THE CITY POST.

SATURDAY MORNING.....JULY 31.

THE FIRE CASE.—On Thursday, an inquest was held on the body of Hannah Ann Walker, and a verdict to the effect that the deceased came to her death from disease of the heart was rendered. In acquiescence to the solicitations of the friends of Capt. William Chaplin (accused of violating her person) a further investigation was held by the Coroner yesterday—The following evidence came out on that examination:—

Mary Jane Turner, Sworn.—Live in Lawrenceville; knew the deceased; she came to my house on Monday, the 9th of July; she said she was very sick; complained a great deal of her back; I insisted on examining it, and she said she had been ill-treated by Mr. Chaplin. [The witness proceeded to state the nature of the alleged ill-treatment.] "I asked her if he forced her or enticed her, and she said that he had forced her... Saw nothing more than her back; the skin was off; she left my house on Sunday morning. [The witness proceeded to state the appearance of the clothes the deceased had worn.] The bruise was on the lower end of the backbone; I could not say that the wound on her back caused the stains on her garments; I think not; the deceased came up with Mr. Chaplin on the cars, and she came at once to my house; she had a disease of the heart; but complained more of screening in her back, and in the lower part of her bowels; I am aware of the deceased; the injury on the back might have been from three to four days old; it was larger than a dollar.

MRS. ——Schaffer, sworn—Hannah Ann Walker came to my house on last Sabbath evening; after she came, her sister said, "Hannah, tell me, was it any of the carpenters?" she said "no;" I left, "was it any of the boys?" she said "no;" I said, "was it Chaplin himself?" and she said "yes;" I said, "how did it happen?" She said she was up in Chaplin's room, and he asked her; she refused him, and said she was a poor girl and had nothing but her character, and he shouldn't ruin it... He told her to hush such nonsense, that Mrs. Chaplin would hear her; he told her to go to the loft and see who was there; she said she would not do it; he told her to go to the next room and see who was there, and she said she would not; he told her to go to get a bottle of porter, and when she returned he locked the door, threw her on the bed, and committed the outrage; she said it was half an hour before she could breathe; she said she laid until she was able to get up, and then she ran to the room of the girls; there she became so very weak and exhausted that she was not able to tell her any more. I said, "Hannah, is this the whole truth and nothing but the truth?" and she said, "yes." Hannah said, I were you on the verge of eternity, and hadn't an hour to live, would you state this?" and she said "yes." She died yesterday (Thursday) morning. This conversation was before the information was made. It was made before Thompson at 4 P. M. The deceased was between 17 and 18; would have been 18 this fall. Her general health has been very poor—The last spells that she has had have been very poor—Fire that is appeared to be a decline like Consumption, and she had a cough... In her last illness her bowels were greatly swollen; she could not bear to be touched. There was a piece of skin rubbed off her back low down, between the size of a quarter and a half a dollar; she said she got it on the bed. The wound looked red; I suppose from the appearance that it had bled. She had a great deal of difficulty in breathing. The information was made by her before Alderman at this house. She never had any monthly period in her life. She was sick and was brought home by Mrs. Chaplin. During her stay with me there was nothing occurred to cause any excitement; I dared not excite her, it made her worse. From Tuesday until she died her mind appeared to wander.

The information taken before Alm. Thompson, on the 20th of July, was read in evidence, stating in substance that on the 16th of that month William Chaplin violated the person of the deceased, at his house on Long Island, in the Ohio river.

At this point of the investigation, Doctors Gazzam, Bruce, Black, Cormman, Shaw, Pollock, Tindle and Dilworth, (the three latter being members of the Jury,) having concluded their examination of the remains of the deceased, the jury adjourned to an office down town, the friends and relatives of Miss Walker being in attendance for the purpose of burying her. The house in which she lay is situated on Linton street.

Dr. Joseph P. Gazzam affirmed—I cannot speak as to the cause of the death in this case, my examination having been wholly confined as to whether she had been subjected to violation. I made no examination whatever as to the cause of her death. Her person had never been violated, and she died a virgin. I found no swelling, no laceration, nor any abrasion of the parts. I examined her back carefully; there was no trace of abrasion of the skin, which was not even ruffled. There was no abrasion of the legs, arms or breast. We always expect in a case of rape, to find marks of violence on the person; I discovered nothing of the kind here. Not only was there no abrasion, but no discoloration of the skin. I examined the body of the deceased yesterday, and again today. I have no conclusive evidence of her virginity—The girl was immature.

