AN ADVERTISING SWINDLE:—About a month ago, says the Lancaster Inquirer, "we published a New York Advertisement headed "At Wholesale only" and offering to furnish watches and jewelry at very low prices; the advertisement was signed by T. & H. Gaughan, 716 Broadway New York. From developments since made we have ascertained that the whole thing is an unmitigated swindle and we therefore caution our readers to beware of the concern. From a New York gentleman we learn that T. & H. Gaughan are myths and that No. 716 Broadway is occupied by one of the worst class, Peter Funk, rock auction, gift enterprises."

We were "taken in and done for" by this same swindling concern; we caution our readers to beware of the concern. Remember T. & H. Gaughan.

☞ Mr. James L. Shultz, sold his farm,—the late Major Frederick Haines place—adjoining this borough, to James Duffy, on Monday last. Price, $225: per acre. Mr. John Kline had a tract of 53 acres adjoining, which Mr. Duffy also got at $205: an acre. These are big figures.

☞ A large barn and outhouses, almost adjoining the handsome residence of Col. C. S. Kauffman, at the eastern end of Columbia, was burned to the ground, on Monday morning last. The buildings contained a large quantity of tobacco, hay, oats, &c.; the loss is set down at over ten thousand dollars. It belonged to Messrs. Kauffman & Shaeffer.

☞ John Souders, son of Samuel Souders, of this place, a young man of 16 or 17 years returned with the "Hundred Days Men" with what was, at the time, thought to be a bad cold; he grew worse, however, and died with typhoid fever. He was buried on Sunday last.

☞ The following are the new directors of the Mount Joy Bank:—J. G. Doerner, John Kline, John B. Myers, Jacob Reiff, Levi Rickecker, B. M. Breider, Wm. McDaunle, Benj. Grosh, Peter Hoffer, John B. Stehman, Joseph H. Rider, H. Shaffner, Jacob Uhrich.

☞ U. J. Jones, at one time connected with the Lancaster Express, as local reporter was killed at Harrisburg on the 18th ultimo by being run over by the Baltimore accommodation train. He was rolled up into an almost shapeless mass, and so terribly crushed that he was almost beyond recognition.

☞ The Pennsylvania Railroad Company is fixing up a telegraph office in the rooms adjoining the ticket office. This is a convenience our place has long stood in need of. The next thing we hope to see the company do will be to erect a suitable depot for so important a station as Marietta.

☞ H. R. Knotwell, Esq., formerly of the Shawnee Furnaces, Columbia, has purchased the large and handsome residence of John Black, on the corner of East Orange and Lime streets, Lancaster, for $11,000. This is one of the finest residences in that city.

☞ By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that our bank has declared a semi-annual dividend of 5 per cent. This institution is already on a firm basis. Such management as it is under cannot fail to prove a success.

☞ Abraham R. Hess of Conestoga, has been prosecuted for refusing—he was one of the tally clerks—to enter the name of a voter on the tally list.

☞ The return judges of this county have summed up the Presidential vote, including the soldier's vote, and make Lincoln's majority six thousand and nineteen.

☞ New Year notices—notifying tenants to quit, in blank form, can be had at this office; also blank leases, which will be correctly filled up if desired.

☞ A sale of condemned government horses took place in Lancaster, a few days since. Prices ranged from $1 to $90.

☞ Thanksgiving day—24th—passed off very Sabbath-like; all kinds of business being suspended and the churches open.

☞ The Baltimore Sun of Saturday says that Mr. Frederick Gast, of Lancaster, Pa., formerly in the army, was relieved last Thursday evening of his pocket-book, containing about $750, while standing on the pavement near the northwest corner of Baltimore and North streets, Baltimore. The thief cut open his pantaloons pocket in front, and obtained his pocket-book without his being aware of the precise time of the robbery.

In support of the above statements, are presented the Certificates of Dr. James R. Chilton, New-York; Dr. Hiram Cox, Chemical Inspector, Ohio; Dr. James R. Nichols, Chemist, Boston; Dr. E. N. Jones, Chemical Inspector, Circleville, Ohio; Prof. C. T. Jackson, Chemist, Boston; Dr. Charles Upman Shepard, Charleston, S. C.; and J. V. Z. Blaney, and G. A. Mariner, Consulting Chemist, Chicago, all of whom have anylyzed the Catawba Brandy, and commend it in the highest terms, for medicinal use.

Analysis of the Mass. State Assayer. [1858.]

When evaporated through clean linen it left no oil or offensive matter. In every respect it is a PURE spirituous liquor. The oil which gives to this Brandy its flavor and aroma, is wholly unlike fusil or grain oil. Its odor partakes of both the fruit and oil of grapes. With acids it produces ethers of a high fragrance. The substitution of this Brandy for Cognac Brandy will do away with the manufacture of FICTITIOUS spirits, sold under this name both at home and abroad. Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer,
16 Boyleston-st.

BY THE SAME, IN 1864.

