The Premiums.—The premiums, awarded by the Board of Managers, at the Allegheny county Fair, yesterday, will be announced in the papers of Saturday. The time, and place when and where the successful competitors will receive their diplomas, will probably be announced on Saturday.

PROGRAMME

For the Reception of Gottfried Kinkel.—The Turner Clubs of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and Birmingham, the Singing Club, and all other German Societies who desire to take part in the Procession, as well as the whole American and German public, are invited, at the day and hour announced in handbills, which will be hereafter published and posted, to assemble on the Turners' Ground, behind the American Hotel, Penn street, from which point the procession will march to the landing-place of the Brownsville steamer.

The Marshals of the Procession are:

Dr. Franz Hartmeyer, A. Holstein, Capt. Fr. Seidenstricker, Capt. J. Nusser, J. C. John, C. Wischer, A. Bender.

After the arrival of G. Kinkel, the Procession will be arranged as follows:

First Marshal, Dr. Franz Hartmeyer.

Band of Music.

First Column of Turners.

Singing Club.

G. Kinkel, with the Committee of Reception, in coaches.

The Mayors of Pittsburgh and Allegheny.

Four Turners on horseback, as Kinkel's Guard of Honor.

Second Column of Turners.

Citizens and other Societies, marching by twos, to complete the Procession.

The Procession will move from the place of landing to Smithfield street, up Smithfield to Liberty, down thence to Wood, down Wood to Fifth, down Fifth to Market, down Market to Third, up Third to Wood, down Wood to Water street, and thence to Col. Sahl's Hotel, where G. Kinkel will be addressed by J. Roth, in the name of the German population of Pittsburgh and vicinity.

On the same evening, at 9 o'clock, the Singing Club, the Turners, and all who wish to take part in the Torchlight Procession, will re-assemble at the Turners' Ground, where further instructions regarding the Procession will be communicated.

DR. HARTMEYER,
J. ROTH,
Committee of Publication.

The Fair.—Yesterday was the second day of the Agricultural and Mechanical Fair, held in Allegheny city, and there was truly a wonderful variety of articles on Exhibition. Whether we know of no branch of manufacturing that was not there represented. We scarcely know where to begin to enumerate the kinds of articles—there was all kinds of agricultural implements; carriages and buggies innumerable; all kinds of the most beautiful castings; harness, leather, hats, boots, hosiery, clothes, cloths, quilts, chairs, looking glass frames, flowers and fruit. There was also a novel exhibition of twin babies, about four months old. They were lying in a basket wagon, and were beautiful little cherubs. We couldn't learn to whom they belonged; but they appeared to attract more attention—from the ladies especially—than any other article. They will certainly take a premium, or should. We saw none on the ground that could compete with them.

The space allotted to the exhibition was entirely too small. Never did we see such a complete jam.

About 3 o'clock Hon. Judge Lowrie delivered a very able and eloquent address, which was listened to by that large audience with marked attention.

The Naiad Queen was produced at the Theatre last night for the first time. It far exceeded, in brilliant splendor, the expectations of the public, high as they had been raised. It is indeed a magnificent effort, and will draw crowded houses for many nights. It will be be presented again this evening. Seats must be secured early in the day.

Real Estate.—The sale of valuable real estate takes place to-day, in Allegheny city, at 10 o'clock. The property is situated on the corner of Beaver street and Water Alley, about one square from the Pennsylvania and Ohio R. R. Depot. See advertisement in another column.

We would call attention to the sale of splendid Household Furniture, Carriage and Harness, &c., at the residence of Wm. Algeo, Esq., on Liberty st., near Marbury, this morning at 10 o'clock.

A collection of splendid London Books, to be sold by catalogue on Saturday and Monday evenings, are now open for examination at Davis' Auction Rooms.

Ugh!—The Indians who are here giving exhibitions, were yesterday promenading the streets in costume.