The Doctor proceeded at some length to state a number of details, which we do not deem it proper to publish.

Doctors George D. Bruce, and Alexander Black were sworn, and testified that they had been called on to examine the deceased, and that her person had never been violated.

Drs. Cormman and Shaw, who had been examined before a Coroner's Jury held on Thursday, were sworn, and testified to the same fact. Dr. A. G. M'Candless, who had been attending on Miss Walker, corroborated their evidence.

Doctors Tindle, Pollock, and Dilworth were examined, and their evidence was to the same effect.

The jury then returned a verdict that the deceased came to her death by disease of the heart.

The following statement was signed:

"We, the undersigned members of the Coroner's Inquest, held upon the body of Hannah Ann Walker, do hereby, due to Wm. Chaplin, accused of committing a rape upon her person, to state that no evidence to warrant that accusation was brought before them: that on the contrary, they believe, from the examination of a number of learned physicians, that no such rape was committed.

GOT BACK.—Many of our Whig friends have returned from Niagara Falls. We would like very much if they would give us a list of the prices paid by them for the various little effecterns which men usually procure when on such an expedition. One or two items we heard—Ale, 37½ cents per glass; crackers, 6¼ cents each; brandy, all used up the first day, and then none was to be had at any price. Passage up the lake was reduced half price—over the left—and passage back same way. We regret to state that several members of the delegation from this city had their pockets picked. One man—and a Colonel, too—lost more a hundred dollars by the adroitness of some of his Whig friends, who inverted their hands into his pocket, and relieved him of that amount.

SLIP ON THE RAILROAD.—We learn from the Greensburg papers that quite an extensive slip occurred last week in the embankment over the culvert at Jack's run, by which part of the masonry and end of the arch of the culvert was demolished, and the passage for the water entirely obstructed. The embankment at that point was between 60 and 70 feet high, and had just been completed. It may take two or three months and several thousand dollars to make the necessary repairs, as the extent of damage to the masonry cannot be told till the large mass of earth is removed.

A COMPANION FOR UNCLE TOM.—T. B. Peterson & Co., of Philadelphia, have issued a work entitled life in the South, being a companion to Uncle Tom's Cabin. It is well written—the scenes are graphically pictured, and all in all, it is a fitting work to bear companionship with Uncle Tom. Reed & Catlow have it for sale, at their store, on Third street, opposite the Post Office. We had almost forgotten to state that the work is embellished with fourteen fine wood cut illustrations, drawn expressly for the work by Barley, and engraved by celebrated artists.

DROWNED BOY.—The name of the lad whom we mentioned yesterday morning as being drowned on Thursday afternoon, was Styve. The boy was playing on a log, and fell off into the water. Some men who were carting dirt near by, rescued his fall in, sent their dog in to rescue him. The dog struggled nobly with the boy; but not being a large one, was not strong enough to sustain him, and was pulled under two or three times with the boy's weight, until at last the lad sunk, and was not recovered until life was extinct.

THE CHOLERA.—We would remind our readers that the last performances of this celebrated Troupe will be given this afternoon and evening. Those who have not yet seen the exquisite rolling of Madame Brower, Neville, Stout, Ayman, Hochford and Sergeant, should avail themselves of this, the last opportunity. A bill of unusual attractions is presented to-night, which, no doubt, will fill the pavilion. Go early, and secure seats.

PERSONAL DUG.—A man named Fritz Sayern was arrested yesterday, on oath of Simon Armstrong, charged with keeping a ferocious dog at the foot of Liberty street. Fritz was discharged by the Mayor, before whom the action was brought, on the payment of the costs, and on condition that he would drown or, in some other manner dispose of the canine animal.

GREAT DAMAGE was done by the storm of Thursday afternoon to the fruit and ornamental trees in this city and vicinity. Many of them were blown down, and the branches of others carried off. In Allegheny City and on the hill wards, particularly, the violence of the storm robbed many of the citizens of their beautiful shade and choice fruit trees.

ACCIDENT.—A young man, named James Wilson, a member of the Allegheny Fire Company, was severely injured, by being run over by the engine, as the members were proceeding home from an alarm of fire, last evening. The engine passed over his back, and the accident occurred at the corner of Fifth and Smithfield streets.

HARPERS MAGAZINE FOR AUGUST.—A most splendid number it is—full of the most attractive reading matter:—Mr. Jacob Abbot's commencement of the Memoirs of the Holy Land; History of Napoleon—continued—&c., &c. H. Mason & Co., 52 Smithfield street, have this Magazine for sale.

