purchasers should, therefore, always ask for Clickener's Sugar Coated Vegetable Pills, and take no other, or they will be made the victims of a fraud.

☞ Price, 25 cents per box.
