Weekly Review of the Markets.

OFFICE OF THE POST,
Friday Morning, August 3, 1849.

Business continues dull with but little prospect of a change at present. The merchants generally appear to be enjoying themselves at the Springs. The river is very low and navigation is almost entirely suspended. The weather continues warm.

MONEY MATTERS.—All the talk here now is in regard to the failure of the Scrip negotiation, which we have noticed elsewhere. The brokers are offering to buy Scrip at 12½ per cent. discount, but no one that we have heard of offers to sell. There seems to be a curse hanging over this currency. That it will be ultimately redeemed at a considerable advance above the face of the paper, no one doubts; but some people will suffer before then. Every thing continues dull. No transactions whatever in money matters worth mentioning. Exchange remains statu quo.

ASHES..The receipts continue light and sales small without the least alteration in figures. The following may be considered the rates:

Soda Ash	3¼	Pearls,	5¼@5¼
Pots,	4¾@4¾	Saleratus,	5@5½
Scorchings,	3¼@3¼

ALE—The demand is very good, without any change in prices. We quote Common at $6,00, X $7,00; XXX $8,00. Bavarian Beer (a comparatively new article in the market) is worth $6,00.

BROOMS—Are scarce, the market at present being nearly bare. They would command a good price—say $1,25@2,50.

BRICKS—Common are worth $4,50@5,00; Paving $5,50@6,00; Fire Bricks $15,00.

BAGS—Sales of Cotton at $4,00@4,50 ⅌ doz.

BLOOMS..Held at $65@70.

BEEF..Sales of Dried Beef at 6@8½c. in a retail way; but little doing.

BEESWAX..Some transactions reported at 19@20c. from first hands and from store.

BUCKETS..Sales of Beaver and Mariotta Buckets at $2,20@2,25. Good supply in market; and demand brisk as usual.

COTTON YARNS—At a meeting of Manufacturers an advance of one cent per lb. on all the figures was decided on. The following is a corrected table of prices, five per cent less for cash.
