Evangelical Lutheran church, a faithful and efficient teacher in the Sabbath School; but her work was soon done, and her race was comparatively short. But what a comfort to her deeply afflicted mother, brother, and sisters, who have been called upon to part with one so near and dear to them, that they can say, "We mourn not as those who have no hope." She died as she had lived, in Christ, and with him now lives, and reigns amidst the overwhelming glories and joys of the "heavenly life."

And to her mouldering dust we say:—

"Peaceful be thy silent slumber—
Peaceful in the grave so low:
Thou no more will join our number;
Thou no more our songs shall know."

The occasion was improved by the pastor Dr. E. Dorsey, by addressing the large audience in attendence from Job, 14: 7, 8, 9. W. K.

In this place, on the 16th inst., J. PETER, son of Conrad and Eve Ruths, aged 11 years, 5 months and 9 days.

THE UNION WITHOUT AN 'IF' OR A 'BUT.'

Unconditional support of every effort of the President to crush the existing atrocious rebellion is, in my humble judgment, the best test of loyalty, and every man asking favors from the public should be required to express his views so that the people may not be deceived. I believe all the candidates who have offered themselves for the support of the Union Convention are as loyal as I am, but I feel it to be my duty to say in all things I sustain the Administration. On the platform of unconditional loyalty, I again offer myself as a candidate for the office of CLERK OF THE COURTS—subject to the decision of the approaching Convention. If nominated and elected, I will try to do my duty. If some other Candidate is nominated, however he shall have my warmest support and my most earnest efforts for his election. P. HENRY SHOUCH,
Better known as "The Virginia Tailor."