A man fell from the scaffolding of the new house adjoining the Railroad Depot, in Allegheny city, yesterday, and was slightly injured.

The proceeds of the Fair yesterday were much larger than heretofore. The amount we couldn't ascertain.

The boots exhibited at the Fair yesterday, by M. Brennan, of Smithfield street, were the handsomest we have ever seen.

A great many strangers were in the city yesterday, to witness the Masonic procession.

Dr. Kelly commences his course of lectures next week, on Mesmerism.

There was no Court commitment to jail yesterday.

B. R. Curtis,

The new Judge of the U. S. Supreme Court.—The following anecdote is told of Judge Story and his successor upon the Bench—

It was Judge Story's habit after the session of the Court on his return to Cambridge, and before the publication of the reports, to submit the case decided to the class for argument. In one occasion Judge Marshall had delivered the opinion of the Court, Judge Story dissenting.—When the points were before the class, Mr. Curtis took the same positions assumed by Judge Story on the Bench, and that eminent man on his return to Washington, said to Judge Marshall that if the case had been argued with half the ability before the Court that it was before the class the decision would have been reversed.

"And," added the Judge, "B. R. Curtis, the young man not yet admitted to practice, who made that argument, will yet stand at the head of the New England Bar."

[That prediction has been verified, and the student occupies the seat his distinguished instructor so well filled.

THE CELESTIALS AT A THEATRE.—A Sacramento paper mentions the appearance of five-and-twenty Chinamen at the Pacific Theatre, in that city a short time ago:—"They had never seen anything like it, in the Flowery Kingdom, that was evident, and their enjoyment was proportioned to the novelty of the exhibition. There was only one difficulty in the way: and that was, that they did not seem to know when it was the proper time to go. Every time the curtain fell they thought the show was at an end, and began to move towards the door. They had once reached it, when they were brought back by the band which struck up a lively air. They behaved in the meantime with great gravity and decorum, until dancing began. Then they seemed to have lost their presence of mind altogether, and went into absolute ecstacies, clapping and applauding with the greatest enthusiasm. They apparently tho't it would be carrying self-indulgence too far to attend any longer, and so they took their leave incontinently, bowing gracefully to the crowd around the door as they withdrew.

Received this day, by Express, a superior lot of HALIBOT, SEA BASS, ROCK FISH, LIVE TERRAPINS; also a fine lot of DUCK CREEK OYSTERS, at "OUR HOUSE," No. 24 DIAMOND Alley.

State Mutual Fire Insurance Company
BRANCH OFFICE, 54 SMITHFIELD ST., PITTSBURGH.
Pittsburgh, May 14, 1851.

THE best evidence of the success of the Director in endeavoring to make the "STATE MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY" meet the wants of the community, is the unparalleled amount of business which has been done—having issued 7,000 Policies during the past year, thereby adding over $130,000 to the funds of the company. Nearly all the property insured is of the safest kind, in small risks, and a large proportion has insured for only one year.

To city or country merchants, and owners of warehouses, and isolated or country property, it is believed this company affords advantages in point of cheapness, safety and security, inferior to no Insurance Company in this country.

Conducted on the equitable and greatly improved system of Classification of Risks, excluding all special hazards, insuring only a limited amount in any one locality, thus precluding the frequency and occurrence of large fires, and also, on both the Stock and Mutual plan, it not only possesses the cheapness and accommodations of both methods, but entitles the insured to a participation in the profits.

It is under the control of the following Directors:—P. Rutherford, A. J. Gillett, John B. Packer, Samuel T. Jones, Alonzo A. Carrier, Philo C. Sedgwick, Robert Klotz, Samuel Jones, John P. Rutherford.

P. RUTHERFORD, Pres't.
A. J. GILLETT, Sec'y.

A. A. CARRIER, Actuary.
N. B.—A Scrip Dividend of fifteen per cent. on expired policies has been declared by the Directors, and is now receivable at this Office for renewals, or redeemable in cash at the end of ninety days.

