River Intelligence, &c.

Business on the Wharf.—Was very active yesterday. The levee was covered with large amounts of sugar and molasses, brought up from below, on the fleet of steamers which have arrived within the past few days. The Orion, from New Orleans, brought a full cargo of these staples. Several boats from Louisville and Cincinnati also came in with good cargoes of western produce.

The River.—Last evening there were nine feet six inches water in the channel. We have every indication, from the recent heavy rains, of a full river. A few coal boats passed our city yesterday, bound for the South, with their cargoes of "black diamonds."

Cincinnati Packet.—One of the best boats on the line leaves this morning for the Queen City—the Cincinnati, Capt. John Birmingham, one of the most accommodating officers on the river.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS.

TUESDAY, March 30.

On the Bench—Hon. Wm. B. M'Clure, President Judge; and Wm. Boggs, Esq., Associate Judge.

Commonwealth vs. William B. Graham—Indictment, Assault and Battery with intent to kill. This case was concluded this morning; the jury returned a verdict of "Guilty," and the prisoner was remanded for sentence.

Commonwealth vs. Amelia A. Harris—Indictment, Larceny. The jury found the prisoner guilty, and he was remanded for sentence.

Commonwealth vs. Joseph W. Miller—Indictment, Rape, on oath of Caroline Krepps. This case was not concluded when the court adjourned.

Steamboat Accidents.—There are a great number of steamboat accidents daily occurring on our Western rivers. Many Pittsburgh boats have met with accidents. We see that the steamer American Star, by coming in contact with the Terre Haute bridge, had both chimneys, the pilot house, and a portion of the ladies' cabin carried away; the boat has commenced a suit against the bridge company, laying her damages at $200. The Ionian was sunk at the head of the locks on the Wabash, on the 24th. She was bound for Cincinnati and will prove a total loss. The steamer Glaucus, while lying at Montrose, on the Upper Mississippi, was totally destroyed by fire, on the 20th inst. She was insured in the Associated Firemen's Company, of this city. By a telegraphic despatch from Wheeling, we learn that the steamer Companion was sunk in fifteen feet water, on Monday night. She was loaded with pig metal.

Death of Capt. Wilkins.—The various military companies of this city, we understand, will attend the funeral of Capt. George S. Wilkins, to-day, at 10 o'clock, from the Quartermaster's building, on Penn street. At a meeting of the surviving members of the old Pittsburgh Blues, Elijah Trovillo was chosen Chairman, and John Willock Secretary, after which they resolved to attend the funeral of Capt. Wilkins, and wear the usual badge of mourning thirty days.

Railroad Collision.—A collision occurred on the Pennsylvania Railroad, on Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, between Beatty Station and Latrobe, 42 miles from this city, by which one of the clerks at Beatty's Station had his leg broken and the two locomotives were very much injured. The accident occurred by a mistake in the telegraphic despatch, which failed to announce the departure of the other train from Johnstown.

New Post Offices.—The Post Master General has established a new post office at Courtneysville, Allegheny county, and appointed John W. Moore, Postmaster.

A Post Office has likewise been established at Hope Church, in this county, of which William McKee is Postmaster.

Diamond Market House.—A meeting of the subscribers to the fund for erecting market houses in the Diamond will be held in the Common Council Chamber, in the old Court House, on Thursday evening, the 1st April, at half past seven o'clock.

Assault and Battery.—Sarah Watson was arrested yesterday and brought before Alderman Daft, of the Eighth Ward, charged, on oath of James Kelly with assault and battery. Kelly also threatened to burn her house down.

☞ The balance of the stock of Dry Goods at No. 75 Market street, must be closed out by auction, this day, positively, as the store is rented; also, store fixtures, and a large lot of fancy paper boxes.

The Ladies' Hungarian Association will meet on Wednesday afternoon, at 2½ o'clock, at Rev. West's church, and hereafter regularly at the same place.

Literary Contest.—The annual contest between the Franklin and Philo Literary Societies of Jefferson College comes off to-day. Many of our citizens will, no doubt, be present.

The Hutchinsons left this city yesterday morning for Washington, where they were announced to give a Concert last evening.

Removed.—The O'Reilly Telegraph office has been removed to the north-east corner of Wood and Third streets.

Appointment.—Samuel M'Anulty, has been appointed Collector of Tolls at Blairsville, we see it stated, in place of D. H. Barr, deceased.

Larceny.—Luke Quinn was committed to prison yesterday by Ald. Daft, charged, on oath of Samuel More, with larceny.

Disorderly Conduct.—Mary A. Anderson was committed to prison yesterday, by Alderman Daft, for disorderly conduct, for 48 hours.

Profanity.—James Barret, was committed to jail yesterday, by Alderman Lewis for profanity, for 24 hours.

Alderman Lewis, yesterday committed eight persons to the County Jail, for vagrancy and drunkenness.

Commitments.—There were fourteen commitments to the County Jail yesterday.

Alderman Steel committed two persons, yesterday, for drunkenness.

Fine China.—Every person knows that there is nothing which so adorns a table, or in which good housekeepers so much delight, as in fine China Ware. The first of April is now at hand, a day in which there is more ware broken than in the whole year; and a period it is, when many persons delight to replenish their old stock. To such good people, we can only say, that if they once enter the splendid store of Mr. HOPKINSON, No. 56, Wood street, they will be so charmed with his splendid assortment of fancy China and White Stone ware, that they will go no further,—but have their taste, no matter what it is, suited out of his extensive assortment. Mr. Hopkinson's store, is one of the most extensive in the west. He keeps on hand, beside his splendid assortment of Fancy China, a large stock of Glass, Queensware, Britannia Ware, Japan Waiters, Solar Hangings, and Stand Lamps, Candelabras, &c., &c. Call and see him.

"A Stranger and they took him in."—Jacob Stranger was committed to prison yesterday, by Alderman Steel, charged with keeping a tippling house, on oath of Joseph S. Pearson. The prisoner kept a most discreditable house, in Diamond Alley, and when we saw him at the Alderman's office, he was fit to perform any other duty than that of a landlord.

Delightful Spring and Summer Goods.—We would call the attention of those who want to buy handsome and fashionable clothing, to Mr. John Callahan & Co.'s advertisement in another column.

Their stock is truly beautiful, comprising every thing of taste and durability, that can be had in the Eastern markets. Mr. Callahan is a young man, who fully deserves the patronage he has received; as a merchant, his abilities cannot help being appreciated. His anxious desire to please his customers, together with his affable manner, has gained him a host of friends, and a good business. We wish friend Callahan success. We believe he fully deserves all he desires, for unquestionably he is willing to work for it.
