JOSEPH LEFEVRE. WM. C. BARR. LEFEVRE & BARR, (LATE J. S. STRICKLAND & Co.) Manufacturers of Phœnix Fire Proof Safes, Second street, between Wood and Smithfield.

ON Friday afternoon, July 26, 1850, the undersigned were called upon by Messrs. Lefevre and Barr, to witness an honest and fair test of one of their Phœnix Safes. The furnace being prepared, our Safe was placed inside thereof, with books, papers and some money; when the door of the Safe was closed, and the fire kindled at 2 o'clock, and in a short time the Safe was red hot, and continued till half past 6 o'clock, being about four and a half hours, when the door was opened for their examination that the time occupied with such heat was sufficient. The furnace was then pulled down, Safe hung in air to cool, and door opened—the books found safe. The heat was so great as to melt off the brass mountings. We therefore take pleasure in recommending the above Safes to the public, as, in our judgment, entirely fire proof.

Having calling upon the above gentlemen for furnitures, they "fetched" me to the Museum to witness the test, and there (all confidence) I cheerfully say it is entirely fire-proof. We have constantly on hand and for sale a full assortment of the above Safes.

ISAAC CROMIE.

I am engaged in the foundry business, and know something about furnaces and heat. I witnessed the burning of the above Safe, and can freely say there was no humbug about it, and will place more confidence in it than any other I have seen advertised, as being entirely fire-proof. WM. KAYE.

Having calling upon the above gentlemen for furnitures, they "fetched" me to the Museum to witness the test, and there (all confidence) I cheerfully say it is entirely fire-proof. We have constantly on hand and for sale a full assortment of the above Safes.

Merchandize and Produce shipped East or West, and Bills of Lading for prepaid freight, forwarded free of charge for commission, or drawn for storage. Having no interest directly or indirectly in steamboats, that of the owners is solely confined to the shipping of freight.