A WORAN SHOT, ALMOST.—A warrant was issued by Alderman Parkinson, yesterday, for the arrest of Rachel Homerwell, of the Sixth Ward, who had fired a gun at Agnes Gething, on Thursday, as she was employed in her yard. Rachel also threatened to take the life of Agnes.

TIPPLING HOUSE CASES.—Alderman Steel had before him, yesterday, the following persons, accused of keeping tippling houses; James Murphy, Felix Lafferty, C. E. Boely, B. Blum, F. Dall.

BAIL.—Thomas Johnston, committed on the second of July, for larceny of $45 from Mr. Conn, of this city, was discharged from custody yesterday.

A NEW BOAT is now building at Brownsville, to be commanded by Capt. Parkinson, of the Atlantic, whose place she takes between this city and Brownsville.

THE LIBRARIAN of the Mercantile Library, requests us to state to those persons who have books out of the Library, to return them immediately.

CORRUPTION.—Cornelius Bulger was committed to prison, yesterday, charged with fornication and bastardy.

☞ The alarm of fire last night, about 10 o'clock, was false, as far as we could learn.

FALSE PRETENCES.—A young man, named John M'Loughlin, a resident of the third ward, was brought before Alderman Major, yesterday, charged with procuring a pair of boots from Agnew and McCann, of Wiley street, by pretending that his stepfather had sent him, and wished to inspect the articles before he purchased them. The young man was discharged on the payment of the costs and the value of the boots.

HORRID CASE OF INTEMPERANCE.—Coroner Arthurs was called upon yesterday, to hold an inquest on the body of Samuel Lewis, of Shaler township. He was found dead in the house of Anthony Vermon, of that township. The Jury returned a verdict of death from the effects of intoxicating liquor. Lewis was a man of about sixty-five years of age and was a carpenter by trade. He was addicted to intoxication.

BROWNSVILLE PACKET.—A new boat was placed in the line between this city and Brownsville, on Monday last. She is called the Luserne, and is a beautiful boat, splendidly fitted up, and furnished completely in every part. She is commanded by Captain Bennett, of the Baltic, whose place she takes in the daily line between here and Brownsville.

LIFE IN THE SOUTH.—We have received this work from H. Miner & Co., of Smithfield street. It purports to be a companion to Uncle Tom's Cabin, and from a hasty glance, we think it deserves a place with that celebrated work, as a sketch-book of Southern life. It is by C. H. Wiley, of North Carolina.

THE ANTI-REPEER AGAIN.—William McIlroy was committed to prison, yesterday, charged with surety of the peace, on oath of John Moran. This somewhat celebrated character has now about a dozen cases pending against him for forcible entry and detainer, trespass, &c. He was committed by Ald. Steel.

GREAT SPRING.—Lewis Peterson, proprietor of the Petrolum Oil Wells, near Tarentum, whilst boring for salt water recently, struck a vein of fresh water at the depth of 1240 feet, which discharges at present a column of water at the rate of sixty gallons per minute.

A YOUNG LAD was arrested yesterday morning, charged with stealing a small sum of money from one of the deckhands of the steamer Pilot No. 2. The lad was pantry-man on the steamer at the time of the robbery.

THE TOMBS.

FRIDAY MORNING, July 30.

There were but two cases before the Mayor this morning. William H. Barion was arrested for walking about the streets as a tete boar, behaving in such a manner as to render himself an object of suspicion. He was committed for twenty-four hours.....Terrence Kinney was at the Circus, and behaved in a very disorderly manner, and, when ordered to leave the place, he refused to do so, and called the officer hard names. He spent the night in the tombs, and was committed for ten days, in default of a fine of five dollars and costs.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, July 29.

SENATE.—The Senate took up the bill to authorize an exploration and reconnoissance of the course of navigation usual by whalers in the regions of Behering's Straits; also of such other seas as lie in a direct route of vessels to and from it. The bill was then postponed.

Mr. Shields, offered a resolution making enquires as to the cost of perfecting the Harbor and Coast defences. Adopted.

The Indian Appropriation Bill was then taken up and debated, and an amendment bill adopted appropriating $25,000 for removing the Menomonee Indians to a part of Wisconsin, on the Wolf and Oconitoe rivers. The subject was postponed, after which the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House took up a motion to lay upon the table the Homestead Land Bill. The motion was lost.

Mr. Johnston moved an amendment to include Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, Florida and Wisconsin, in the provisions of the bill.

