JOSEPH LEFFINGWELL. WM. C. BARR.
LAFFINGWELL & BARR,
(LATE J. B. STRATTON & CO.)
Manufacturers of Patent Fire Proof Safes,
Second street, between Wood and Smithfield.
ON Tuesday afternoon, July 28, 1848, the undersigned were called upon by Messrs. Chapman Brothers, of Pittsburgh, to see their Safe, that had been in the great fire of that city the day before. We opened the Safe in the presence of several persons, and found it in good order. The iron was closed and the fire kindled at a quarter past 9 o'clock, and in a short time the Safe was red hot, and continued full half past 6 o'clock, being about 8 hours and a half hours, when the committee expressed their satisfaction that the time occupied with such heat was sufficient. The furnace was then pulled down, Safe cooled, and door opened—the books, papers and money were found in the same condition they were when put in safe. The heat was so great as to melt of the brass mountings. We therefore take pleasure in recommending these Safes to the public, as being, in our judgment, fire proof.

I am engaged in the foundry business, and know something about furnaces and heat. I will say, there was no humbug about it, and with pleasure recommend them to the public as being, in my judgment, fire proof.
WM. KAYE.
In calling upon the above gentlemen for their signatures, they spoke in the highest terms of the fairness of the test, and their full confidence of the Safe's being entirely fire-proof. We have constantly on hand and for sale a full assortment of the above Safes.
