George Armor,

FASHIONABLE TAILOR, No. 64, Market street.—Having removed his Tailoring Establishment to the rooms on Market st., lately occupied as a Bookstore, by Messrs. Cramer, Spear & Eichbaum, he would invite orders in his line which may be entrusted to his care by his old friends and customers, and the public generally. He would respectfully refer to the numbers of persons with which he has prosecuted it in Pittsburgh, as his ground to hope for a liberal share of patronage. He will make up clothing of the best material, and most fashionable style, FOR CASH. GEO. ARMOR.

Merchant Tailor.

THE subscriber respectfully announces to his customers, and to the gentlemen of Pittsburgh and vicinity, generally, that he has received his usual assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, for gentlemen's wear, to which he invites their attention. His stock comprises fine Broad Cloths of the old stand. Neither expense nor trouble has been spared, to make it the most extensive and magnificent Furniture warehouse to be found any where east or west. The stock of hand; for variety, taste and elegance, is such as has never been offered to any public; from the most costly article at $1,000 per set, down to chamber and kitchen furniture, may be found in styles and patterns, to suit any and every taste. J. W. Woodwell hopes for a continuance of the very liberal patronage extended to him heretofore, and pledges himself to give entire satisfaction, both as regards the solidity, durability and style of his articles, and the liberal and accommodating principles upon which he does business. His extensive new warehouse he is now filled from the cellar to the fourth story, with every variety of furniture and Chairs, he would solicit a call from all in want of articles in his line. ap27