DAILY REVIEW OF THE MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY MORNING POST,
Friday, October 10, 1851.

REMARKS—The weather since our last weekly review has been quite warm, pleasant and dry. River navigation is becoming again quite difficult. Our Rivers continue to recede, with scant three feet water in the channel. Business, generally speaking, during the fore part of the week, was dull; it has, however, presented a more active appearance for the last few days. In the market we find little or no change to notice since our last report.

ASHES—There has been considerably more inquiry for Pearls in Ash than for some time previous, for lots of 5 to 20 casks, without, however, any change in price. We note sales of about 40 casks, ranging at $4 by the ton.

POTASH—The market is moderately supplied with Pearls, and we quote at 4,75@2,25 ⅌ bbl.

ALE—There continues a regular brisk demand for this article. We quote Manufacturers' prices—regular discount off for cash.

Pennsylvania Ale, per bbl $6 00
Common, per bbl 6 00
XX do 9 00
XXX do 12 00
Common, half barrels 3 50
XX do 4 00
XXX do 4 50
Common, qt barrels 2 75
XX do 3 00
XXX do 3 25

BUCKETS AND TUBS—There continues a regular demand for the article without any change in price. Sales from first hands for Buckets 1,87@2,00 in lots of 25 or 50 doz from stores to the retail trade, and 2,00@2,25 ⅌ doz for Tubs—Sales at manufacturers at 7,50@8$ per doz.

BROOMS—The stock is large and prices nominal. We quote at from 1,75@2,12 ⅌ doz from stores.

BEESWAX—There is but little offering; good lots of Yellow we quote at 21@22c.

BUTTER—There continues a moderate demand with a firmness in prices; we have, however, no heavy sales to report. Sales are principally confined to small lots for the trade; we note the sales we note 5000 lbs Hams at 10c; 10,000 do Shoulders at 4½@4¾c; 900 do Sugar Cured hams at 11 @ 12c.

BLOOM—In consequence of the low stage of water in our canals, supplies are almost entirely cut off, which has caused some inquiry in the market; we hear of several sales made during the week past as follows—60 tons, to go out of market, on private terms—supposed to be at from $35 to $40 per ton; 45 do at $36

BUTTER AND EGGS—There is more inquiry for good Roll Butter, which we now command 14@15c. We quote Eggs 10@12. Eggs—The market is well supplied, with sales at 5@6c ⅌ dozen.

CORN MEAL—Sales from stores at 45@50c per bush.

CHEESE—The stock in first hands is ample. We note sales during the week at 6@6½. Extra Cream 6¼

WOOL—There is nothing doing in Wool in our market, the season being over. Below we give the state of the market East:

The Buffalo Wool Growers says:—The severe pressure upon the money market the past month has been sensibly felt by the Wool dealers, and many who are weak holders have suffered seriously. Wool was offered in New York at a loss of 10 cts ⅌ lb, and found no purchasers at that. The sales however, have been only to a limited extent, and have very much favored the buyer. If forced upon the market now, Wool would not bring last February prices, by at least 3 cts, upon the average. The tendency of prices is downward, and we look for a further decline. We do not see any prospect for a rally before winter, and not then unless there be a very great change in money matters. Our ever active importations are beginning to tell upon the finances of the country, and until they are checked there will be an increased demand for money, which will of course make it scarce and dearer. In other words, the price of all kinds of property must fall. Wool and fabric must partake of the general law, and depreciate. There will be no accumulation of stock in either kind, for the demand of the country will consume the manufactured article, and thus create a good demand for the raw material, and that too at fair prices. We are quite certain the speculators should suffer. They have made money out of the farmer and manufacturer, and we are glad to see the farmers get it back, in some degree as they have done this year.

At Providence (R. I) the Wool market is very dull, and but little inquiry inquiry for any description of wool. The sales are small and at prices below our last quotations.