After some debate on a question of order, a motion prevailed to lay the subject on the table.

Much time was wasted on questions of order, after which the House went into Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union, on the River and Harbor Bill. Amendments similar to those previously voted down, were offered and lengthy speeches. They were negatived, and the House adjourned.

Before the House adjourned, the River and Harbor bill was reported by committee of the whole House, with sundry amendments.

Pending a motion to re-commit to the committee on Commerce, the House adjourned.

The House took up the River and Harbor Bill, and passed it, with amendments. The total amount of appropriations is over $1,487,000. Among other items, are the following: Harbors at Chicago and Michigan City, $20,000 each; improvement of the harbor at St. Joseph, Michigan, $10,000; Black Lake Harbor, $8,000; preservation Harbor, at the mouth of Grand River, Michigan, $5000; improvement of navigation at St. Clair Flats, connecting the upper and lower Lakes, $20,000; improvement of Raisin Harbor, Michigan, $14,000; for Steam Dredge, Lake Michigan, $20,000; harbor of Sandusky, $15,000; harbor mouth Black River, Lake Erie, O., $5000; harbor Cleveland, O., $30,000; harbor Fairmont, O., $10,000; harbor Erie, Pa., $30,000.

The bill was passed.—Yeas 107; nays 75.

HONG-KONG, May 24.—A tragical event occurred on board the American ship Robert Bayne, Capt. Bryson, bound from San Francisco to Canton, on the 12th of April. Four days out, the Coolies took possession of the vessel, killed the Captain, officers and a part of the crew. The vessel was retaken after a few days, by a portion of the Coolies had landed on an Island off Formosa, and was brought back safely to Hong Kong, with the Coolies still on board. The steamer Sesemiuts and her Majesty's brig Lilly left for Amoy in search of those who had landed, but the bad weather obliged the former to return to Hong-Kong. The Sesemiuts left again for Amoy on the 1st of May. Her Majesty's brig Contest joined her May 15th, and succeeded in taking most of the Coolies and bringing them to Amoy. The alleged main cause of the disaffection among the Coolies was the cutting off of the dead and other ill treatment; but it was said that some desperate characters had shipped on board, with a view of taking the vessel.

THE HENRY CLAY DISASTER.

NEW YORK, July 29.

The total number of those known to be lost is 58; found and rescued, 27; unknown, 10; missing 11.

Mr. William M. Ray, his wife and a daughter, aged nine years, of Cincinnati, are among the bodies recovered from the steamer Henry Clay. It is believed that many more bodies are beneath the wreck, which cannot be reached until the steamer Cleveland and others are removed. Among the survivors are A. Sheppard, of Wellsville, O; W. R. Powell, of Zanesville, July, and J. W. Crossman, of Louisiana, J. H. Rondolph, Lazarus Rodgers, Ill.

At a meeting of the passengers, held this morning, a committee of investigation was appointed, and resolutions passed, strongly condemning the Captain of the boat.

The fact of racing was fully proven. It is said that the furnaces were filled with tar and pitch. It is also stated that the boat had been on fire before, under similar circumstances.

No additional names of the dead have been ascertained.
(SECOND DISPATCH.)

DAILY REVIEW OF THE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY MORNING POST,
Saturday, July 31, 1852.

The weather in the first part of the day, yesterday, was very warm, notwithstanding the storm and heavy showers.

We have nothing of interest to note in the market—but very little doing, except in a regular retail way.

ASHES—We have no change to note in price or demand; we quote Soda at 3¾@4¼—cash and time; Saleratus, 4½@5¼; Pearls dull at 5½@5¾.

BACON—The market continues firm, with sales of 800lbs Hams at 9¾c; 600 do at 10c; 1 hhd. Shoulders at 8¼c; 6 do Hams at 9c; 8 do Shoulders at 8¼c; 200 pieces canvassed Hams at 10½c; 6 casks Shoulders at 8½c, with pay for casks.

CORN—Sales of 75 bus. from first hands at 49c.

COFFEE—Sales of 15 bags at 10¼c; 10 do at 10¾c.

WHISKY—We quote at 18@19c.

CHEESE—Sales at 6½@6¾c.

FLOUR—The only transactions we could learn of on the wharf were as follows: 40 bbls. at $3,20; 16 do Extra at $3,30; 21 do at $3,30; 40 do from store at $3,31.

COMMERCIAL SUMMARY.

BALTIMORE, July 29.

CATTLE—There were offered at the scales today 850 head of Beeves, of which number 700 head were sold to Butchers and packers,