I have analysed "L. LYONS' Pure Catawba Brandy," with reference to its composition and character, being the same as that produced in past years. A sample taken from ten casks afforded the same results with regard to purity; a slightly increased amount of the principle on which its flavor depends was determined by comparison with former samples.

The indications of analysis show that this Brandy is produced by the same process as most of the imported Brandy.
Respectfully, A. A. HAYES, M. D.,
State Assayer, 16 Boyleston-st.

THE AMERICAN ARTISAN is a journal devoted to fostering the interests of Artisans and Manufacturers, encouraging the genius of Inventors, and protecting the rights of Patentees. It is published every Wednesday morning, at No. 212 Broadway (corner of Fulton Street), New York, by BROWN, COOMBS & CO., Solicitors of American and Foreign Patents.

The Proprietors of the American Artisan respectfully announce that on May 11, 1864, they issued the first number of that journal; and they confidently believe that, after the public have carefully perused and duly digested its varied and valuable contents, it will be unanimously declared to be more instructive and interesting than any other weekly periodical of similar character published in either the United States or Europe. During the next twelve months the American Artisan will contain numerous Original Engravings and Descriptions of New Machinery, etc., both American and Foreign—Histories of Famous Inventions and Discoveries—Essays on Scientific Subjects—Interesting Letters from working-men in all parts of the world—Instructions in various Arts and Trades—Reliable Recipes for use in the Field, the Workshop, and the Household—Wonderful Experiments in Chemistry—Hints to Millers and Millwrights—News-items for Manufacturers—Practical rules for Mechanics and advice to Farmers—Illustrated details of curious and ingenious "Mechanical Movements" and other useful lessons for young Artisans—the Official list of "Claims" of all Patents issued weekly from the United States Patent Office—Reports of Law Cases relating to Patents; the whole forming an Encyclopedia of General Information on a variety of topics connected with the Industrial Arts, the progress of Invention, &c.

THE PUBLISHING DEPARTMENT of the American Artisan will be under the general superintendence of Mr. JOHN W. COOMBS, who has had eleven years' experience in the management of a similar department in the office of the "Scientific American," in this city. Each number of the American Artisan will contain thirty-two columns of instructive and interesting reading matter, in which the progress of the arts and sciences will be recorded in familiar language, divested of dry technicalities and abstruse words and phrases.

THE EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

of the American Artisan will be critically supervised by a member of the firm of BROWN, COOMBS & Co., assisted by other gentlemen of theoretical and practical knowledge of the arts and sciences. The columns of the American Artisan will be rendered attractive by articles from the pens of many talented American writers upon scientific and mechanical subjects; and among the more prominent of these contributors may be mentioned Robert MacFarlane, who during the last seventeen years filled the responsible position of Senior Editor of the "Scientific American."

THE PATENT DEPARTMENT

of the American Artisan will be placed in charge of Mr. Henry T. Brown, who has had more than nineteen years' experience as a Solicitor of Patents, both in this country and Europe, and who has been for many years the principal professional assistant of Messrs. Munn & Co., Patent Agents, of this city. In this department will be published regularly the OFFICIAL list of "claims" of all patents issued from the United States Patent Office during the previous week; this list will be prepared expressly for the American Artisan, and it will appear several days in advance of its publication in any other journal. Important and interesting legal decisions in patent cases, tried in the United States Courts, will be periodically presented in this department, together with illustrated descriptions of many remarkable inventions recently patented either at home or abroad.

Persons intending to subscribe for the American Artisan should speedily remit, so as to have their subscriptions commence with the first number of Volume 1, dated May 11, 1864. GERMANTOWN TELEGRAPH.
A Family and an Agricultural Journal.

Devoted to Choice Literature, including Poetry, Novelletts, Tales, and Moral and Entertaining Reading generally. In the Literary Department we shall present the choicest varieties within the reach of our extended means. The Novelletts, Tales, Poetry, &c., shall be supplied from the highest and best sources, and be equal to anything to be found in any journal or magazine.

Agriculture and Horticulture, embracing Farming, Gardening, Fruit-Raising, &c. Our labors in this department for over 30 years, have met the cordial approbation of the public. Our purpose has been to furnish useful and reliable information upon these very important branches of industry, and to protect them, so far as in our power, against the false doctrines and selfish purposes of the many empirics and sensation-adventurers by which the Farmer is incessantly assailed; this portion of THE GERMANTOWN TELEGRAPH is alone worth the whole price of subscription.

NEWS DEPARTMENT.—The same industry, care and discrimination, in gathering and preparing the Stirring Events of the Day, expressly for this paper, which heretofore been one of its marked features and given so universal satisfaction, will be continued with redoubled efforts to meet the increasing demands of the public TERMS.—Two Dollars per annum; one dollar for six months. No orders received without the cash, and all subscriptions stopped at the end of the time paid for.

ADDRESS,
PHILIP R. FREAS,
